The huge pumps which were, luckily, in working order when the Mt. Look-out mine was deluged with two million gallons of water caused by the bursting of the dam which confined it, was pumped out to surface yesterday and work will be resumed in a portion of the mine today. The "break" will be surrounded with a huge brick wall to avoid a like recurrence and both men and material were on the ground yesterday to commence the work.

UNIVERSALISTS AT ATHENS. Sessions of the Annual State Convention.

Athens, Pa., June 13.—The Universalists of the State of Pennsylvania met in the sixty-eighth annual state convention here yesterday morning.

At 10:30 the meeting was called to order by Judge Russell, of Towanda, the presiding officer. In a few very fitting remarks he briefly outlined the business of the convention, saying: "We are here to recognize the goodness of our Creator and to aid our fellow men in the enjoyment of His blessings; to further the interests of our denomination and the welfare of our fellow men."

After prayer by Rev. Mr. Brunning, reorganization was effected. The Scranton delegates, William Owens, Miss Ida Barber, Mrs. S. C. Benjamin, Mrs. P. A. Brandt and Alfred Donley, all answered to roll call, excepting the last named, who arrived on a later train. The reading of the minutes of the last state convention was dispensed with, as well as the treasurer's report.

Rev. L. H. Ballou, of Athens, Mrs. S. C. Benjamin, Scranton, and W. P. Zlaty, of Troy, were appointed a committee on religious services.

Other committees were appointed as follows: Committee on official reports, Rev. A. C. Rogers, D. D., Rev. J. D. Tilghast, Frank Dassalet.

Committee on unfinished business, Rev. Dr. E. C. Switzer, Ray Broderick, Mrs. M. M. Bell.

Committee on elections, Rev. O. R. Boardley, E. M. Tiffany, Mrs. P. Powell.

Committee on nominations, Rev. H. B. Fairchild, Miss Meredith, H. H. Gore.

A resolution was passed giving to all visiting clergymen the privilege of the floor.

At 11 o'clock business was suspended for communion services.

The communion service was opened by the congregation singing "Coronation," after which followed the reading of a portion of Scripture, twenty-second chapter of St. Luke, beginning at the fourteenth verse, by the pastor of the church, Rev. L. H. Ballou. After the singing of a hymn, Rev. Ballou offered prayer.

Rev. H. B. Fairchild, of Gibson, preached the communion sermon, taking for his text the twenty-fourth verse of the twenty-second chapter of St. Luke: "There arose also a contention among them which of them is counted to be greatest."

The same characteristics and ambitions Rev. Mr. Fairchild said, marked the disciples which distinguish men today, proving the kinship of the ages. If we desire to be great in the kingdom of heaven we must be Christ-like. To be Christ-like we must emulate his character as shown to us: First, in his choice, which made him our Saviour. Second, his courage, as shown by his taking upon himself the continuity of his ministry. Third, his forbearance, as exemplified by his silence, which no injustice could break. Fourth, by his love, as exemplified by his spirit of forgiveness. His character was cultivated through his communion with God.

We should commune with God. The preparation for His sacrament before us is best made by looking into our own hearts. We should learn to see, eye to eye, to God.

At the close of the sermon the Lord's Supper was administered. The pastor was assisted in the communion service by the former pastors, Rev. Beardsley, of Scranton; Rev. Tillinghast, of Towanda; and Rev. Brunning, of Springfield.

Pierce and adopted by nearly all the Baptist Sunday schools in the state. The church was tastefully decorated with flowers and ferns.
