PERMANENT MAN SEES EX-TINGUISHED A FIRE.

He was Unaided and Was Slightly Burned During His Fight with the Flames—Letters That Remain Uncalled for at the Postoffice—Wesley Pinnell Operated Upon at the Moses Taylor Hospital—Michael Gettings, of Franklin Street, Injured—Other News Notes.

What might have been a disastrous fire was prevented by Permanent Man George Seese, of the Neptune Chemical company, Saturday afternoon. Single handed he fought the blaze which had a good start and succeeded in saving a large double dwelling. The fire was in the home of Thomas McAndrews, on Throop avenue, Sport Hill. It started, it is supposed, from a cloth the girl had been cleaning the stove with and had been placed in the cellar-way. Flames soon burst forth and caught the wood work. Permanent Man Seese was passing by, and began to fight it with the only means at hand—a water bucket. After persistent efforts he succeeded in extinguishing it, having by good judgment kept it confined in the cellar-way. The damage was about $100. Permanent Man Seese was the hero of the hour. He was slightly burned. No alarm was sounded.

UNCALLED FOR LETTERS.

Letters remaining unclaimed at the postoffice during the period ending June 17, 1899. Persons calling for these letters will please say advertised in Scranton Tribune:

Mrs. M. Burke, Clay avenue; Patrick Cuff, Gilsey Grove; Mrs. T. McDonald, Bloom street; Mrs. James Moore, Grove street; Michael Morgan, Franklin street; Michael Sweeney (foreign), Potter street; Mrs. Walsh, 20 Willow street; Silas J. Bellas, R. Carr, Mrs. W. A. Connolly, Job Ellis, Mrs. Bridget Hogan (foreign), John Harper, C. B. Peterman, Mrs. Anthony Tighe, Samuel O. Wells, Giuseppe Dariento, Arcangelo Crucery, Filomena Meliso, Andro Holligan.

HE IS RECOVERING.

Wesley Pinnell, of West Drinker street, is resting quite comfortably at the Moses Taylor hospital, where he underwent an operation the latter part of last week.

About two years ago he was injured in the machine shops of the Dunmore Iron and Steel company, which made it necessary to take a large piece of the bone in the left leg and insert a piece of metal in its place. Inflammation gathered about this, and he was again taken to the hospital for treatment.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SERMON BY REV. J. T. ELLIS, OF BLAKELY.

Preached in Jackson Street Baptist Church on "Measuring Jerusalem." Branch 15 installs Officers—Farewell to Salvation Army Officers. Reorganization of Company F. Fifth Ward Election—Street Cars Collide—Mine Accidents—Runaway Boys Caught—Other Notes.

Rev. J. T. Ellis, of Blakely, occupied the pulpit of the Jackson Street Baptist church yesterday morning and preached a powerful sermon on "Measuring Jerusalem," taking his text from Zechariah, II:3-4. "Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof." Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of man and cattle therein.

Rev. Ellis spoke, in part, as follows: "Zechariah is the most uniformly hopeful of the ancient seers. A contemporary of Haggai, he encouraged the Jews to rebuild their temple. His mission was successful. The prophecies, embodied in the book bearing his name, bear the stamp of splendid imagination and indicate a mind endowed with rare poetic gifts. Like those of Daniel, Zechariah's prophecies forecast the horoscope of history, from his own to the times of Gentile supremacy, but are concerned chiefly with the fortunes of Israel. The Book is an apocalypse. The prophet saw things invested with the glory of morning, and wreathed about with the lustre of sunset. One after another he draws pictures of what God is about to do.

"Various prophets refer to the same mystic measurer Zechariah saw. The vision is an allegory, it carries a great gospel truth, and wreathed about with the spiritual, the Jerusalem of the prophet's vision is not the earthly, but heavenly Jerusalem. Looked at thus, it is full of significance, eloquent with light, and vocal with a great evangel of hope. Two things worth considering are suggested: First, a faith that realizes things unseen to mortal vision; second, the impossibility of measuring by human standard the things faith sees.

"The proposal of the measurer in the text, to the worldly man would seem an absurdity. Great faith is often sneered at as great folly. Many prophets have become concurrent, in the language of the day, that pour contempt upon the lofty idealism of heroic souls. The gospel of the world has for its text, 'Seeing is believing.' Religious people are sneered at for 'Otherworldliness.' But the one great divine need of this materialistic age is a fresh infusion into men's souls of this Spirit of the other world, that they may feel the powers of the age to come.

"Earth's greatest men have been idealists. The whole vast galaxy of 'Immortals,' who live in lives made better by their presence, have had their inspiration in the vision of things to come, men who have flung their thoughts far into the future. Deirdre as fanatic while they lived, they are now the acknowledged kings of human thought. 'The dead, but sceptered sovereigns,' whose spirits rule us from their urns.

"Only as we catch the spirit of such men can we, the workers of today, do our work bravely and patiently. Applied to Christ's service, many illustrations were given of the power of faith transfiguring life with a new purpose. Let us look at ourselves in the light of Divine promise and infinite purpose, and we shall see towering above the ruins of old Jerusalem the city of God, which is eternal.

"The things visible to the eye of faith are immeasurable. To the Patrons see the dimensions of the city were given, men taking their cue from the figures given, have speculated as to the size of the city of God. What folly! There is an unknown quantity entering into all God does, a divine equation which defies measurement. Men cannot gauge moral influences, nor tabulate spiritual forces; a church cannot be measured. It is easy to find out the number of its members, but quite easy to take a census, but the church of Christ in its self-forgetting generosity, enthusiasm and patience cannot be measured.

"A large church—yet it may be a candlestick, the candle removed; said that his last in answer to the question, 'What may be as smoke, the handful like the burning Seraphim before the Almighty's throne. Tables of statistics are like Noah's ark, they include the clean and unclean. The church is smaller than measuring tables. The church also is larger and broader for it is a multitude no man can number. There is power in the church none can measure; some not yet converted, much but half converted.

"Let the breath of God from the four winds but breathe upon us and we shall live. With his breath God creates life in its vast outreach of worth and upreach of wealth; know that we are all a part of God's great plan for time and eternity, thus inspired there will be no failure, no discouragement. God opens our eyes to see, and seeing God's vision we shall go on from strength to strength."

The pastor, Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, preached in Blakely church in the morning, and Mrs. William Scott, a missionary, spoke in the afternoon.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS. The recently elected officers of Branch 15, Ancient Order of Hibernians, were installed at the regular meeting in Masonic hall yesterday afternoon. They are as follows:

President, Anthony McAndrew; vice president, John Granahan; recording secretary, William J. McGee; financial secretary, Peter Cosgrove; treasurer, M. F. Wymbs; standing committee, John O'Connor, Patrick Hayes, Patrick Shovin, Henry McDermott, Patrick Whited; sergeant at arms, Peter Merrick; doorkeeper, James Murphy.

Mrs. Barnard Thanks MRS. PINKHAM FOR HEALTH.

LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 15,923. "DEAR FRIEND—I feel it my duty to express my gratitude and thanks to you for what your medicine has done for me. I was very miserable and losing flesh very fast, had bladder trouble, fluttering pains about the heart and would get so dizzy and suffered with painful menstruation. I was reading in a paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I wrote to you and after taking two bottles I felt like a new person. Your Vegetable Compound has entirely cured me and I cannot praise it enough."—MRS. J. O. BARNARD, MILLTOWN, WASHINGTON CO., ME.

An Iowa Woman's Convincing Statement.

"I tried three doctors, and the last one said nothing but an operation would help me. My trouble was profuse flooding; sometimes I would think I would flow to death. I was so weak that the least work would tire me. Reading of so many being cured by your medicine, I made up my mind to write to you for advice, and I am so glad that I did. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and followed your directions, and am now well and strong. I shall recommend your medicine to all, for it saved my life."—Miss A. P., Box 31 Auburn, Iowa.

The Salvation army tendered a farewell to Adjutant and Mrs. Simms at the barracks yesterday prior to their departure for other fields of labor. The memorial service was also held in memory of the late sister, Mrs. Morgan. The annual distribution of prizes to the children was also made by the officers in charge. Adjutant Simms and wife have been very successful here and they leave with the best wishes of the entire corps.

INJURED IN THE MINES.

George Richards, of 219 North Filmore avenue, a miner in the Mt. Pleasant, was seriously injured while at work at 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Richards was blasting and when he ignited the south in the bore hole, the gas surrounding it caught fire.

Richards propped some water to extinguish the flames, and as he was pouring the water on the fire, the charge of powder in the hole exploded, injuring him about the head, face, hands and shoulders. He was taken to the hospital.

Dr. D. J. Jenkins was summoned and attended the injured man, who is in a critical condition.

Gustave Benson, a miner employed at the Bellevue, while working a cross-cut on Saturday, was similarly injured by the flying of a coal dust and sustained injuries to his back. His body was also cut and bruised. Dr. Douglass attended him.

CHARLES GODSHALL ELECTED.

The special election in the Fifth ward held on Saturday afternoon to choose a successor to John H. Walker in common council resulted in a signal victory for the Republican nominee, Charles Godshall. His majority was 35 votes over his next highest opponent, Patrick Mitchell, and his plurality in the four districts was 223.

The vote cast in different districts for the four candidates were as follows:

Table with 4 columns: Candidate, 1st, 2d, 3d, 4th. Godshall: 126, 87, 143, 217. Hughes: 8, 36, 18, 21. Dorsey: 1, 1, 1, 1. Mitchell: 21, 66, 17, 34.

STREET CARS COLLIDE.

Shortly before 12 o'clock Saturday night a Petersburg-Luzerne car in charge of Conductor Joseph McNally and a car of C. Roelle, collided with a North Main avenue car near the corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, and the fender of the former was damaged. The glass in the front end of the car was also broken.

The rails were wet near the point where the cars collided and the motor-man, after reversing the power, was unable to stop the car before it crashed into the one in front. Fortunately no one was injured.

REORGANIZATION OF COMPANY F

About twenty members of company F, Pennsylvania Volunteer infantry, met in Saturday evening evening for the purpose of reorganizing the company to enter the National guard.

The muster roll was signed by all present, and the indications point to a permanent organization. The additional members necessary will be enrolled as soon as possible, and another meeting will be held in the near future to take definite action.

RUNAWAY BOYS CAUGHT.

The whereabouts of Edward Coggins and Willie Lewis, who disappeared from their homes last week, mention of which was made in this department, has been communicated to Chief of Police Robling.

They are detained by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in New York city, and will be sent to their homes here. Chief Robling notified the parents on Saturday and wired the authorities in New York to send the boys home.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The funeral of the late Mrs. John Jenkins will take place from her late home, Luzerne street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

The ladies of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church will conduct an entertainment and old-fashioned supper in the church this evening.

Mrs. Randolph Jones and Miss Marilla Mott conducted the praise service at the Young Women's Christian association rooms yesterday afternoon.

The choir of St. Patrick's church sang "Silas" mass yesterday morning under the direction of Professor John T. Watkins.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Mrs. Llewellyn were held at the home of Mrs. D. M. Jones, on Elyon street Saturday afternoon. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

Rev. T. Valentine Evans, D. D., of South Wales, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Jones, of Academy street, occupied the pulpit of the First Welsh Baptist church at both services yesterday.

The funeral of the late Thomas Carroll was conducted at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the home of his daughter, Mrs. John F. Regan, 253 Railroad avenue. Interment was made in Cathedral cemetery.

Rev. William Smith, of Nanticoke, occupied the pulpit of the Plymouth Congregational church at both services yesterday.

Fred Clemmer, of Brick avenue, met with a painful accident Saturday at the Dickson mine, of Plymouth, employed as a slate picker. He was shoveling the pea coal down the chute when he

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

REV. AUSTIN GRIFFIN SPOKE LAST NIGHT.

Delivered an Able Sermon at Cedar Avenue M. E. Church—Funeral of Walter Miller Attended by a Very Large Gathering—Mrs. Peter Fuhr Held in $300 Bail—Clam Bake of the Fourteen Friends—Picnic and Games of Electric Athletic Club. News and Personal Notes.

Rev. A. Griffin, D. D., the presiding elder of the Wyoming conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, officiated at the evening services at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church last night.

Rev. Mr. Griffin preached an able and eloquent sermon, taking his text from the Gospel of St. John, I: 10, 11 and 12. He dwelt forcibly upon the powers of Christ to save all mankind, and the abundant opportunities His children have to be the chosen ones. At the close of the sermon the members of the congregation approached the chance of railing and partook of the Lord's supper. A large number of probationers were accorded the honor and took advantage of it.

FUNERAL OF WALTER MILLER.

The funeral of Walter Miller, whose sudden death occurred Wednesday night, was held from his late home, 418 Willow street, Saturday afternoon. The deep sense of regret entertained by the friends of the young man and the respect felt for him was fully attested by the large gathering, assembled at his home.

Rev. W. A. Nordt, of the Hickory Street Methodist Episcopal church, conducted the services which were held at the house. Rev. Nordt glowingly referred to the exemplary life spent by the departed young man.

The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Washington avenue cemetery, August 18th. August 18th, Bohr, Charles and Henry James were the pall-bearers.

BEFORE ALDERMAN LENTES.

Peter Fuhr and his wife, of Pittston avenue, were arraigned before Alderman Lentes Saturday night on the charge of assault and battery and threatening to kill Mrs. Matilda Kaub, their neighbor, appeared as prosecutrix. Her evidence was not sufficient, in the judgment of the alderman, to warrant the holding of Mr. Fuhr, but his wife was required to furnish bail to the amount of $300.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

The annual outing and clam bake of the Fourteen Friends was held yesterday afternoon at the Meadows on No. 5 mountain. The occasion was one round of pleasure, and was in keeping with similar past events of the Friends. Over sixty prominent South Scranton men were present.

The alarm of fire from box 41 at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon was occasioned by a blaze in a Polish tenement dwelling on South Washington avenue. Comparatively little damage was done to the building.

The annual excursion of the Junger Maennerchor will be run to Lake Ariel July 10. The best evidence that it will be a record breaking event is that the committee of management was completely over a hundred tickets again Saturday. The demand is phenomenal.

Miss Sarah Ruane, of Cedar avenue, received a telegram yesterday from her brother, Patrick Ruane, at Omaha, Nebraska, notifying her that their father, Thomas Ruane, assistant chief of the Omaha fire department was dying from injuries sustained at a large fire there Saturday.

Pea Coal Delivered, $1.25, to South Side, central city and central Hyde Park. Address orders to C. E. Sharkey, 1914 Cedar ave. Phone 6625.
