THIS IS A GOOD WEEK FOR DEFENDANTS

JURORS ARE INCLINED TO BE VERY MERCIFUL.

John Woodbridge Was Returned Not Guilty and so Were Joseph Kilpatrick and Patrick Daley-Peter Zuffli Acquitted of the Charge of Assaulting a Public Officer-Harry Jurkovitz Tried on a Charge of Setting Fire to His Hotel at Throop-Other Court Matters.

John Woodbridge was yesterday morning returned not guilty of having violated his niece, the 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Sheridan. After the verdict was rendered District Attorney Jones told the jurors he was somewhat astonished at their action and he then presented a sworn statement to the Jury setting forth that Woodbridge was heretofore arrested on a similar charge, two little girls aged ten years being his alleged victims on the former occasion.

Their mothers decided not to prosecute him because of the disgrace ft would bring on the children. The court was visibly displeased with the verdict, too, although Judge Edwards refrained from making any comment on the action of the jurors.

Joseph Kilpatrick, the boy who was tried Tuesday afternoon for the theft of a pair of opera glasses from the residence of George B. Hand, on Jefferson avenue, last February, was yesterday morning returned not gullty The charge of receiving stolen goods against his mother, Mrs. Catherine Kilpatrick, which was based on the same transaction, was disposed of by taking a verdict of not guilty. The on having been acquitted of the charge of larceny, there was nothing to sustain the charge of receiving.

DALEY NOT GUILTY.

Patrick Daley, of Minooka, who was tried for attempting to criminally assault Mrs. Michael D. Walsh at her home in Minooka, one night last April, was returned not guilty yesterday morning. The costs were evenly divided between Daley and Mrs. Walsh's husband, who was the prosecutor, Frank Soulskie was returned not guilty of having stolen a large piece of garden hose from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station.

Thomas Gilroy, of Carbondale, who was put on trial Tuesday afternoon for abusing the horse of P. H. Mc-Geever, also of Carbondale, was found not guilty yesterday and prosecutor defendant were each directed to pay, one-half the costs.

A verdict of not guilty was taken in the case of P. J. O'Connor, who was charged by P. A. Barrett with embezziement. Similar action was taken in the case of Patrick Moran, who is charged with malicious mischief by Bridget Loftus.

David Davies and Elizabeth Davies were returned not guilty of selling liquor without a license. The prosecutrix. Martha Lewis, failed to appear and she was directed to pay the costs. James A. Doran was not present when he was called to answer a charge embezzlement, preferred by T. S.

Huffing and his ball was forfeited. Thomas J. Conroy and Lena Conroy were arraigned on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Mrs. May Conroy, the step-mother of Thomas J. The case was settled and a verdict of not guilty was taken upon the payment of the costs by the de-

ZUFFLI ACPUITTED.

Peter Zuffli was acquitted of a charge of assault and battery upon a public officer. W. A. Sturdevant, a pound keeper in the Tenth ward, was the prosecutor. About a year ago there was some trouble at the pound, a num ber of women endeavoring to take out impounded cows by force. Sturdevant alleges that while the trouble was on Zuffli pinched his arm and took a revolver away from him.

Children are sometimes told, when they are bad, that ghosts and other dreadful things will get them. Grown-up people know better, but it would be a good thing if women could be made to understand

"female troubles." A pain in the side, or back, a disagreeable drain, a bearing-down sensation, headache, nervousness, weakness in the distinctly feminine organs, bad complexion and loss of flesh are forerunners of final collapse. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a specific for weak women. It cures. In a great majority of cases the patient can treat herself at home, and observations local examinations can be cases the patient can treat herself at home, and obnoxious local examinations can be avoided. In a few bad cases it is wise for the sufferers to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce himself, at Buffalo, N. Y., and he will give full advice by mail free. He is consulted daily by great numbers of women throughout the world, and his advice is founded upon wide-spread experience. All correspondence is treated by him as sacredly confidential. His "Favorite Prescription" is non-alcoholic, and does not create a craving for strong drink. It contains no opium ing for strong drink. It contains no opium or other narcotic. It is perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No medicine is equal to it in any respect for dis-cines of women. Therefore, accept no substitute for this world-famed remedy, though it be urged upon you as being "just as good."

Mrs. Mary R. Jones, of 520 Madison Avenue, Mrs. Mary R. Jones, of 520 Madison Avenue, Ypuilanti, Mich., writes: "I was troubled with female weakness, and after taking three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription I am free from pains. I had suffered for two years when I legan taking your medicine. I could not walk cross my room without suffering dreadful pains. Now I do all my housework and walk where I please."

Constipation and biliousness are radi-cally cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They don't gripe; they never fail.

The accused admitted the charge, but said he took the revolver away from Sturdevant to prevent the latter from using it on the women. The verdict was not guilty and the county was directed to pay the costs. James Ford was tried before Judge Edwards on a charge of perjury preferred by John F. Dougher. Both men reside at Old Forge. It is alleged that Ford was employed as a bartender by P. J. Conway, of Old Forge, who was arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace R. Willis Reese, to answer a charge of selling liquor without a 11cense. At the hearing it is asserted that Ford swore that he was employed by Dougher, not by Conway, thereby making the first named answerable for the violation of the law.

Dougher says that Ford committed perjury when he swore before the alderman and had him arrested. The prosecution failed to produce the dock-et of Justice Reese showing that Ford was sworn at the hearing and a conviction could not be secured. The jury went out to dispose of the costs and divided them equally between the prosecutor and defendant.

JURKOWITZ TRIED.

Harry Jurkowitz was tried in No. : on a charge of having set fire to : hotel on the Boulevard at Throop, which he occupied. The fire took place on November 15 last and the building was entirely destroyed.

Several Lithuanians living in the vicinity testified to having been awakned about 4 o'clock on the morning of that day and discovering that the hotel was on fire. The commonwealth attempted to show that the defendant and John Lahotsky, the owner of the building, were about the hotel removing goods for a considerable length of time before giving an alarm or attempting to extinguish the fire. Lahotsky testified that about the ime mentioned he was awakened at his home across the street from the hotel and in looking in the direction of the latter building he saw clouds of smoke issuing from it. Thereupon he crossed the street and entered the hotel, finding that the ceiling and wall near the chimney in the kitchen were on fire. He examined the other rooms and stated that the furnishings were in lace and apparently nothing removed. He denied assisting in carrying out articles from the building and said that the effects seen and testified about by several witnesses, did not belong to the hotel but to neighbors living near, who feared that their houses would catch. Some things, he said, were removed from his own home and afterwards replaced. Other witnesses testified to having assisted in carrying out the furniture, etc., under the direction of the defendant, and that the fire at that time was so slight that it could have been extinguished with one pail

Court directed a verdict of not guilty on the ground that there was insuffic ient evidence to warrant a conviction, it appearing from the evidence that the fire was accidental. O'Brien & Kelly represented the defendant.

OTHER CASES.

Tobias Burke was tried before Judge Edwards for using the registered bottles of A. M. Morse and A. Schroeder. The jury was out deliberating on the case when court adjourned.

John Hoffman was tried on a charge of embezzlement preferred by S. N Stetler. The latter said he gave Hoffman a $250 diamond ring to sell for him and the defendant said it was an out and out sale to him. The jury was out trying to harmonize the testimony when court adjourned.

John Heyden, of Old Forge, was charged by Constable Matthew Beam with selling liquor without a license The commonwealth's case was weak. A verdict will be returned this morning. When court adjourned for the day Margaret Kelley was on trial in No. 2, charged with assaulting and batter. ing George Herron.

Stay of Execution Released.
