A special praise and gospel service. with patriotic music, hymns and words by the paster was held at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening. The service was of unusual interest and attended by a large audience. The pulpit was draped with an American flag. The newly organized orchestra, under the direction of George Waters, opened the service with a voluntary of national airs, and after the singing of the doxology, the Lord's prayer was repeated in unison,

A hymn followed and the scripture lesson was also read in unison from the printed programme. Another hymn was sung and then the responsive reading by pastor and people followed. "Blest be the Tie That Binds" was sung and the pastor read the tenth verse of the thirty-third Psalm. After an anthem, prayer, another hymn and an offertory selection by the orchestra, Rev. J. P. Moffat spoke briefly on "Expansion of Church and State."

The speaker went back to the time of slavery and drew word pictures of events in history up to the war between the United States and Spain, and incidentally said the American people were always on the side of right and justice in freeing from bondage the op-The events of 1838 were great surprise, he said, and the inter-vention in Cuba has involved what no man dreamed of. It was a year of great surprises, and the recognition of God's promises. The United States have come forth from seclusion, and are now better known than ever be-

The nations of the earth will recognize that we are unselfish in purpose and that the gospel of Jesus Christ is being worked out in all its fullness "Expansion, yes." said Mr. Moffat. "along the lines that God indicates, and make this a nation as God Intended it to be." The service was closed with the singing by the congregation of "My Country "Tis of Thee."

FREE FIGHT IN A SALOON.

About 9 o'clock Saturday evening a free-for-all fight occurred in the Lafayette house, located at the corner of North Main avenue and Lufayette street. Several unknown Polanders got into an argument, and one of the men broke the leg off a table and Everybody in the place took a hand in the scrap, and the proprietor pulled down the curtains and locked the doros. When the police arrived everything was quiet, but Samuel Beavers brakeman, residing at 335 North Lincoln avenue, wanted to gain enman Dyer. Beavers refused to move on when requested by the officer and was arrested. His friends sought Alderman Kellow who granted the prisoner a hearing and on the payment of a fine of $3 was discharged. The victim of the assault, and none of the participants were caught. A crowd of several hundred people assembled on the scene and excitement was at fever heat for some time.

AT THE STATION HOUSE. The police doing duty in West Scranton have had very little to do the past month, but with the approach of the glorious fourth their troubles begin. In fact, they began Saturday night, when every cell in the station house was occupied. In cell No. 1 a woman was locked up, who, in seeking her husband in the company of another woman, got mixed up with her rival and a real hair-pulling, hand-to-hand fight followed. She was arrested and fined $3.00 yesterday

In cell No. 2, a man who formerly held the office of burgess in a nearby town, peered through the bars, his face almost unrecognizable from blood which flowed from a cut on his forehead. He had trouble with a colored man on Robinson street. He paid $3.00 for his trouble

Cells 3 and 4 were occupied by "ordinary drunks," but in No. 5 a Polander tried to shake the bars from the cell, and kept up a continuous performance for several hours. He was fined $3.00 for doing his turn.

The woman refused to state her ase "till she got to the court house," the 'squire "demanded a hearing forthwith, according to law," and the Polander he gave imitations of "Hans Nix." the telephone inspector, The scene was very realistic and reminded one of a visit to an insane asylum.

OLIVER ANNOUNCES HIMSELF. Joseph Oliver, ex-common councilman of the Fifteenth ward, has announced his candidacy for the nomination for select council representative in the Fifteenth ward. The announcement was made on Saturday in a circular letter to the Republican voters

Mr. Oliver, in his letter, reviews the work accomplished during the four years of his incumbency and adds that it has always been a pleasant duty to render any possible service to individuals respecting personal matters which they desired attended to. He says he has at all times endeavored to serve the best interests of his constituents and the interest of the people at large, always striving to have the city's business transacted judiciously, hon-

Patriotic Song Service Held at the Providence Presbyterian Church Last Evening Proved to Be a Musical Treat.

The appropriate patriotic service of ong last evening at the Providence Presbyterian church, North Main avenue, was one of the most elaborate of the kind held in this city for many years. The singing of the two choirs of over sixty voices, who rendered the anthems and special music, was especially effective.

A large number from Ezra Griffin post and members of the Thirteenth regiment in uniforms, were in attendance. The pastor, Rev. Dr. Guild, had charge of the service and made a brief

The Hucksters Have Inaugurated a War Upon the Boys Who Annoy Them by Throwing Stones-Other Notes and Personals.

Youths who possess the habit of hurling stones at every huckster and driver who traverses the streets of South Scranton, will profit by being guided by the action of John Dillon. a huckster.

A few days ago Dillon was ascending River street between Cedar and Pittston avenues, when he received a volley of stones. Turning about he saw the young son of Ferdinand Hagen, of Alder street, owner of Hagen's plaining mill, throw a stone. He followed him and gave the lad a slight thrashing. Saturday Dillon was arraigned before Alderman Lentes on the charge of assault and battery. He settled the case by paying $15 to the father of the boy and the costs.

Then he gave information for young Hagen's arrest on a similar charge. The lad will be arraigned today. Dillon states he will send his case to court, and teach a lesson to lads who find pleasure in throwing stones. William Zang, of Pittston avenue, another huckster, who was arrested Friday for chastising Michael Coggins, fr., for stoning him, has had the lad arrested for assault and battery. NEWS NOTES AND PERSONALS.
