FACTORYVILLE.

One of the prettiest weddings ever witnessed in this place occurred Wednesday, June 21, when Rev. Dwight Dana Harmon, of Lawrenceville, N. Y., and Miss Clara M. Gardner, of this place, were united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal church at high noon. In the presence of a very large assemblage of relatives and friends, the church was a veritable bower of beauty, maiden hair ferns and roses being used most lavishly in the decorations. Promptly at noon the bridal party entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Clara M. Gardner, of Scranton. First came the ushers, Stanley N. Simrell, John E. Walter, H. Loren Fassett and Hallock S. Reynolds, of this place, followed by two little flower girls, Hazel and Florence Browning, of Scranton, who wore white organdie over pink silk, and carried huge baskets of pink roses; then the maid of honor, Miss Carrie A. Browning, of Scranton, wearing white chiffon and lace over pink silk and carrying pink roses; then came the bride leaning on the arm of her father, Mr. Charles Gardner. At the altar rail the bride was met by the groom, leaning on the arm of his best man, Rev. A. Sterling Barner, of Hamilton, N. Y. Then, with the beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal church, they were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. W. M. Hiller, pastor of the church. The bride's costume was of white chiffon and lace over white silk. She carried white roses. Both the bride and maid of honor, who are cousins, carried beautiful lace handkerchiefs, made from lace from their granmother's wedding dress, over sixty years ago. During the ceremony Miss Clara Browning played very feelingly, "Spring Reverie," and at its conclusion Mendelssohn's wedding march. After the marriage a reception was held at the home of the bride, at which there were about one hundred and fifty invited guests. The rooms were elaborately decorated with maiden hair ferns and roses. The bridal party received congratulations in the drawing room, after which elegant refreshments were served in the dining room. The presents were many, useful, beautiful and valuable. The happy couple left on the 3 p. m. train for a few days' wedding tour. On their return they will commence housekeeping at Lawrenceville, N. Y., and was graduated from Franklin Academy, Malone, N. Y., from Colgate university and Colgate Divinity school. He was a professor at Keystone academy, this place, for over two years, and was ordained to the ministry and assumed the pastorate of Lawrenceville Baptist church, June 14, 1898. Here is the Simple Story of the Success of OUR GREAT ALL DAY FRIDAY SALES

WE BEGAN THEM THREE MONTHS AGO. Our object was to make Friday an extremely busy day. There was only one way to accomplish our purpose—selling good goods at prices lower than any other store could approach.

15c for Ladies' 25c Sailors. In other words, summer comfort at about half price. Elaborate goodness combined with genuine price cheapness.

5c Yard for Fine Laces, Worth 12c. So great was the sale of laces last Friday that we've secured another and even better lot for this week.

15c Yard for Wash Goods Worth Up to 35c. A pre-inventory offering that has no parallel in the annals of trade.

3.98 for Solid Iron Beds and Good Mattresses. Go into any home nowadays and you'll see iron beds in preference to wooden ones.

39c for Muslin Gowns That Were 59c. Many of them were used in the trim during our big sale last week.

10c for Writing Paper Worth Up to 35c. The last of the Beideman Stock of Stationery, and it must go on Friday.

59c for Croquet Sets, Screen Doors and Preserving Kettles. Three bargains that have never been equaled in the basement of this store.

3c for Sheet Music Worth Up to 50c. A miscellaneous lot of compositions, both vocal and instrumental, most the latter.

5c for Ladies' Black Hosiery, Worth 10c. Seamless Fast Black Stockings, in every sense the equal of any sold around the city.

8c for Ladies' Ribbed Vests, Worth 13c. Summer Vests in every sense. Fine woven ribbed patterns, finished with taped neck and arms.

49c for Linen Crash Skirts, Worth 75c. Almost half price for a garment you'll be proud to wear. Only two hundred of them to be sold.

6c for Striped Curtain Swiss Worth 19c. Light airy draperies for your home or Summer cottage, at much less than you'd ever hoped to pay.

3c for Violet Talcum Powder, Worth 10c. One thousand boxes of extra good quality Violet Talcum Powder, put up in fancy tin boxes with shake cover.

39c for Ladies' Wrappers; Big Value at 59c. No store hereabouts ever offered a wrapper bargain to compare with this one.
