DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH.

YOUNG PEOPLE QUIETLY WED-DED AT BINGHAMTON.

It Was a Double Event and the Contracting Parties Were John Edmund Milner and Miss Margaret Stewart and Andrew Coulter and Miss Anna Williams-They Will Return Home Today - William Seiger Had Two of His Fingers Lacerated Cutting Fish Poles.

A very quiet double wedding was performed at the Presbyterian parsonage. Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday at noon. The contracting parties were John Edmund Milner, of Harper street, and Miss Margaret Stewart, of North Apple street; Andrew Coulter, of Depue street, and Miss Anna Williams, of North Main avenue, Providence,

The young people left on the 9 o'clock a. m. Delaware,Lackawanna and Western train. Upon arriving at Binghamton they proceeded at once to the parwhere they were united by the Rev. Mr. Dunham. They were unac- of V companied, their friends leaving them son. at the depot. They will return home today and a reception will be held.

Mrs. Milner is the daughter of Joseph Stewart, of Apple street, Coulter is the daughter of John Williams, of North Main avenue. Both are well known. Mr. Muner and Mr. Coul-ter are employes of the Pennsylvania Coal company. Both young men are well known, having appeared before the public with the Arilington double quartette, and are quite prominent. They will reside in Dunmore,

INJURED WHILE FISHING.

William Selger is suffering at his home, on Spring street, from an injury received while fishing at Big pond, Wayne county, several days ago. It was necessary for Seiger to secure more fishing poles, and with this in mind he journeyed into the forest in search of them. Finding several, he proceeded to hew them down.

While doing this, he nearly severed several fingers, lacerating them badly, His companions bandaged them in the best way possible, and started at once for home. The doctor has hopes of saving the fingers.
