Where They Play Today. Wilkes-Barre at Scranton (morning). Scranton at Wilkes-Barre (afternoon). Newark at Paterson (morning) Paterson at Newark (afternoon), Reading at Allentown (morning).

Lancaster at Richmond (two games). WILKES-BARRE WAS EASY

Scranton Had No Trouble in Defeating the Enemy Yesterday-Hodson's Pitching and Doherty's Fielding the Features.

In a fast, scientific game yesterday, Scranton took Wilkes-Barre into camp and not only shut them out, but showed hem a trick or two about the game. Only three hits were made off Hodson's delivery, and his support was gilt-edged, the only error being made was on Dillon's failure to hold McAndrews' throw, but it did not cost any-

Scranton had a patched-up team in the field, Risley playing second; Mc-Andrews, a local player, at short, and Planagan behind the bat. But that did aot matter, as the boys played to- Philadelphia gether all right. The fielding of Doherty and Tate was of the star order, and the latter's three-bagger came just at the right time.

The only runs scored in the game tere made in the third inning. Dohery started the trouble with a single, ollowed by Knoll, both advanced on Dillon's sacrifice. Eagan reached first on Richter's error, and Tate sent the arst two home with a corking threetagger. Risley and McAndrews singled and three more runs came in. Flanatan forced McAndrews at second and Hodson went out from pitcher to first. The whole nine figured in the inning. About the only notable features of Wilkes-Barre's play was Coughlin's me-hand stop of a hot liner in the secind, Clymer's work at short and Halligan's running catch in the seventh. Doherty was easily the star of the game, accepting six difficult chances at third on foul flies. Tate, who was a lobster on Saturday, was a hero yesterday in the eyes of the spectators. He made some beautiful running catches and batted well. Knoll also made a pretty catch in the third nning. Flanagan's weakness in throwing to bases was very noticeable. He had three chances to catch runners and

$~0~0~0~0~0~0~0~0 BEECHAM'S Cure Billows and Nervous Disorders. & use paying money for these players when we can get them for nothing later on." In order to offset their scheming I journeyed around the Atlantic league cir-cuit and met several of the club owners. With the information I obtained you may state positively that Allentown, Reading, Lancaster, Paterson, Richmond and Wilkes-Barre will continue to the end no matter what decisions the remaining clubs come to, and there is nothing apparent that leads me to think that Scranor Newark will gult before the end of the season.

Then, if Mr. Irwin or any other National leaguer wants players from the Atlantic league they may draft them in the regular order. In the meantime Mr. Irwin or any other magnate cannot have any of Wilkes-Barre's talent for loss than the price we named. Moreover we are not anxious to sell and should any deal be made it will be when the players themselves show an anxious disposition to get into the National league. As it is directors and players are in har-mony, and both are satisfied. Very will sell no one at present but Patten will sell no one at present but Fatters and Coughlin's release may be purchased after July 4 for $2,800."

There is no doubt in my mind that Irlwn and one or two other National league magnates are responsible for the wide-spread rumor that the Atlantic league is about to dishard. This is Agent in a spread rumor that the Atlantic league is about to disband. This is done in a spirit of selfishness, with the hope that they can build up their respective clubs with some of the excellent young talent with which the Atlantic league abounds. To prove their shrewdness I might state that I saw a telegram from Mr. Wagner, owner of the Washington club, to Mr. Irwin, wherein he stated: "There is no

DILLON AND LIPPERT SOLD.

Buffalo's Offer Accepted and the Deal

Was Closed Yesterday. First Easeman Dillon and Right Fielder Lippert were sold to Buffalo yesterday, the purchase price not being made public, but Scranton secures two players in the deal, Bill Massey and Outfielder Householder.

The exchange will take place at once and the new men are expected to report for duty at this morning's game. Dillon will play with Buffalo today, but Lippert is sick and may not be able to report for a day or two.

Massey is well known to Scranton fandom and needs no introduction, but Householder has never played in this city. He is a first class man, however, and in the opinion of many is a much better man than Lippert. Dillon is certainly a clever player and is destined to shine in fast company. The addition of Massey and Householder will strengthen the Scianton club, and with Tate at second, and O'Neill, Risley and McMahon back in form, we can make them all hustle. A strong-throwing, heavy-hitting catcher is needed to help out O'Neill.

and with McAndrew as substitute, the team would be in good shape.

If the league remains intact after today, Manager Swift must secure another catcher and permit Risley to recuperate from his indisposition.

Today's game will start at 10.15 a. m., with Wilkes-Barre. There will be no game in the afternoon, Scranton playing at Wilkes-Barre.

Jake Wells insists that he has another Rusie in Twirler Billy Donovan, who pitched in Saturday's game. Dovovan has pitched three games this season for Richmond, in which the opposition were held to one and two hits. He is gradually mastering control of the ball. A big shake-up is imminent in the Allentown base ball club. Manager Shar-sig has lines out for a new pitcher, an infielder and an outfielder. The players will be the best that money can buy and it is expected that the team will soon take a big jump pennantward. John Bonner, who has been practicing with the Scranton team this week, has returned to Mauch Chunk and will finish the season here, in his old position at second base. Scranton was quite willing to sign him, but Johnny prefers Mauch Chunk.-Mauch Chunk News. "I'd like to bat in front of McGraw, plate to insure you a great chance to make the base." Pitcher Ed Ames, of the Paterson club, has deserted and left for his home in Philadelphia. The cause for his leaving, it is said, was on account of a fine of $25 being imposed on him by President Barrow, of the Atlantic league, for indifferent playing. Third Baseman Goch-anur has also deserted. "Billy Hamilton's absence from the Bostons has hurt the strength of that team a great deal," said Manager Mc-Graw recently. "I picked the Bostons to win the pennant, and I believe that if Hamilton had been able to stay in the game they would have finished first. Without Hamilton the team is badly off. Hamilton is a wonderful ball player, but he is not appreciated in Boston. Manager Donovan, of Pittsburg, has released Pitcher Jimmy Gardner. Gard-

The Reading Times says: "Just why President Barrows persists in keeping the Paterson club depending on the charty of the other seven clubs backing up he Atlantic league, instead of placing the organization in another town is a question many fans along the circuit are now wrestling with. Powell's organization cannot draw decently in its own home and very little enthusiasm is evinced when they visit the other cities in the circuit. It is manifestly unfair that the other clubs should be called upon to keep Paterson in existence."

Mr. Rutledge Replies.

Sporting Editor of The Tribune. Sir: With your kind permission I wish to contradict the article in a recent issue of your paper referring to Mr. Irwin's magnanimous declaration that he cau ave the whole Wilkes-Harre club for 50 in two weeks. It seems to me that this is a very ungrateful, as well as a false statement, since he has been nego-tiating with the Wilkes-Barre management for the past three weeks, and our decision last Wednesday was precisely the same as when he first tried to pur-lan, manager.

A very interesting game of base ball was played on Forest City grounds be-tween the Starlights, of Jessup, and the Vandling base ball club on Sunday, July when the latter was defeated by the core of 7 to 6. The features of the game were the batting of John O'Royle and the three-base hit of Charles Thomas that won the game in the last inning. Good fielding was done by the Starlight field-ers. The one-handed catch by James Conroy was magnificent and the back-

SUN ECIPSED AT MIDNIGHT.

From the London Times. The ordinary almanac gave for December 13 a partial eclipse of the sun. invisible at Greenwich. And indeed the expression as to its invisibility might have been put much stronger, for it was to be seen in no inhabitated region of the earth. An anarctic expedition might possibly have sailed within its sphere of influence, but as it was passed unwatched by human eyes. This being so, and the eclipse ankle, sustained in the game at Newark one that was necessarily wholly unseen, it would seem as if nothing more could be said about it, and as if it might be passed without comment. But, unseen as it was, the eclipse was by no means devoid of interest. First of all, it offers us an example of what of all, it offers us an example of what seems a paradox-an eclipse of the sun taking place of local midnight. It is moreover, the first of three eclipses falling without a period no longer than a single calender month. December 27 will bring a total eclipse of the moon at Greenwich; January 11 a partial eclipse of the sun. And the three are very intimately connected with each other. The latter in nearly all its characteristics stands in strong contrast to the eclipse of December 13a large partial eclipse which will be seen just outside the borders of the their midwinter. Nor is this sequence accidental. A similar triplet of eclipses-the first partial of the sun and seen near the south pole, the second total of the moon, the third partia! of the sun and visible near the north pole-occurred just eighteen years ago, all three eclipses falling in December 1880. Going back yet another eighteen years we find the same thing repeated some ten days earlier in the year, and so on right away backward
