Passengers on trains passing Glen Summit notice that the hotel has an unusual look. Its porches are alive with people at all times, but instead of the fashionable throng of the summer season, one sees only solemn-visaged priests. The occasion is the retreat of the clergy of the Roman Catho-He church of the diocese of Scranton, covering Luzerne and several neighboring counties. Last week the senior priests had their retreat. This week the junior priests have their turn. As the hostel is not open to the general public until next Saturday, the clergy have the house entirely to themselves. The retreat is purely a religious occasion and there is no pleasuring of any kind. Occasionally the priests stroll off for a walk, usually alone, but they rise early, apply themselves to a devotion all day and retire to bed early. They are not extravagant diners, either, the elaborate hotel bill of fare being pruned down to a very moderate basis of substantials. The retreat is conducted by a Jesuit father, Rev. P. college.-Wilkes-Barre Record.

In Grace church, Honesdale, Wednesday delegates from a large number of the parishes included in the Scranton Archdeaconry of the diocese of Central Pennsylvania, assembled for the summer meetings of the Women's Auxiliary to the Church Board of Foreign and Domestic Missions. The reports made from the parishes in Scranton, Carbondale, Honesdale, Wilkes-Barre, Jermyn, Great Bend, Plymouth, Nanticoke and a number of others showed a greatly increased interest in the work and the gathering and disbursement of money for missions, and in the supplying of missionary boxes that must have carried substantial aid to the large number of devoted servants of the church, and at its mission institutions is the south. in Alaska, in the great missionary jurisdictions of the west, in Japan, and in Central Pennsylvania's remote dis-Right Reverend Ethelbert Talbot, bishop of the diocese, gave an ad-

A Letter to Mrs. Pinkham Brought Health to Mrs. Archambo.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 4A395] DEAR MRS. PINKHAM-For two ears I felt tired and so weak and dizzy that some days I could hardly go around the house. Backache and headsche all the time and my food would not digest and had such pains in the womb and troubled with leucorrhea and kidneys were affected.

"After birth of each child I grew weaker, and hearing so much of the good you had done, I wrote to you and have taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one box of Lozenges, one box of Liver Pills, one package of Sanative Wash, and today I am feeling as well as I ever did. When I get up in the morning I feel as fresh as I did when a girl and eat and sleep well and do all of my work. If ever I feel weak again shall know where to get my strength. I know your medicine cured me."-MRS. SALINA ARCHAMBO, CHARLEMONT, MASS.

The present Mrs. Pinkham's experience in treating female ills is unparalleled; for years she worked side by side with Mrs. Lydia E. Pinkham, and for sometime past has had sole charge service at 9.50 a. m.; preaching at 16.30 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. by the pastor, C. M. Giffin, D. D. The large number of summer must chools to be held in various parts o the country this year is a very gratifying sign of the increasing interest in art and the progressive attitude of the American teacher. One of the known New York teachers, Mr. Perle V. Jervis, is to conduct a five weeks ummer course at the Jervis-Hardenbergh plane school, beginning June 26 This will give Scranton people an un usual opportunity to study the Virgil Clavier method which has been creatter such a sensation in Germany and England. The method is to be adopted shortly in the New England Conservatory of Boston, where Mr. Virgil also is to held a five weeks session this ummer. That Scranton people are taking a very lively interest in the work of Mr. Jervis is evidenced by the large number of pupils already en rolled in his summer class.

The following selections will be renlered in temorrow's services at Elm Park church, under the direction of Mr. J. Alfred Pennington:
