DUNMORE DOINGS.

James McLaughlin Died Very Suddenly Yesterday—Graduating Exercises Tonight—School Children's Picnic.

James McLaughlin, of Harper street, died yesterday morning about 8:15 o'clock, from heart failure. He had been under the care of a doctor for the past six months, but was able to attend to his work until six weeks ago, when he was compelled to cease.

He retired yesterday evening in good spirits. The first occupants of his home were aware of his illness when they heard a noise in the room overhead, and thinking he wished to draw their attention, hurried to his room, only to find him dead on the floor.

It is supposed that, in his death struggle, he tried to make them aware of his serious condition, became exhausted as he attempted to rise from his bed and sank to the floor. Coroner Roberts was notified and arrived in the afternoon. He decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

The deceased would have been 39 years of age next November. He is the son of the late Robert McLaughlin, and was generally well-known. The funeral will take place from his home on Harper street, Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. W. F. Gibbons, pastor of the Presbyterian church, will officiate. Interment will be made in the family plot in Dunmore cemetery.

JONAS LONG'S SONS. JONAS LONG'S SONS.

TODAY IS GRADUATION

Books for Gifts.

Bedecked in white and beaming with smiles, the "sweet girl," etc., holds the fort against all-comers tonight. You'll surely remember her greatest day with some gift. And the young men—they graduate, too. What's more appropriate than a book? Assortment was never better than now. Elegant editions of Shakespeare and the Poets, worth $6 and $7 are now $3.50—some are much lower prices. Books of all kinds. New copyright fiction and miscellaneous works of every description.

$100 Typewriters at Half Price

A golden opportunity, if you require a typewriter. There are only three of them. After these are sold—you'll pay $100 for the same kind. They are the famous "Manhattan" pattern. Rub off the name from in front and you'll swear they're a Remington. All modern improvements. Easy running. Delicate touch. Automatic ribbon movement. Remington keyboard. Our price on the three we have is less than the actual cost to agents. On sale in the Stationery Department.

The Selling of Muslin Underwear

If our obligation to you ended with the buying and selling of Muslin underwear, we wouldn't have this to tell. We think you ought to be told the difference between the good and the bad—the kind you get here and the contrast with that of other stores. No factories in the country can compare with the one which furnishes our supply. To vouch for the truth of this statement go into the best stores in New York and Philadelphia—you'll find the same kind; perhaps a little more elaborately priced. See this wonderful show on second floor. It will interest you.

Little Prices on This has been Finest Millinery a wonderful millinery season. Never has the selling been so great. Our work rooms have been besieged with orders from early till late. And now for the final round-up, with prices that no other store in these parts can approach.

Standard Encyclopedia in Two Volumes. The Standard is a modern edition of the Zell Encyclopedia. Absolutely correct in detail and up-to-date in every particular. Contains every subject of interest—both historical and biographical. Complete in two large volumes. Bound in handsome black linen cloth over leather corners. Publishers' price is $8. Our price is $1.50. Not over 50 sets left. A few sets, bound in half morocco at $2.25.

SOOTH SCRANTON. In this column yesterday, an item appeared, noting the arrest of Herman Gutheinz, a butcher, who was charged by his wife with cruelly beating her. There are many who, upon reading the article, not knowing the much accused Herman, mistook the popular William Krayer and Weissner, meat dealers, for the guilty man. There are hundreds of Mr. Gutheinz's friends over here who did not know his first name. Mr. Gutheinz sought The Tribune man last night, and asked that he be set right. There is not a more home-loving, industrious and law-abiding citizen than William Gutheinz, and the fact that this wrong impression was entertained, is to be deeply deplored.

Mrs. Mathias Robling was arraigned before Alderman Lentz yesterday, charged by Carl Saft, with having committed assault and battery upon his young son. The evidence, in the mind of the alderman, did not sustain the allegation and the defendant was discharged.

Mrs. Bell Kern, of Genet street, had a warrant issued by Alderman Lentz yesterday, for the arrest of Edward Quinman, a lad of 12 years. She charged him with beating her 6-year-old daughter. The lad, when called, gave bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at court. His father qualified as bondsman.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Ritz, of Willow street, returned yesterday from a week's stay at Ashland. They were the guests of Dr. Ritz's parents. Camp 499, Patriotic Order Sons of America, will elect officers for the ensuing term at its regular meeting next Monday night.

Century lodge, Knights of Honor, held a regular meeting at Stora's hall last night. Two members were initiated to membership.

Mrs. Louis Zimmer, of Cedar avenue, went to New York city yesterday, to visit her son, Mr. Zimmer's, parents. The annual picnic and concert of the popular Ringgold band will be held at Central Park garden the afternoon and night of July 3. South Scranton people owe much to this excellent band, and no doubt will evidence their appreciation at the approaching event.

Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., pastor of the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church, has been secured to address the South Side branch of the Young Women's Christian association, 1921 Cedar avenue, Sunday next at 4 P. M.

OBITUARY. James Ruane died at the Lackawanna hospital at 8 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of several days. His death was due to pneumonia. A sad hour he died is that at about the four he passed away the remains of his brother, Thomas Ruane, who died at Omaha, Saturday last, were being viewed for the last time. Deceased was a widely known young man of the city. For many years he was a steelworker and was popular among his associates. He was born in Ireland, in the town of Kesh, and was connected with the office of Alderman Buddy. Mr. Ruane was married twice, and survived by his mother, Mrs. Bridget Ruane, two children, his sister, Miss Sarah Ruane, and brothers, Patrick, of Omaha, and Joseph, of this city. The funeral arrangements are yet incomplete.

Mrs. Thomas J. Stewart, of Moosic, died Tuesday after an illness of six months of a complication of diseases. Born in Monmouthshire, Wales, sixty years ago, she came to this country when sixteen years of age and for a number of years resided in Pileston. Twenty-four years ago she was married and since then had resided in Moosic. The funeral will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Marcy cemetery, Durysa.

Mrs. Minnie Klein died at her home, 541 Alder street, yesterday after a long illness. One son, aged 12 years, survives her. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Have You Been to Chicago? If not, you should seize the first chance. No city in the world has had a more marvelous growth and a week in the Metropolis of the West will be a revelation to you. Chicago has 2,500 miles of streets, 650 miles of street railway, 2,600 acres of parks, 65 miles of boulevard drives, 41 miles of dockage, 10,000 manufactories, the largest stock yards and packing houses in the world, well worth traveling a thousand miles to see. Twenty-one railways enter it, with 1,500 miles of tracks in the city and over 1,000 trains arriving and departing daily. A trip to Chicago would be one of the events of your life; the road to travel over is the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern Railway, which excels most other railroads as much as Chicago is surpassing other cities.
