SCRANTON'S REPRESENTATION.—E. P. Cowell, of Philadelphia, will be present at Monday night's meeting of the board of trade and will endeavor to impress upon the members the advisability of Scranton being represented at the Philadelphia exposition. Secretary Atherton was notified yesterday of the coming of Mr. Cowell.

FOURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.—Rev. J. Ignatius Dunn, formerly assistant pastor at St. Paul's church, Green Ridge, now rector of St. Anthony's congregation at Stowell, is busily engaged in completing arrangements for the celebration's picnic July 4. A feature of the occasion will be the changing off of a fine horse, the tickets being sold at 50 cents.

THEFT CHARGED.—May Baker was arrested yesterday morning upon a warrant issued by Alderman Kasson, charging her with the larceny of a gold watch and two rings, Bessie Crandall being the complainant. Both girls are employed as waitresses at the Golden Gate cafe in Adams avenue and room together.

CLASS OF '99 HONORS. Charles E. Dougherty, Valedictorian and Miss Elfrida Sylvester Salutatorian—Others Who Comprise First Ten of Class.

Arrangements for the high school commencement are practically complete. Scranton has every reason to feel proud of her high school, and Professor George W. Phillips has just cause to be pleased with the results of his year's work.

Ten of the class of '99 are taking the examinations for entrance to Princeton, one at least at Harvard, while Lafayette and other colleges are being represented in the applicants. Many girls are also preparing for college examinations. The honor pupils are the following: Valedictorian, Charles E. Dougherty; salutatorian, Miss Elfrida Sylvester. The remaining members of the class who compose the first ten in order named: Leon Levy, Walter Benedict, Margaret Gould, Pearl Trevorton, Margaret Lichstone, Harry C. Rose, Kate Chase, Maud Shumway.

The graduating class is remarkable in one respect, and that is a significant one. The number of boys is thirty-three, while there are but sixteen more girls, or forty-nine. In the past the majority of boys have left school before graduation. This year, too, another surprise greets the public as the valedictorian is a boy.

Classical Department—Nellie Hitchcock, Mary R. Williams, Charles Dougherty, Leon Levy, Roswell McMillan, Albert Motiska, William H. Scranton. English Course—Mary Cristobal, Harold W. How Mrs. Pinkham HELPED MRS. GOODEN.

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 12313. "I am very grateful to you for your kindness and the interest you have taken in me, and truly believe your medicines and advice are worth more to a woman than all the doctors in the world. For years I had female troubles and did nothing for them. Of course I became no better and finally broke down entirely. My troubles began with inflammation and hemorrhages from the kidneys, then inflammation, congestion and falling of the womb and inflammation of ovaries.

"I underwent local treatment every day for some time; then after nearly two months the doctor gave me permission to go back to work. I went back, but in less than a week was compelled to give up and go to bed. On breaking down the second time, I decided to let doctors and their medicine alone and try your remedies. Before the first bottle was gone I felt the effects of it. Three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and a package of her Sanative Wash did me more good than all the doctors' treatments and medicine.

"The first remark that greets me now is 'How much better you look!' and you may be sure I never hesitate to tell the cause of my health."—MRS. E. J. GOODEN, ACKLEY, IA.

ments will be thoroughly modern in every detail. The ground floor will be used by Mr. Canfield, his chief clerk and private secretary, Mr. Martin, and his stenographer. The second story will be devoted to the offices of the clerical force. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy by July 10.

TO RE-ESTABLISH FACTORY.

Clark & Scott Preparing to Start Up Without Delay. James J. Scott, of the firm of Clark & Scott, left yesterday morning for Cleveland, Cincinnati and Louisville to purchase machinery and stock for establishing a new plant to take the place of the one destroyed by fire Thursday morning. Negotiations for a factory building are on, and it is expected will be concluded before Mr. Scott returns. Should this be the case the work of installing the new machinery will be commenced without delay.

Mr. Scott is firmly convinced that the fire was of incendiary origin. What he finds out he will report to the city. It is expected that the explosion was of such force that it blew fragments of the building a distance of two blocks.

COMPANY C IS BACK IN THE GUARD

CAPTAIN ROBLING AGAIN IN COMMAND OF IT. The Company was Mustered in Last Night with Fifty Men—Two Lieutenants, Edward Burkhouse and Thomas Murphy Re-Enlisted as Sergeants, Which Positions They Held Before the War—Two Companies Now Comprise the Thirtieth Regiment.

Company C, of the Thirtieth regiment, was re-admitted to the National Guard last night. The mustering-in occurred at the armory and was performed by Colonel H. A. Coursen. Captain Frank Robling was mustered in as commander on the strength of his two lieutenants, Edward Burkhouse and Thomas Murphy, who were commissioned after the company entered the United States service, re-entered the guard as sergeants, which positions they held before the war. The lieutenant was very likely to be elected to the lieutenant's rank.

Thirty-six of the fifty men were members of Company C, prior to its entrance in the volunteer service. Seven were men who joined during the recruiting last summer, and the other seven are "stragglers."

Company G, of Montrose, and Company C, now compose the Thirtieth regiment, National Guard of Pennsylvania. Colonel Coursen is energetically endeavoring to reorganize several of the other companies and confidently hopes to muster in Company F and Company B. The latter company held another meeting last night and added several names to its roll.

CHARMING ENTERTAINMENT.

Given by Penn Avenue Baptist Sunday School. The primary department of the Sunday school of the Penn Avenue Baptist church conducted a charming entertainment in the Sunday school room of that edifice last evening.

The interior of the room was tastefully decorated with plants and flowers and presented a very beautiful appearance. Seats were arranged on an elevated platform and the pupils, numbering about 150, were seated upon them, bright clever children all of them and eager to contribute their share to the evening's entertainment.

Songs were sung by the school in chorus and by H. Havari, Clara Judd, Alma Long, Elma Reese, Ola and E. Haslam and Ruth Hall. Recitations were given by Emma Mengle, Romaine Moyer, Belle Van Scoten, Ire Kapp, Ruth Kochler, Edith Gates, Elsie Fryer, H. Sissenberger, Dewitt Reed, Virgie Griggs, Lillie Leng, Alma Leng, Alma Matthews, Clayton Hall, L. Swartz, D. Atkinson, Willie Foote and Mary Everett. A violin trio composed of Alice Chappart, Albert Hall and G. Lorey assisted in an emblematic piece entitled "A Daisy Chain" was also given. The affair was under the direction of Miss Krigbaum.

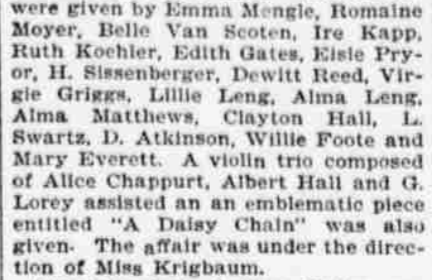

Superintendent Luther Keller announces that Sunday school will be held at 12 o'clock noon, instead of 2 during the summer months.

No New Developments.

Yesterday was absolutely devoid of any new developments as far as the carpenters-tinsmiths-plasterers' strike was concerned. Both sides are maintaining their usual firm attitudes. The strikers are simply awaiting the action of the Exchange, and if that body wishes to confer with the men there is a committee awaiting to receive them. If they do not confer before Monday the tie-up will be on. There will be a special meeting of the Building Trades' council this evening in Carpenters' hall, Wyoming avenue.

From Wall Street.

"General Manager Hallstead, of the Lackawanna, and Superintendent Bogart have resigned and their resignations have been accepted. It is expected that the office of general manager will be abolished and that its duties will be performed by Traffic Manager Caldwell.

"General Coal Agent W. R. Storrs and his assistant, W. H. Storrs, have been superseded, and a number of the mine foremen are going also."—Wall Street Journal.

THIS AND THAT.

Plumbers' union, No. 90, will hold a special meeting Sunday afternoon.

J. M. Daily, superintendent of transportation of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, went to New York city yesterday. Mr. Daily will spend today in conference with President Truesdale, of the company.

Thomas Quinn, of South Scranton, has resigned his position at the South mill machine shops of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company and has become foreman of the machine shops of the Scranton Traction company.

The handsomely remodeled parlor car "Hoboken" was turned out of the passenger shop of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company of this city yesterday. The "Hoboken" has been in the shops for two weeks. The parlor car "Binghamton" will be brought into the shops today for a general repairing and remodeling.

The remodeled and re-constructed office building of Master Car Builder Canfield, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western shops, is nearly completed. The building, which for many years was used by Robert McKenna, sr., and his force of clerks, was far too inadequate for Mr. Canfield. Another story has been added to it, and the appoint-
