GAMES PLAYED IN VARIOUS LEAGUES

RICHMOND TAKES THE SECOND GAME FROM SCRANTON.

Poor Showing and Inability to Hit bro Had Them Guessing All the bro Had Them uGessing All the Time and Hodson Was Easy-Hargrove Put the Ball Over Center Field Fence-No Material Changes in Atlantic or National Leagues.

Scranton's good showing against Richmond was of short duration, as the champions made them look like sellingplaters yesterday. Chesbro's pitching was the cause of our defeat, and while we presented the visitors with four of their six runs they would undoubtedly have scored anyway, as hits followed in both instances after the errors were made that permitted the tallies.

Wilkes-harre won from Reading in the ninte laring when defeat was almost in sight and Lancaster won in a walk fren: Allentown. Paterson defeated Newsik and Klopf did a few stunts that cost him money and was put out of the game.

Only three games were played in the major league. Boston and Philadelphia winning from Cleveland and Louisville, and Pittsburg took the sec ond game from Brooklyn,

Hargrove was accorded the glad when he hit for four sacks over

Seyhold also took a chance in the sixth and reached third safely on Calhoun's out at first. Dougherty made a clever stop and quick recovery in the seventh, and Shannon beat out a bunt in the eighth. Dillon took a high fly from Hargrove's but in the eighth and hrew wild to O'Neill, letting in two ins. Manager Swift has signed a new player named Tate, who formerly played in the Atlantic and Penrsylvania State leagues, and he will report for duty in a few days He is an all-around player and will be utilized as general utility man. The negotiations for a new backstop have been declared off, as Manager Swift failed to land the man he was after.

Pat Meaney was offered in exchange for a player before his release from Newark, but was not wanted.

Jim Fields, released by Newark, is playing with Syracuse. In Dillon Scranton has one of the finest first basemen in the league. He is a great batter, speedy runner and excellent fielder. PITISTON NEWS.

The Election of a Temporary Mayor Was Frustrated-Funeral of the Late A. Fastulo-Canine Worth More Dead Than Alive-A Chapter of Local News.

"The best laid plans of mice and men gang aft aglee." And this was in very much evidence last night when the twelfth member necessary to constitute a quorum made his appearance in the council chamber, having been apprised that business of importance necessitated his presence. The real business of this session was to cooperate with the select body in joint session and elect or appoint a temporary mayor. To the credit of a majority of the council there were cool heads enough to frustrate this scheme and the entire little pre-arranged programme fell flat. This was done to show both respect and confidence for Mayor Harding, who at present is critically ill in the Wilkes-Barre hospital. The resolution was introduced by John Keeley, of the Fifth ward, providing for a joint convention of councils to be held this same evening for the purpose of electing a temporary mayor act during the inability of Mayor Harding. The silence that followed was chilling. After remarks by varloug members the matter was post-

The funeral of the late Anthony Fastulo, whose death and attending complicated circumstances, which nearly ended in a murder, and reported in yesterday's Tribune, took place yesterday morning from the residence of Joseph Freeman, with whom he had resided innings and McGinnis, who peplaced him, and was attended by a large number of his countrymen from this and Lackawanna counties. The cortege moved to St. John's Catholic church where high mass was said for the repose of his soul. At the conclusion of the solemn service the interment was made in the Market street cemetery. Joseph Cas-sase, of Scranton; Paul Nudio, of Dunmore: Joseph Sardoni, Joseph Pierro, O. Savine and Anthony Popell, of this city, were the pall-bearers. The deceased leaves a mother, one sister and one brother in Cillanio, Italy. Tom Corcoran is the owner of an Irish setter dog that is worth twenty dollars more than he was yesterday. He has been trained to pick up all the loose change that is carelessly dropped on the floor of the hotel, and yesterday a visitor who had money to burn put the dog to the test. He pulled a twenty dollar gold piece from his pocket, and dropping it on the floor his dogship had it between his molars in an instant, and whether intentionally or otherwise, it will never be known, but at any rate the double eagle went down the dog's throat, and the visitor is up to the present time minus of half of his monthly pay.

Frank Brown and several other recruits started yesterday on their long journey to the Philippines. A carload of recruits went west this morning from the Hazleton region by way of the Lehigh Valley and bound for the same destination. The Wyoming hotel will serve a

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review. By Carrington & Cusack.

New York, June 30 .- The market opened dull and irregular with the Grangers very slightly off from the closing but on active buying railied quickly, giving a better tone to the market. The Traction shares opened with a better feeling on account of the consolidation deal, but at once sold off on the liquidation of long stock. Foreign houses on a better tone in the London market put buying orders in Northern Pacific, New York Central and other stocks which turned the traders onto the other side. After 12 o'clock the market drifted into a tipical holiday with traders in control. Money continued 4 and 5 per cent., causing some liquidation. In preparation for the holidays in the control of the with traders in control. Money continued 4 and 5 per cent., causing some liquidation. In preparation for the holidays there has been a shifting of accounts both by shorts and lengs. It is a current rumor that a block of New York Central of about 20,000 shares was liquidated in the market without causing any setback. We do not expect any decided movement until after the hotidays are over, and do not eblieve that there will be much change during the next week, although there is a possibility that the uward movement may be resumed. The market closed strong.
