Common council met last evening aud unanimously adopted G. B. Van-Gorder's resolution appropriating $50 to the Fourth of July celebration fund. The resolution for a mail box for the board of health in the corridor of the city building was defeated. The resolution to pay the Lackawanna club $50 for partition in rooms formerly occupied by them was also defeated.

The joint street committee submitted an exhaustive report recommending fron bridges for Ricket brook and Cottage street and the crowning and ditching of many thoroughfares. The

LAST NIGHT'S LECTURE.

Rev. Ezra T. Sanford, of Port Jervis, gave a lecture in the Baptist church last evening. A fair sized audience was present and the proceeds go to the church fund. The speaker's subject was "Life in the East" and he treated it with much ability. The close Interest of his hearers was held for nearly two hours.

MORE SUBSCRIPTIONS.

The Palace Creamery, John Bilbert, P. G. Williams, Mrs. M. B. Madigan, Louis Gardella and I. H. Kelly, have subscribed $5 and Ike Burros $2, for the Independence day celebration fund. These run the amount up to about $200. All the committees will meet in the council rooms tonight and it is hoped there will be a large attendance. The celebration is assured and those interested want to make it a creditable one.

OLYPHANT.

A fatal accident occurred at Grassy shaft yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at which Benjamin Lloyd was killed. He was engaged as a miner and went to work yesterday morning in a new chamber. He had fired a blast and went back to the face of the chamber and was barring a piece of rock when the mass fell, crushing him beneath the weight of it. He was tenderly removed from under the debris by his fellow workmen, but expired before reaching the foot of the shaft. The news of his death was a severe shock to his many friends. The results of the final examination for the common school diploma was made known on Thursday afternoon when the chairmen of the various committee met in Superintendent J. C. Taylor's office and completed the work by granting about ninety diplomas. Fifteen of these go to the students of Moscow and vicinity. Twelve of the fifteen diplomas go to the eighth year pupils of the high high school of this town, every member of the class having passed the examination successfully, their percentages being among the highest in the county. Miss Ken-yen, who had charge of the examination, paid a high compliment to the general efficiency and neatness of the work.

The successful pupils were; Joseph Havenstrite, John Campbell, Nellie Campbell, Jesse Gardner, Hannah Harney, Frank Wardell, Helena Hol-Romie Wilbur, Edna Malone, lister. Cordella Pyle, Lena Sayer, George De Witt, Howard Yeager. Principal R. H. Martin has every reason to be proud of this splendid record.
