are made with Royal Baking Powder, and are the most appetizing, healthful and nutritious of foods.

Hot biscuit made with impure and adulterated baking powder are neither appetizing nor wholesome.

It all depends upon the baking powder.

Take every care to have your biscuit made with Royal, which is a pure cream of tartar baking powder, if you would avoid indigestion.

DELAWARE & HUDSON SUED FOR $100,000

A DAMAGE CASE RESULTING FROM CROSSING WRECK.

Attorney John T. Martin Claims to Have Been Permanently and Possibly Fatally Injured and Asks Compensation in the Sum of $100,000—Case Was Instituted in United States Court Yesterday by Attorneys Everett Warren, Nathan Vidaver and Joseph O'Brien.

Attorney John T. Martin, of Olyphant, yesterday began a trespass suit against the Delaware and Hudson Canal company for $100,000 damages for personal injuries, sustained in the wreck at the Diamond crossing, April 4 last. The case was filed with Clerk A. J. Colborn, of the United States Circuit court, by Attorney Everett Warren, Nathan Vidaver and Joseph O'Brien.

Mr. Martin in his statement avers that he got on the train at Olyphant that day to come to Scranton and was sitting in the second car of the train when the collision occurred. He was thrown out of his seat and hurled against the opposite side of the car, "sustaining injuries in the back, abdomen, spine, nerves, stomach, kidneys, brain, spinal chord, limbs and body."

At the time of the accident it was not thought he was seriously injured, a scratch on the neck being the only visible hurt. It later developed that he was injured internally, and according to the statements of his attorneys, based on their physicians' examinations, he will never be able to do any labor, and likely will not live more than a year.

In this same wreck it will be remembered, Engineer Richard Boucherly lost his life and two other Delaware, Lackawanna and Western employees were seriously injured.

A Delaware and Hudson passenger train due here at noon dashed into the engine of a Delaware, Lackawanna and Western freight train that was going east over the right-angle crossing, resulting in the collision.

"DEATH IN THE POT."

"Death in the pot." That sentence condenses the story of a tragedy. A little family gathering, a fine dinner cooked in the large copper kettle long disused, and the entire family poisoned by the accumulated veridiger that was told by the newspapers from one end of the land to the other. But it was soon forgotten. The moral of it is, that the purest of food, put into a foul vessel, instead of ministering to life may become a minister of death.

If the stomach is diseased it is like the poisonous kettle, which taints everything that goes into it. The symptoms are irregular appetite, undue fullness after eating, distressed feeling in the stomach, of fluttering and sinking sensations, palpitation, dizziness, ringing in ears, sour or bitter risings and constipation. Not all these symptoms may be present at the same time, but any of them shows disease in the digestive or alimentary tract.

The intimate relation of the stomach to the blood, heart, liver and lungs makes it a medical maxim in exploring the causes of obscure diseases to "start with the stomach." It is upon this principle that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery effects so many and such remarkable cures. It cleanses the stomach and the system is cleaned. It increases the action of the blood-making glands, and the body is enriched by the purified blood. It strengthens the digestive or nutritive organs and these strengthen the whole body by increasing the quantity and quality of its nourishment. It carries off the poisonous, effete matter. In this way it re-establishes health, banishing the bodily aches, which are but symptoms of the stomach's condition.

All medicine dealers call "Golden Medical Discovery." If they try to substitute something else, it is because "something else" pays better. Insist on "Golden Medical Discovery" if you want to be cured.

during the engine into a heap of scrap-iron and causing the derailing of the passenger engine and two of the three cars of the train. The second car toppled over until it almost touched the ground and the passengers were roughly shaken up and some of them cut severely by broken glass.

Common Pleas Court.

The final week of the May term of common pleas began yesterday with Judge Gunster presiding. Judge Archibald, who was to have sat with Judge Gunster, could not attend court, on account of illness. Judge George W. Purdy, of Honesdale, will assist today.

Cases were disposed of as follows on the calling over of the list: Settled—Michael Ruddy against the Mt. Jessup Coal company, wages; Bert Sweet against M. L. Langan, wages; A. E. Tiffany against Francis Riverson, appeal; John Malloy, Jr., against the Life Insurance Clearing company, assumption; John B. Davis against the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, trespass; Bernard Gilmartin against the Carbonate Traction company, trespass; Harry Connor against Louis Connor, wages.

Continued—F. D. Resher against D. W. Davis, ejectment; A. W. Hammett and others against the county of Lackawanna, trespass; Pittsburg Terra Cotta Lumber company against John A. Myers, assumpsit; Otto D. Myers against William B. Lawrence, trespass; New Jersey Steel and Iron company against John A. Mears, assumpsit.

The attorneys for the plaintiff having withdrawn their appearance, a verdict for the defendant was taken in the case of B. M. Winton and others against the Mt. Jessup Coal company.

In the suit of A. C. Vosburg against George Smith to recover a brown mare and a chestnut stallion, a verdict was rendered for the plaintiff. Smith, who is a jockey, held the horses for a bill for care and feeding. Vosburg alleged that the jockey took the animals in charge with the understanding that he was to sell them if possible for $300 apiece and to except a half share in their earnings as compensation for care and feeding.

Allen Johnson, of Scott, was awarded a wage claim of $39.77 against Russell & Brittain, coal operators.

Coray-Jenkins Dispute.

John S. Jenkins made answer yesterday to the petition of E. A. Coray for a rule for attachment for contempt against him, for disobeying the injunction of court secured by Coray directing him, Jenkins, not to sell or in any-wise dispose of certain property alleged to be held in trust by Jenkins for Coray.

The order of court was to the effect that Jenkins should not dispose of the two hundred shares of Rushbrook Coal company stock or any other property held by him in trust for Coray. The petition for the contempt attachment set forth that Jenkins violated the injunction in arranging to sell certain shares of Blue Ridge Coal company stock because the said Blue Ridge stock was secured by transferring a part of the two hundred shares of Rushbrook stock.

In his answer filed yesterday, Mr. Jenkins says he has not been guilty of contempt, because it has not been proven that he held any Blue Ridge stock in trust for Mr. Coray, or even that there is any Blue Ridge stock figuring anywhere in the case.

Judge Gunster referred the matter to Argument court.

In the case of Creighton & Birch against the Scranton Lace Curtain Manufacturing company, a motion was made yesterday morning by Attorney Joseph P. McCullen, of Philadelphia, and A. A. Vosburg, of this city, representing R. A. Blythe, for an issue to determine the validity of the judgment entered by Creighton & Birch against the Lace company. It is alleged that Blythe is a creditor of the lace concern to an extent of over $10,000 and that the judgment of Creighton & Birch is fraudulent.

This case was argued before the court some time ago, and a rule to open judgment was refused, but on an appeal to the Supreme court, it was held that the whole transaction between Creighton & Birch and the Lace company was prima facie fraudulent, and the judgment of the court below was reversed, and an issue directed.

In pursuance to this order of the Supreme court, this application was made. Messrs. Welles & Torrey opposed the motion; and as Judge Archibald, who handed down the opinion at the first hearing of the case, was sick and therefore unable to hear the case, Judge Gunster directed a rule to show cause, so that the case will come up at Argument court.

More Old Forge Bother.

Attorneys H. M. Hannah and J. T. McCullum made a motion yesterday for a rule to oust the recently elected officers of Old Forge borough, on the ground that the election was illegal because due notice was not given and because the order of court directing the election was imprudently and unlawfully made, the matter of incorporation of the borough having been appealed to the supreme court.

Saturday, June 17, was fixed as the time for hearing arguments.

In Bankruptcy Court.

E. P. Muecklow, E. H. Freeman and Herman Levy, the appraisers appointed by Referee C. A. Van Wormer to appraise the estate of Samuel Goldstein, of the Freeman Manufacturing company, whose estate is now in bankruptcy court, yesterday began their work under the supervision of A. J. Colborn, the trustee for the creditors. Mr. Goldstein estimates his assets at $4,200 and fixes his liabilities at $12,000.
