THIRTEENTH ANNUAL CONFERENCE MEETING

WYOMING CONGREGATIONAL SABBATH SCHOOL SESSIONS.

Held in the Welsh Congregational Church—Officers Chosen and Resolutions Adopted—Addresses by Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., Miss Hannah M. Williams, William Holmes and Miss Annie Humphreys—Prizes Awarded in Competitions Among Children.

The general assembly of representatives of the thirteenth annual convention of the Wyoming Congregational Sabbath school union occurred at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, when the meeting was called to order in the First Welsh Congregational church, South Main avenue. Rev. David Jones, pastor of the church, presided in the absence of the president, Daniel S. Davis, of Edwinstowe.

The devotional exercises were led by Rev. D. M. George, of Pittston. After the singing of pentecostal hymns by the assembly, the reception of delegates was in order, and the following responded: Olyphant—Mary Morgans, John Watkins; Dutch Gap, North Scranton, Mary Evans, Mary Lewis, Mary Jones, David Williams; North Scranton, Mrs. Daniel Price, Sadie Jones; Scranton, Lizzie Lewis, William J. Thomas, Joshua Elias, Theophilus Bowen; Pittston, Rev. D. M. George, Mrs. H. W. Evans, Mrs. William B. Evans; Plains, Griffith D. Jones; Edwinstowe, John Thomas; Plymouth, John Edwards; North Scranton, J. P. Thomas and Miss Sarah P. Thomas.

The ministers present were Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., Kingston; Rev. R. S. Jones, North Scranton; Rev. Peter Roberts, Olyphant; Rev. D. M. George, Pittston; Rev. J. P. Thomas, Nanticoke; Rev. Theophilus Davis, Plains; Rev. David Jones and Rev. B. L. Evans, Scranton.

REPORTS RECEIVED. Reports were then received from the various Sunday schools in the union, which showed a gratifying increase in the various departments. The first prize in the competition on writing of Biblical names, to children under fifteen years of age, was awarded to D. Wilson Jones, and Elvet Jones received the second prize.

THE RESOLUTIONS. First—We regret that the interest of the churches and Sunday schools of the district in our annual meeting is not equal to the merits of the cause we are endeavoring to advocate.

Second—That we advise each and every school to organize a class for the competitive prizes in the annual meeting.

Third—That we recommend to the executive committee at their next meeting the advisability of arranging a plan and appointing a list of visitors for the district during the ensuing year, so that the purpose and benefits of the union may be more fully understood.

Fourth—That the thanks of the union be extended to the church and Sabbath school of the First Congregational church of Scranton for the cordial manner in which they have received and entertained the delegates and visitors.

Fifth—That our united and most sincere thanks be, and are hereby extended to Brother D. D. Evans for his faithful service as secretary of this union for the period of eight years.

Sixth—We recommend that a full report of the proceedings of our annual meeting be published in Welsh, in English, as well as in the daily papers in English.

Seventh—That the report of the auditing committee showed the treasury to be in good condition. The feature of the afternoon was the address in English by Rev. T. C. Edwards, D. D., of Kingston, on "The most interesting and edifying way of studying the Bible."

COMPETITION FOR PRIZES. In the competitions for prizes on the international lesson for the last quarter of 1898, the first prize was awarded to Oliver Williams, of Edwinstowe, and Samuel Howells, of Pittston.

NO CHANGE IN THE STRIKE SITUATION.

Members of the Carpenters' Executive Committee Went to Philadelphia to Confer with Secretary McGuire, Who Has Been Ill—The Exact Time When the Latter Will Come to the City Cannot Be Stated. Resignation of A. H. Storrs Tendered and Accepted.

The strike situation, regarded from a news standpoint, is becoming duller every day. This is probably due to the fact that each side is playing what is commonly known as a "waiting game." Both sides appear to be watching for the other to make some definite move and as both are firm in their respective positions it would be merely idle fancy to speculate upon the final result.

Believes a Railroad Will Be Built. C. S. Weston, real estate agent for the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company, when spoken to yesterday by a Tribune reporter with reference to a railroad being built along the bed of the Delaware and Hudson canal, which was sold to S. B. Cocke, of Kingston, N. Y., Monday, said: "My company has sold the canal, not purchased it. I presume, however, that a railroad will be built along the canal." Further than this, Mr. Weston would not discuss the probability or improbability of the much discussed matter.

Secretary Landig gave out the usual report of the Exchange's firm attitude yesterday and also stated that there were eight bricklayers at work on the bolt and nut works. Three of the bricklayers were imported by Contractor E. S. Williams, and who worked for one day upon a job being done for the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company, quit work yesterday.

There is no union in York where the men came from. Several bricklayers left the city last night for New York where they have secured positions paying $4.40 for an eight-hour day.

Resignation of W. P. Morgan. William Penn Morgan, general foreman of Briggs colliery, resigned his position yesterday, and intends to retire to private life. He has been identified with the collieries recently purchased by the Scranton Coal company for the past twenty years.

Mr. Morgan is a brother-in-law of Reese G. Brooks, who for many years was superintendent of the Pine Brook and Briggs collieries, under the Lackawanna Iron and Coal company.

Thomas Morgan, a brother of William Penn Morgan, resigned recently from the outside foremanship at Briggs shaft, and William H. Morgan, son of the latter, who was weighmaster at
