Noon-Other Events. Yesterday at 12 o'clock one of Car bondale's celebrated beauties, Miss Grace Smith, became the wife of Frederick Edwards, of Scranton. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. R. A. Sawyer, of Trinity Episcopal church, at the Garfield avenue residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank

The house decorations of ferns, palms, laurels, cut roses and exotic plants were designed by Florist Wader and contributed much beauty to the scene. The bride, attired in white satin with point lace trimmings, adorned with orange blossoms and orchids, entered the parlor with her father, preceded by the maid of honor, Miss Lois Smith, and met the groom in the bow win-

DURKIN-COLLINS.

The wedding of Miss Louise Durkin, daughter of Mrs. Barbara Durkin, of Scott street, and Michael Collins, a former Carbondalian, now of Big Run, Jefferson county, this state, occurred at St. Rose church this morning at 9.30 o'clock, the ceremony being performed by Rev. T. F. Coffey and witnessed by a large number of friends.

Miss Teresa Durkin, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and George Collins, of this city, a brother of the groom, acted as best man. The gowns were very pretty, the bride wearing steel colored silk with heliotrope velvet trimming and her maid white organdie, the former carrying vellow roses and the latter pink roses. At the home of the bride after the ceremony the immediate relatives and bridal party enjoyed a sumptuous wedding breakfast, the rooms being prettily decorated in honor of the event. It was a quiet wedding. There was no display of any kind, but despite the fact that the exact hour of the ceremony was not known there was a large number at the church.

Miss Nellie Boundy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Boundy, of West Mayfield, and a member of the class of '99, of Jermyn schools, has made a great record for herself as well as proven to the people of this borough that the Jermyn schools are thorough in their work.

Miss Boundy went to the Stroudsburg Normal School last Wednesday and took the examination given by the faculty of the school. She passed the examination with great credit to hersoif and was admitted to the State Board examination. She also passed this examination and is now admitted to the senior class of any normal school in the state. The student who can finish the normal course in two years is doing very good work, but Miss Boundy has proven that she has been thorough enough in her home school to finish the course in one year. By her excellent work Miss Boundy reflects honor to the local schools and her success will be especially gratifying to her instructor, Prof. W. L. Rogers, under whose excellent management the schools are making such rapid advancement that the county superintendent recently publicly stated

The lawn outside the church was most tastefully decorated with bunting and Japanese lanterns and a number of stalls were erected on which were displayed a large selection of dolls and pretty things for sale, most of which were the handiwork of the children. The entertainment last evening was very creditable and much of their success is due to the efforts of Miss Emily Fessenden, daughter of the rector, under whose direction the children were trained. The programme last evening was as follows: Welcome speech, Roland Day; doll drill, class of little girls; song, Mary Blythe; tableau, "Queen of Night;" recitation, Agnes Freas: tableau and song, Florard and George W.
