HAPPENINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

SEVERAL PERSONS SERIOUSLY INJURED YESTERDAY.

Premature Explosion Injures James Young-Ernest Williams' Left Hand Hurt-Willie Jones Receives Internal Injuries-Programme for Children's Day at First Baptist Church-Prize Contest Winners Benediction. Announced-Workman's Aid Society Will Picnic.

James Young, of North Main avenue, was seriously injured yesterday in the Dickson mine. He had charged a hole and was inserting the squib, when, in some unaccountable manner, the charge went off, seriously injuring him around the body and legs. Ernest Williams, a driver boy in the Leggett's Creek mine, had the fingers of his left hand badly smashed yesterday. He was spraging a car when the car was violently pressed down, catching his hand between the sprag and tie. He was taken to his home on Spring street, where his injuries were dressed.

Willie Jones, of Throop street, was painfully injured yesterday. He is emplayed as a driver in the Cayuga mine and yesterday while putting the stretcher on the mule's back was kicked in the stomach by the beast. He received assistance from fellow workmen and was taken home, where he received medical attendance. It is feared he has sustained internal injuries.

Since our purchase of the big Beidleman stock of Books, we have been beseiged with book owners from all the country over. A veritable land-slide of great Book Offerings seems to have struck us. It's ever the way-always somebody who prefers cash in hand to a stock of goods. From many cities, extraordinary propositions have come to us-but one on Wednesday over-topped them all. A sale that, while it lasts, will be far more memorable than any we have ever known.

Quality, Not Quantity—for There's Only 1,000 Volumes

A sale that will be historic because of the class of reading it comprises. Rarely, if ever, has such an opportunity been offered. Here are writings from the most gifted pens, bound up into handsome editions-to be fairly sacrificed. In fact every volume has been marked

To Go at 33 Cents on the Dollar—and Less

Some of the volumes are in full morocco; nearly all in half morocco-a few in silk finished cloth. Story in detail follows. Every Book will be a valuable addition to the most humble Library, while to the most elaborate it will add the refining influences of the choicest reading. We're Thinking of Baby Today

And the comforts it should have for this trying weather. These innocent little mites, so dear to many of us, don't receive half the attention in the matter of suitable and seasonable clothing that is justly their due. This is not the result of intentional cruelty, but purely the outcome of thoughtlessness. As a matter of fact, these delicate little morsels of humanity are much more susceptible to temperature changes than are their older triends who love them so well. Think this matter over, then

Come and See the Comforts We've Got for Baby-Ajustable to All Kinds of Weather

A baby's complete outfit or wardrobe, can be bought here ready to wear, suitable for all ages and stages of childhood, and they're not of the coarse, ready-made variety, either. All that skill, art, quality and daintiness of finish and workmanship can accomplish has been centered on these tiny garments, and there isn't a garment baby can wear, for storm or sunshine, or night or day, that we can't supply at a moment's notice and without all the worry and trouble usually attending the making of these things at home, and we may add, for a good deal less money too, although that isn't often taken into consideration when it it comes to
