DUNMORE DOINGS.

Special Meeting of the School Board Last Evening Provoked Considerable Discussion as Regards Treasurer Wahler's Bond.

A special meeting of the school board was held in No. 1 building last evening. Messrs, Webber, Kellam, Miller, Costello and Spencer being present The meeting was called for the purpose of considering the report of the committee appointed to investigate the bond of Treasurer-elect Wahlers. Mr. Spencer, chairman of the committee, read the opinion of the board's attorney, Harry C. Reynolds, which was brief, but stated that the present elect borough treasurer was virtually the board's treasurer. With this opin ion the board saw fit to investigate the bond of the treasurer-elect, which was done after a great deal of discussion. They came to the conclusion that Mr. Wahlers' share of the bond was correct and sufficient, but objected to the kind of bond used, as it only held each liable to one-fourth, instead of the whole. The other bondsmen were considered insufficient as they now stand To settle the matter, Mr. Wahlers was asked to furnish a joint and surety bond. Mr. Wahlers, who was pres-
