A PECULIAR NEWS COLUMN.

Editor of The Tribune-Sir:-The successful newspaper has got to be at the present day a compend of about everything under the sun. The successful journal does not omit the butcher, the baker nor the candle-stick maker any more than the lawyer, minister and the society people. So that it is remarkable what an amount and variof matter the ordinary paper con-is. It is quite amusing often to note he arts and devices pursued by tradesnen, assisted by the ingenuity of the fitter, to compel readers of the journal take notice of wares and merchandise Ivertised. One of our Scranton papers has au "dept in preparing a column entitled "Green Ridge Items." It partakes some-what after the nature of vegetable soup or the free lunch sandwich. The posi-tions of the items, their proximity to each other, including deaths, marriages, births, society events, advertisements of flesh, fish, fruit, vegetables and numerous trades and professions, appears funny and often thoroughly ridiculous. There is a grave question whether the plan adopted in sandwiching people's names between squashes, pumpkins, cabbages and spinach is not more detrimental than good to the tradesmen. It is doubtful whether the intimate association of Attorney Burns with red-topped beets would cause that eminent lawyer to seek out the market that had them for sale would probaly demurr and loose his ap-petite for beets or at least object to the practice as incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial. The following items of persons and things will duly illustrate the plan pur-sued by the Green Ridge correspondent of the paper in mind:

"Attorney Ginger, who has been spending a few days at the Ridge, has returned to his farm upon the Paupack."

"Cabbage and string beans at Spikers." "Dr. Physic is attending a medical con-

"Green apples and cucumbers at Spen eers."

"Alderman Doolittle and his constable are fishing on Keizer's pond."
"Try Cole's headache powders."
"The Rev. Mr. Prayerful will preach

the Baptist church next Sunday." Yellow-legged chickens and at food-good for a Sunday dinner-at Sny-

"Mrs. Squires, of Sanderson avenue, is entertaining the Misses Gould, of New York."

"Buck and Roe shad at the Green Ridge market."
"Merchant Clark has lost a valuable

"Call up Lewis, the butcher, for saurage and bloodworst."
"The coming marriage of Mr. Chappie with the Widow Addle is announced."
"Call up Monies for plumbing and tinning when needed." It is nice, len't it, for the sober and impretentious residents of Green Ridge to be mixed up with the vegetable king-dom in this manner?. It is enough to make one dizzy while reading the items to ascertain which are the more imstring beans. Respectfully. C. H. Soper, Scranton, June 23.

WHAT MR. SCRAGG SAID.

Sir. I desire to correct an error in case, in which it is said I charged John F. Reynolds, esq., with tampering with one of the jurors. I did not so accuse him and do not believe him capable of such action, hence in justice to Mr. Reynolds, whom I esteem as a law-I deem it right to state just what occur. I simply called attention to the fact of an alleged conversation between Mr. Reynolds and Juror Hampton which I had, and still have, reason to believe took place but I have assurances that it was not solicited by Mr. Reynolds, but rather enforced upon him by the juror.

For this alleged misconduct of the juror the defense did not attempt to hold Mr. Reynolds responsible, but spoke of it as showing prejudice on the part of the juror and as a reason why he should by noon today. be withdrawn. A new trial has been asked for and one of the reasons given is Juror Hampton's misconduct in ex-pressing an opinion as to the guilt of defendants before all the evidence was submitted, besides expressing an enmity submitted, besides expressing in enmity to defendants' counsel. In justice to Mr. Reynolds I hope you will give this denial the same publicity as was given to the erroneous report.
Yours truly,
John F. Scragg.

KOONS WILL TAKE THE JOB

South Side Sewer Contract Has Been Transferred and Its Construction Is Now Virtually Assured.

At last a contractor has been found o undertake the construction of the South Side sewer. He is A. H. Koons, formerly of Kingston, but more recestiv a resident of Scranton, and known in municipal circles mainly through his work on a portion of the main sewer in the Fourteenth ward. Mr. Koons takes the contract from Dunn Brothers by assignment, accepting their figures and receiving as an additional compensation the $3,000 bonus that the citizens of the South Side subscribed as an inducement to have Contractor Burleigh, of Dunmore, take the job. The papers necessary to transferring the contract from Dunn Brothers to Koons were made out yesterday and City Solicitor Vosburg is engaged in drawing up a new contract with the city and the new contractor as the parties. Mr. Koon's expects to have his bond ready for submittance to the city solicitor today and by Monday next hopes to be in readiness to enter upon the preliminaries to the active work of construction.

Shape for Asphalt Covering.

The work of getting Lackawanna venue in shape for its new covering of asphalt is being pushed with great vigor. CARPENTERS RECEIVE MONEY FROM HEADQUARTERS.

Strike Wages Yesterday Distributed to Members of the Union-Improvements That the Scranton Railway Company Is Making -Furnaces of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel Company at Franklin Furnace to Be Blown In-Organizer James in the City-Odds and Ends.

The first installment of the money from the national organization was received by the carpenters yesterday morning. It was received in the shape of a certified check, which was immediately cashed at one of the local banks, The money was taken to Carpenters' hall on Wyoming avenue, where it was distributed to those who were entitled to it by members of the executive committee, appointed for the purpose. The men were paid for the second week, as they get nothing for the first. At 5 o'clock last evening when the distribution for the day ended about one-half of the money had been given out. It is expected that it will all be distributed

Aside from this the situation is unchanged. Secretary McGuire, for some unexplainable reason, has not yet arrived in the city. It can nevertheless be stated with almost absolute certainty that he will arive either today or tomorrow.

The Builders' exchange is still holding out and its members are just as firm as ever.

The Traction Company.

The Main avenue and Jackson street and Quincy avenue cars of the Scranton Traction company were not run yesterday owing to repairs being made to engine No. 3 at the power house of the company at Providence road. A break in the crank pin of the engine walch runs the dynamo necessitated the suspension of the cars mentioned for yesterday. The cars on the line above noted will be running as usual this morning.

The new tracks of the company extending from Laurel Hill park to Dunmore Corners, upon which workmen have been engaged for several weeks, were completed yesterday. The rails laid are modern and substantial, and rock ballast was used,

The Country club extension of the company's lines as it has been, and will be popularly known, will be completed in a day or two. The new line commences at the intersection of Wyoming avenue and Green Ridge street, running to Fairfield street, thence to Washington avenue and terminates near the Country club house. The new extension will afford much convenience to persons going to the Oral school, Home for the Friendless and St. Joseph's Foundling home. The new line will be nearly two miles in length. The first switch the Traction company laced on its South Scranton line will se no more after today. Workmen have been engaged for the past two days in tearing up the tracks of the company on Cedar avenue, from the bridge to Hickory street, a distance of two blocks. The company will remove old No. 1 switch and place a single on the thoroughfare mentioned. This switch has been "dead matter" since the company placed tracks on Pittston avenue, connecting with the old line at Birch street.

To Discontinue Aid, 'Tis Said.

Among the rallroad men of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company the uppermost topic yesterday was the current rumor that after July 1 the Railroad Young Men's Christian associations along the lines of the company will have to be self-supporting. It is said that President Truesdale has decided that the company will not contribute towards the maintenance of the associations. Heretofore the company has made an appropriation of over $10,-000 a year to maintain the Railroad Young Men's Christian associations.

When seen by a Tribune man yesterday, Secretary Adair, of the Scranton Railroad Young Men's Christian association, stated that he had not heard of any such change.

Officials of the company in this city were also in the dark if such a curtailing of expenses is contemplated.

Schooley Mine Trouble.

A conference of Pennsylvania, Mt. Lookout and Lehigh Valley mine officials was held at Schooley mine yesterday, when the Pennsylvania officials made formal announcement to the officials of the adjoining collieries that they had been compelled to abandon for the present all efforts to remove the flood in Schooley mine.

It was generally agreed that the Pennsylvania officials had done all in their power to combat the flood. The officials of the Mt. Lookout and Exeter ollieries whose workings adjoin those of the Schooley, do not anticipate any serious trouble in their mines from water, being of the opinion that the barrier pillars between the collieries are sufficiently strong to withstand the ressure of the flood in the Schooley .-Pittston Gazette.

Big Engines Have Arrived.

Six of the ten large compound engines ordered by the Lehigh Valley road have arrived at the Coxton yards and two of them have had a trial on mountain cut-off, from Pittston Junction to Fairview.

The engines are of the Baldwin make and weigh 115 tons each and are capable of pushing 1,000 tons up the cut-off. This is double the work of the engines commonly used.

Organizer James in the City. Organizer Benjamin James, of Janesville. Pa., the organizer for this district of the United Mine Workers, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. James goes to Wilkes-Barre today to attend a convention of miners. consisting of delegates from all the unions in the First district, which comprises the Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys. The exact nature of the business which will be transacted could not be learned as Mr. James was very reticent regarding this subject.

He reports that the miners are fairly well organized in this section and expects them to be thoroughly so in a short time as he says the union feeling among the men is very well developed.

Commencing tomorrow morning passnger trains Nos. 3 and 14, which have run from Scranton to Buffalo, will run Sundays from this city to Binghamton, leaving here at 9 a. m. and returning at at 8.10 p. m.

The boys emipoyed at the Greencood collieries, Nos. 1 and 2, at Greenood, who went on strike early last eek for more wages, are still out and determined to stay out till their emands are granted. The report that a large part of the cranton plant of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company is to be renoved to Buffalo is denied .- Iron Age. The employes of the Elk Tanning ompany at Mann's Choice, this state. struck Wednesday for an advance of 20 per cent. The company agreed to a per cent advance and some of the strikers returned to work today, but the majority are still holding out for their original demand.

During the current week the Carpenter Steel company, of Reading, has stores, and before the end of the month fourteen additional carloads will be sent out from the works. The plant is at present running on 12-inch army shells

The Railroad Gazette yesterday gave he preliminary figures of new railroad building for the first six months of 1899. They show a total of 1,181 miles. The state of Pernsylvania takes the lead for the six months, with a total mileage of 106. Mississippl is next with 5 miles, and Arkansas follows with 83. It is announced that the Keystone Watch Case company and the RiversideWatch Case company, of Philadelphia, have consolidated. Application will be made next month at Harrisburg for a charter. J. SORRY SPECTACLE AT THE CITY HALL

SCENE THAT WAS TRULY PITI-FUL IN THE EXTREME.

Hundreds of the Municipalty's Decrepit, Sick, Sore, Halt, Lame and Blind Assembled in One Place-One Could Not Behold It Without Feeling a Pang of Pain, While to Those of a Strong Sympathetic Nature It Would Be the Occasion of a Copious Flood of Tears.

One afflicted with a strong sympathetic nature can congratulate himself that he was not in, around or about city hall yesterday. The sight presented there was enough to wring a tear from even those afflicted with an extraordinarily strong, sympathetic nature and in the case of a person of s. s. n. type copious tears would assuredly have flown and lamentations would not possibly be restrained in extreme cases of the several times aforesaid affliction.

It was truly sad! One fellow creature, decrepite sick, sore, halt, lame or blind is always a sorrowful sight. One cannot look upon such without feeling a pang of sympathetic pain.

Our hearts go out to them in their misfortune and while we may pass on apparently unheedful of our brother's distress we unconsciously are reminded of our own better fortune and unwillingly, possibly, but nevertheless unfailingly, thank him for what the contrast suggests and after doing all this sort of mental gyrating feel more satisfied with our lot.

What must be the strain and drain on an ordinary person to say nothing of a person with a s. s. n. to view hundreds of such unfortunates assembled in one place!

Yet, such was the spectacle presented yesterday at city hall and such was the surroundings under which the city hall reporter had to think out humorous suggestions.

No, it was not in the office of the Board of Associated Charities, the emergency hospital, or the poor board rooms that these decrepit, sick, sore, halt, lame and blind were assembled. It was in the office of the city treasurer and the corridors leading thereto, The street laborers from the different wards were being paid.

NOT OUR MR. BOLAND.

A Pittsburg Man Is the Supreme Archon.

Telegrams of congratulation sent yeserday to C. G. Boland brought the response that it was not he who was elected supreme archon of the Heptasophs, the telegraph despatches announced.

It appears that Mr. Boland was spoken of for the office but declined to be a candidate and a C. F. Cohen, of Pittsburg, was chosen. The Associated Press despatch received at 2 o'clock yesterday morning had the name "C.

P. Boland, of Pittsburg."

In view of the fact that the Scranton delegation was booming Mr. Boland for the office and that it would be no strange thing for a Buffalo reporter to make a Pittsburger out of a Pennshipped four carloads of army projec- sylvanian who come from Scranton,left t safe, in the telegraph editor's mind to conclude that it was our Mr. Boland who was meant.

Anyhow, Mr. Boland could have had the office if he wanted it.
