Walter V. Handrick, one of the delegates from this city to the supreme conclave of Heptasophs at Buffalo last week returned home early yesterday norning. Mr. Handricks was honored by being selected to fill the office of supreme sentinel. He said the Heptasophs were royally entertained by their brothers and that the convention vas highly important and interesting. He explained the misunderstanding about the election of C. G. Boland for the office of supreme archon as having grown out of the fact that Mr. Boland was balloted for and his name was confounded by some of the press representatives with that of Mr. Cohen, of Pittsburg who was elected. The next session of the supreme conclave two years hence will be held in Boston. It will, Mr. Handricks says, be the greatest meeting in the history of

DARROW TOOK TWO KINDS OF POISON

WAS DETERMINED TO MAKE SURE OF DEATH.

Gave No Reason for His Rash Deed. Had Been Worrying a Good Deal Over Family Troubles-Died While on the Way to Hospital-Darrow Was Forty-Four Years of Age and Leaves a Wife and One Child Who Is Almost Blind.

George Dalbert Darrow committed suicide yesterday morning by drinking two ounces of carbolic acid and two ounces of laudanum combined. The dose was taken at his home, 613 Hickory street, South Scranton, and he died in the Lackawanna hospital ambulance while being conveyed to the hospital for treatment. He is survived by wife and one child.

The dying statements of Darrow made in his room disclosed no motive for his act. Mrs. Darrow said to a Tribune man at her home last night: "For about a month the actions of Del, as I called him, were strikingly strange. He was always sad, and spoke but very litle. I endeavored in every manner to cheer him, and find out why he was so downhearted, but to no avail. I know that the death of our little boy a year ago affected him greatly. Our little girl aged five years and our only child, suffered a severe strain on the nerves of her eyes and is almost blind. That, too, greatly affected him. "Yesterday morning a short time after he came from work he went to the water faucet and took from his pocket two bottles. I asked him what he had and he explained 'some medicine.' He poured the contents of the bottles into a tumbler, added some water and raising the glass to his lips said in half crying tones, 'good bye Lizzie for the last.' I strove to get the glass from aim but he was too strong and held me at bay until he had drained the last drop. Then he staggered to his

Dr. Albert Kolb was notified by mesenger of the case, and while preparng to dress, he called the ambulance. Darrow was given what assistance was at hand, and placed in the ambulance. It had gone but a few blocks when he died. Darrow was a large man, weighing fully 250 pounds. He was years of age. For many years he was employed as a "fire puller" at the round house of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. Truman Darrow, of Nicholson and Alonzo Darrow, of Jermyn, are his brothers.

Coroner Robert performed an auopsy on the body at the Lackawanna hospital and found the stomach filled with the poison. The body was later emoved to the home of the deceased. The funeral will be held this after-100n from his late home. Rev. Rogers Israel officiating. The interment will be in Forest Hill cemetery.

MINISTER'S SUDDEN DEATH.

Rev. John Kowala, of Providence, Found Dead in Bed.

Rev. John Kowala, former pastor of he Emanuel Polish Lutheran church, was found dead in bed Saturday morning at his apartments on Summit avesigning his pastorate two months ago.

He was suffering from pneumonia, and was being cared for by the neighbors. Friday night Dr. Herman Bessey prescribed for him, and at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bierbeck, in whose house his apartments were located, visited him to give him his medicine. After they had ministered to him, he requested them to leave, saying he felt better and thought he would be able to sleep. They departed, and that was the last seen of him alive.

At 7 o'clock another neighbor, Frank Kidder, called to see him, and, receiving no response to his knock, opened the door and going in, found the minister dead. It is supposed that he passed away in sleep.

He was fifty years of age, and came here from Poland about two years ago. As far as is known, he had no relatives in this country. The Lutheran Ministers' league will take charge of the

The deceased, since resigning the pastorate of the Emanuel church, has een doing missionary work up and down the valley, and on the previous Sunday preached in Wilkes-Barre. He was expecting a call from the Peckville Polish Lutheran church.

REV. W. G. WATKINS FAREWELL SERMON

DELIVERED IN MAIN AVENUE BAPTIST CHURCH.

He Has Been Pastor of the Church for Seven Years and There Were Many Tear-dimmed Eyes in the Congregation Yesterday When the Relations Between Pastor and Flock Were Terminated—Resolutions Adopted at a Meeting of the Congregation.

Rev. W. G. Watkins, who for seven ears has been pastor of the North Main Avenue Baptist church of North Scranton, at the services in the church yesterday morning preached his fare-well sermon. It was with extreme regret that the congregation accepted the resignation and many eyes were limmed with tears as the official action was taken dissolving their rela-tions as pastor and flock. After the services a meeting of the congregation was held, at which the following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That with the acceptance of the resignation of Rev. W. G. Watkins as pastor of this church we desire to express our appreciation of his faith-ful labors among us during nearly seven years and our affection for him, our esteem for him as a teacher and leader, and our high regard for his exemplification of Christian manhood. Relieving that He whom he serves will lead him into a broader field of will lead him into a broader field of usefulness, and assuring him of our esteem and interest always, we beseech his own prayers, "The Lord bless him and keep him," The Lord make his face to shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee," "The Lord lift up His countenance upon thee and give thee peace."

FAREWELL SERMON. The text of Mr. Watkins' farewell ermon was taken from the second pistle of John, "Look to yourselves that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward." After a general discussion of his text, the speaker made the following reference to his resignation: "At this time I may be allowed to make a local application of the text, Look to yourselves that ye lose no those things which ye have gained as a church in this place. Surely some-thing has been gained. For seven years I have preached what I believe to be the gospel. I have not told funny stories, or ridden hobbies; I have not sought particularly to please, for 'if I pleased men, then am I not the servant of Christ.' But my theme has been Christ, and him crucified, and though my subjects have been varied, yet Christ has been central in them all and my persistent purpose has been to hold him up. However imperfectly done, such work cannot be in vain.

'It has not been fruitless, for I hav with great pleasure watched some of you grow strong and useful under it To God be the praise. "When I came to you I found 12 members; I leave you with 300. I have had the privilege of welcoming into membership more than 250, most of them by baptism. Together we have truggled, together we have paid a debt of nearly $6,000.
