Scranton added another victory to its string yesterday by shutting out Read-ing in a one-sided game. The only feature was Keenan's pitching. Rain interfered with the second game. The game at Wilkes-Barre was also postponed on account of rain. Allentown defeated Newark by good hitting and fast base running, and Richmond increased their percentage by timely hitting and wonderful fielding. The National league games were won and lost by close scores yesterday, and at Chicago it required thirteen innings to decide the game with the champions. Brooklyn, Baltimore and Washington continue their winning streak, and Cincinnati managed to pull out a victory at Philadelphia. New York turned the tables on Pittsburg.

SCRANTON WINS ANOTHER

Shut Out Reading by a Score of 4-0. Second Game Stopped on Account of Rain.

Only one game was played at Athletic park yesterday afternoon, which re-sulted in a victory for Scranton. The second game was called at the beginning of the first inning on account of the wind and rain storm, which came over the city at 4 o'clock.

Scranton shut Reading out in the first game, by a score of 4 to 0. Keenan's work in the box was excellent, and he was well supported, Knoll was again in the game, but Mc Mahon is still absent. Risley took his place at short. The features of th game was Lippert's home run, which started the 200 spectators to their fee Murphy pitched well, and fooled the Scranton men on several occasions. Reading started the afternoon's game but got no further than second, Cockman reaching there on an error of Lip The only time they were at all dangerous was in the fourth, when Strat ton sent out a two-bagger, and reached third on Lawrence's infield bunt t Keenan. Stratton died there, as Smith the next man up, flew out to Stauch. The only time they died to the tune of one, two, three, was in the seventh. Smith and Snyder were thrown out at first, and Murphy fouled out to Dillon. Scranton's first run was made in the first by Knoll. Doherty came to bat, but flew out to Stratton, Knoll singled, Dillon followed, and flew to Betts; ther came Eagan, with a two-bagger, scoring Knoil. Eagan was thrown out at home by Stratton.

In the third inning, we scored two more, and one in the fourth, which ended our total for the first game. The game was well played, the Scranton team showing a brace from yesterday's work. Moran umpired an excellent game, and gave good satisfaction. The

STOPPED BY RAIN.

The heavy flood of rain halted the second game at a most inopportunte

Thanks to a nervy play by Flanaghan, who was doing substitute work at short, and a brisk double by Risley, Stouch and Dillon, Reading was prevented from sending more than Browns, desires to contradict the three men to the plate in the first half, of the game with the South Side club Swift's men, however, were more as given in the Times of Monday in fortunate. On the lanky Carvey's fumble, followed by his wild throw to Drauby, Doherty claimed first bag by a narrow margin. Knoll tried two bunts unsuccessfully and then fanned, but Dillon did better. He connected with a low one that was just to his fancy and lifted it to short left field, advancing Doherty to second station.

At this point in the game with one out, two on the circuit and all hands full of ginger, the diamond became hidden in clouds of dust and players and bleachers purloined the shelter of the grand stand. In a few moments the infield was a lake of muddy water and it would have been impossible to have continued even if the rain had coon ceased to fall.

Flanaghan's initial and only play was "peach," as someone back of the corers' box remarked. The first Reading citizen got on the circuit by being hit with a pitched ball. He tried to steal second, but ran into a most effective blockade made by the kid, who had slipped while running to receive O'Neill's throw, but who had caught the ball while on his knees in front of the bag and gamely remained in that position to make the out. He did it, too, but the collision was of the railroad variety.

Childs, the second Reading man up, drew four bad ones, but he figured in the first end of a double play.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

By Associated Press. New York, June 20.—Today's advance in the price of stocks after an early weakness was no more conclusive of a settled condition of the speculative stion of the future course of the stock ation of the future course of the stock market than was yesterday's decline. There was a brief and spasmodic period of liquidation in Federal Steel and American Steel and Wire in the opening dealings and the professional bear party took advantage of this to make a drive against the whole market. But the brief duration of the decline and the firm resistance offered by prices at the lower points warned the bears of the futility of an effort to break the whole market. They therefore took their profits on the decline of yesterday and this morning by buying stocks at the low level. Total sales, 372,100 shares. Railroad bonds were heavy, Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulg firsts dropping 24. Total sales, par vaule, $1,800,000. United States new 4s and the 3s registered declined 15. do. coupon, the old 4s and the 5s ¼ in the bid price.

By Carrington & Cusack.

New York, June 20.-The market opened New York, June 29.—The market opened weak due to an attack on Federal Steel common in the shape of a temporary injunction restraining the payment of the dividend. On the decline advantage was taken of to cover heavily in Steel and Wire, Brooklyn Rapid Transit and the list generally, and after the first half hour, the market developed considerable strength, recovering its early loss and in most cases advancing above last night's most cases advancing above last night's most cases advancing above last night's close. London was a free seller at botclose. London was a free seller at bottom prices, there being quite a bearish teeling on our securities there. Wheat weakened off sharply in Chicago which had a favorable effect on the Grangers and Induced covering. Tennessee Coal and Iron was again a strong feature. We understand that a prominent operator is quite heavily short of the stock and that their price has been advanced to prevent his covering. If this is a fact, it will sell higher. Continental Tobacco broke 40 on the bear article in this morning's Times, attacking the company and implying that there was no profit in the business at present prices.

The market continued strong up to about 2.30 when selling by some of the early buyers caused a slight decline from best prices of the day and closed the market somewhat below the top. As far as we can see there is no change in its condition, the trading being very professional and we do not think there is any probability of an extended upward movement just at the moment, atthough we are advised that Brooklyn Rapid Transit and the Flower specialties are liable to sell at much higher prices. Market closed dull and irregular with a strong undertone.
