THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY, JULY 3, 1899.

ORDER WAS ISSUED SATURDAY BY JUDGE GUNSTER.

Delaware and Hudson Company Directed to Remove Its Rails from the Gas and Water Company's Lot Near the Gas House on Bridge Street Which It Seized Under Supposed Right of Eminent Domain. Judge Edwards Was Very Lenient in Imposing Sentence.

A mandatory injunction was issued by Judge Gunster, Saturday, directing the removal of the Delaware and Hudson tracks from the land of the Gas Dunmore Council, No. 1022, Install and Water company across the tracks from the gas house on Bridge street, which land was seized by the railroad company under alleged right of eminent domain for the purpose of putting in a double track. A rule was also granted to show cause why the court shall not take testimony and adjudge compensation damages to the Gas and Water company for the use the railroad company made of the land during the pending of the appeal.

The Northern Coal and Iron company which leases the road to the Delaware and Hudson company, selzed the land in question under its supposed right of eminent domain, alleging that the read was a main line and consequently endowed with this privilege.

The late Judge Bennett, acting as master, decided in the railroad company's favor, and Judge Gunster affirmed the finding. On the strength of this the railroad company entered upon the land, tore down the Gas and Water company's sheds and extended its double track through the plot. The Gas and Water company appealed the and the supreme court reversed the decisions of the master and Judge Gunster. Now the railroad company must take up its tracks and pay damages for the use of the ground and the trouble and expense the plaintiff company was put to thereby.

Sentences and Sentences.

Mrs. A. Reynolds, of the West Side, charged with defrauding the Lackawanna Trust and Safe Deposit com-pany out of $20 by means of a forged check, was on Saturday returned guilty of forgery and uttering a forgery. Sentence was suspended pending an application for a new trial.

A verdict of not guilty was taken in the second case of burglary against Partick McMahon and Thomas O'Malia, who were acquitted of the charge of breaking into Martin Mc-Andrew's saloon, in Providence. District Attorney Jones said he had no new evidence and presuming they would be acquitted of the second charge, as they were of the first, agreed to a verdict of not guilty, which the court thereupon directed.

Tobias Burke, convicted of refilling registered bottles-the first conviction under the new act-was let off with a $10 fine in each of two cases. The plea of his attorney, Hon. John P. Kelly, that he had lost all his money in the bottling business and had given it up to return to work in the mines, prompted the judgé from imposing a sentence of imprisonment.

Mary Virgovda, of Old Forge, convicted of selling liquor without a li-cense, had also quit the business, her Suffers from Two Nuisances. After due deliberation, the city officials have decided that they can not interfere between Photographer Jewell and Dr. Hand in their barricade bother. Mr. Jewell's only remedy now is recourse to the courts. The nulsance is unpardonable for the barricade is as annoying to Mr. Jewell as it is to Dr. Hand and he is as desirous of abating it as Dr. Hand is to have it abated, but he is helpless in the matter, Fox, the bird man, whose barking dogs and screeching parrots made i impossible to find sleep in the doctor's house at the rear of the store and which caused the doctor to put up the thirty foot fence, refused to move out although Mr. Jewell agrees to cancel he lease and make liberal concessions, Mr. Jewell has consuited his attorney and a move against the fence or th logs and parrots is a likelihood of the next few days.
