Nuptials Took Place Yesterday Morn ing at St. Peter's Cathedral.

Miss Kathryn A. Haggerty, daughte f Mr. and Mrs. William W. Haggerty, of 609 Mulberry street, was united in marriage yesterday morning to Frank O. Megargee, junior member of the wholesale paper firm of Megargee Bros. The ceremony was performed at 9 o'clock in St. Peter's cathedral by Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick. The wedding was private, but the prominence and popularity of the contracting parties resulted in a large assemblage to witness the nuptials.

The bride was attended by her cousin Miss Anna Early, of Pittston, and the groom by Frank Reichart, of Philatelphia. The bride and her maid were attired similarly in gowns of blue broadcloth, with white yoke and white nsertion, and carried bridal roses A wedding breakfast, served by Haney at the home of the bride, was partaken of by the bridal party and immediate relatives and at 12.55 the newly married couple left on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road for a stay at Lake George and a trip through Canada. Upon their return they will reside on Mulberry street. Among the out-of-town guests wer Mrs. Louis N. Megargee, S. Edwin Megargee, Misses Dorothy and Marie Megargee, of Philadelphia.

The bride, for the past two years, was principal of the commercial departnent of the Scranton High school. She is a young woman of marked culture and personal beauty. The groom is one of Scranton's most popular young business men.

The union was expelled as a body with the exception of two of the dele gates to the council from the organ ization, who have worked indefatigably for the cause of the strikers since the present trouble began.

The strikers say that the woodworkrs will be very sorry men when winter arrives, as they claim that they are now doing what is always done at that tenson of the year, filling up stock, and that there will be no work for them when the snow begins to fly. The stonecutters, stonesetters and carvers employed by Frank Carlucci in New York city, and who are affiliated with local unions in this city, were or dered to quit work yesterday morning by a dispatch. Mr. Carlucei's workmen have not returned to their employment with him.

Members of the Builders' Exchange state in the most emphatic terms that the resignation of Mr. Carlucci was . great surprise to that body and that the statement that it was a pre-ar ranged move is the vertest twaddle The strikers, however, still stick to their original claim and refuse to entertain any statements to the contrary. #### Annual Recital of the Scranton College of Music.

An audience which filled the lecture room of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, enjoyed a rare musical treat last night, when the senior pupils of the planofort college of music, directed by Haydn Evans were heard in their annual recital.

The opening number, a concerto in C (Beethoven), by Mrs. Genevieve Baker Bacon, of Nicholson, with accompaniment on a second plano by Mr. Evans was in itself a high recommendation for the college. In her two other numbers, "Novelette in F." (Schuman), and "If I Were a Bird," (Hessett), compositions that tax the ability of any artist, was in every way equal to all that was demanded.
