The following from the New York Commercial Advertiser is evidently inspired

It is plain that there will be many disappointments. The clearing house com-mittee will treat every application with the greatest respect. Each will be con-sidered. It may be stated, however, from a source entitled to weight, that the rules a source entitled to weight, altered, if at all. Perhaps three or four nearby places may be deemed discretionary in the near future, but the clearing house committee recognize the fact that once they add to this "free list" the number of applicants for the "discretionary" advantages will Then take a peep at our window. We have made will write of 25c and legion. Thus they will go slow, and the legion. Thus they will go so, and it is reasonably safe to predict that when the three months' probationary trial of these rules ends on Monday next, the petitioners will find that it has been imssible for the committee to answer their prayers. If every agrieved city would follow the example of Scranton the obnoxious rule would never get beyond the probationary period, it is safe to say. The loss in business resulting from the banks, here, making exchange arangements with Boston, Baltimore, Chicago, and other places whose lenitary was formerly reached through the New York banks, far exceeds the returns from the collection charges. Acting on suggestions of their bankers, Scranton merchants having dealings in New York, refuse to stand for the extra charges and the New York merchants in consequence are making a vigorous kick against the New York clearing association, some of them having gone so far as to transfer their susiness to banks not identified with the association and which do not impose the extra charges.

REYNOLDS-SANTEE WEDDING.

The Marriage of Popular Young People at Dalton.

Specialties-Surgery, Diseases of Women One of the prettiest weddings which Dalton has even seen was the Rey-nolds-Santee wedding which took place Thursday, June 29, at high noon. The ceremony was performed in the Office 210 Connell Building. Residence-210 South Main Avenue. Methodist Episcopal church by the father of the bride, Rev. J. B. Santee, assisted by the Rev. J. C. Leacock, pastor. An imposing feature of the ceremony was the semi-circle of ministers standing within the altar rail, composed of the Reverend Hiller, of Fac-Checks Paggage direct from residence to any part of the United States. toryville; E. L. Santee, uncle of the bride, Nanticoke: Newing, of Sus-quehanna, with J. C. Leacock and J. B. Santee. Promptly at the appointed Office 109 Lacka, Ave. Phone 525 time to the strains of the beautiful Mendelssohn wedding march by Miss Albright, of Pittston, the bridal party entered the church. It was composed of Miss Edith Santee, sister of the bride, maid of honor; Miss Eulalie Piatt, of Wellsley and Miss Alma Heiss, of Howley, the bridesmaids. Mr. J. B. Wells, of Syracuse University, was best man, and Mr. Claude 2. Con, of Towarda, and C. P. Rya ? of Syracuse, were ushers. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride, which was attended by about sixty guests, most of whom were served by Waldner.

The out-of-town guests were: F. S.

Rev. John P. Moffat, of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, this city, was honored by the board of trustees of Franklin college, O., with the degree of Doctor of Divinity on June 27, 1899. This is an old and well known institution of earning; it has been in existence for eventy-five years. In conferring this de-gree upon the Rev. Mr. Moffat, we believe it has made no mistake in the rec-ognition of his worthiness. He is a graduate of Hanover college, Indiana, also a graduate of Princeton Theological seminary, N. J. He also gave an additional year to post-graduate work in the College of New Jersey. He is an earnest, aithful preacher, fearless in exposition of the truth, and untiring in his efforts to further the interests of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, of which he has been the paster for four years. This congregation is to be congratulated on this recognition of his merit by the trustees of Franklin college.

> In all the Election Districts of Lackawanna County Not a Single Vote Was Registered Against Any of Choice for Delegate to the State Convention - Second and Fourth District Conventions.

The election of delegates to the Republican state convention from Lackavanna county was completed yesterday and now all four candidates named as the personal choice of Judge Archbald stand elected unanimously, and the endorsement which the judge sought at the hands of his neighbors is given. Not a single vote was cast against iny one of them in any election district in the county. In the Second and Fourth districts, where the return judges convened yesterday, the report was as in the previous instances-"no opposition.' In the Second district E. M. Vernoy was declared elected and in the Fourth district Hon John F. Reynolds, Thomas R. Brooks was chosen alternate in the Second district, and resolutions were passed endorsing President McKinley, Governor Stone, Senators Quay and Penrose, Congressman Connell, Senator Vaughan, Representative Scheuer and the candidacy of Judge Archbald. President McKinley was also formally renominated for 1900. In the Fourth district no resolutions were passed or alternate elected.

RETURN JUDGES

The second district convention was held in the arbitration room of the court house at 1 o'clock. M. W. Lowry presided and P. Silas Walter acted as secretary. The return judges were:

NO OPPOSITION.

No opposition to E. M. Vernoy was reported from any district and in a number of places not more than four or five votes were cast

After declaring Mr. Vernoy elected unanimously, Chairman Lowry called for nominations for alternate. T. R. Brooks was named and unanimously chosen.

Factoryville; Mr. and Mrs. Bannister Thomas R. Brooks, Emil Bonn, Rudolph Buenzli, Jacob K. Johler, W. A. Raub and Robert Hang were named as a committee on resolutions. They brought in the following report which was unanimously adopted:

The Republicans of the Second Legisative district of Lackawanna county in this convention assembles, at Scran-ton, hereby renew our allegiance to the Republican party, whose principles and tenets have already made brilliant her administrations, won the confidence of the American people and held the adairation of the world.

We pay our tribute of respect and ad-miration to the wise statesmanship of our president, William McKinley, in the trying times through which our counry has passed. His mild, firm and asterly hand has so guided the ship of state, amid adverse winds and the lowering clouds, as to reflect honor upon our people and our country.

There has been but one course open to our government, consistent with American manhood, and our progressive Christian civilization, since the memorable naval battle won by the brilliant and intrepid Dewey in Manila bay. And we commend the policy pur-sued by our president toward the Philippine islands, believing that our na-tional dignity, American tradition and the cause of humanity demand that we establish and maintain a liberal and pacific policy, such as can not fall to appeal to all classes and conditions of those sunny islands, which in the course of fortuitous events have fallen to our guardianship. DESERVES A RE-ELECTION.

We believe that the great service rendered by President McKinley, and the signal ability with which he has met and disposed of the problems of the hour, entitle him to a renomina-tion and re-election to the high office which he now holds, for the next and first term of the coming century. We congratulate our party, and the nation, for the wisdom and discretion which has attended the action of both houses of congress in the liberal, logi-cal and loyal support accorded the executive and administrative departments of our government in their solution of grave and intricate problems presented by foreign demands and warring foes.

And especially do we value and com-mend the patriotic zeal, fidelity to duty and eminent statesmanship of our sen ators from Pennsylvania, Hon. M. S. Quay and Boies Penrose, and of our representative in congress from Lackawanna, Hon, William Connell. We esteem and approve the wise and statesmanlike administration of Governor William A. Stone, and particu-larly endorse his manly stand in insisting upon keeping the expenditures of the state within its revenues.

We endorse and commend the consistent and straightforward action of Senator J. C. Vaughan and Hon. John Scheuer, jr., in the last legislature, for the fidelity and earnestness with which they served their constituents and up-held the banner of regular Republican-

We take great pleasure and pride in unanimously presenting to the Repub-licans of the state of Pennsylvania, as our distinguished candidate for justice of the Supreme court, the name of Judge Robert Woodrow Archbald, whose the Four Candidates Named by qualifications, personally and professionally, should commend him favor-Judge Archbald as His Personal ably to the coming state convention. And we especially enjoin and instruct the delegate this day elected from this district to use all honorable means to bring about his selection for that eminent honor.

We pledge our loyal support to the candidates nominated in our state con-vention to be held at Harrisburg, Aug-

While the committee on resolutions was deliberating ex-Alderman O. B. Wright, who was one of the spectators raised a protest against the convention adopting resolutions and putting them forth as the expression of the party. Chairman Lowry replied that any body, to his mind, had the right to speak its sentiments. He assured the squire that the resolutions would not purport to be anything more or less than they really were.

FOURTH DISTRICT.

The Republican convention of the Fourth legislative district was held in Burke's hall, Carbondale, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock to select a state delegate. The returned judges were present and G. W. Smith acted as chairman and Hon, S. S. Jones vas secretary.

There was no opposition to Hon. J. F. Reynolds, of Carbondale, for state delegate, and on motion of Mr. Avres, of Peckville, the secretary was instructed to cast the ballot for him. No alternate was elected.

The convention was unanimously in favor of Judge Archbald for the supreme bench. Aside from this Mr. Reynolds will go uninstructed. resolutions were presented.

KIDNAPPING CASE.

Mrs. Charles Hayden Took Her Child from Its Foster Parents and Went to Philadelphia. Located by the Police.

Scranton has a kidnapping case. It is a peculiar case. It is a case wherein a woman is charged with kidnapping her ex-daughter. Four years ago Mrs. Charles Hayden, of this city, left her home, deserting her husband and 6-months-old child. A year later the husband's parents adopted the !!ttle one and had her indentured to them by due process of court.

Three weeks ago the ex-motherlegally speaking-bobbed up in Scranton, and going to the house of her father-in-law asked to see the child. She was granted the privilege, and, also allowed to take the little one out for a walk. That is the last that the foster parents or the father saw of the child.

Chief Robling was informed of the case and asked to assist in bringing back the child. He succeeded in learning that Mrs. Hayden took a Delaware and Hudson train to Wilkes-Barre and thence went to Philadelphia. The Philadelphia police were called into the case and about ten days ago Mrs. Hayden and the child were located in Philadelphia. Detective Moir went thither with a warrant, but upon arriving found that they had disappeared. The warrant was left in the hands of Chief Detective Miller and, yesterday, he wired Chief Robling that the woman and child were under arrest. Detective Moir left at 4.27 yesterday afternoon to bring them back to Scranton. The Haydens are not disposed to prosecute the woman, being satisfied to secure the return of the child.

EXCURSION TO DETROIT.

ANNIVERSARY OF INDEPENDENCE DAY

JULY, REALLY IS.

No Indication That Scranton Is Cognizent of the True Significance of the Holiday-It's Different Up in Wallsville, Though-All Kinds of Money-Making Events Are Scheduled, But Nary "a Patriotic Address by Prominent Orator at 11 O'Clock."

Today is the anniversary of the dectration of independence.

This announcement is for the information of everybody within hearing distance, excepting the good people of Wallsville, who, alone of all the residents of this region, have arranged anything bordering on a fitting celebration of the nation's great day. Even Minooka, which furnished a man to fire the first gun of every battle of note in the present unpleasantness, has nothing scheduled as a patriotic commemoration more exciting than a contest or two in the national game. Scranton which distinguished Itself on every battlefield and in every naval engagement, is not a whit more ap propos. There is no doubting that we propose to make of it a great holiday. The double teams on the brewery vagons last night was an earnest of this. That we are going to do anything particularly significant of the day is, however, not in evidence, at least not up to this writing.

NO GENERAL CELEBRATION. There are to be family basket plenics and public picnics, excursions to all nearby resorts, a base ball game, Caledonian games, a balloon ascension, church festivals and a whole lot of other things arranged solely for making money, but there is to be no parade, no big fireworks display, no public demonstration of any kind. Above all, there is to be no "patriotic speech by prominent orator at 11 o'clock," such as thoughtful, appropriate, patriotic Wallsville is to have.

Desnite the fact that this is a war year there was no unusual cannonading last night. It was quite an ordinary Third of July night. The shopkeepers, however, report a big sale of fireworks and it may be that will yet be partially edeemed by the children.

The local weather indications presage rain for today but the weather bureau makes no mention whatever of wet in its prognosis received by wire at midnight. "High temperature" is about all it essays to guess at.

WHERE THEY WILL GO.

A good portion of the population will pend the day on the East Mountain enjoying the delights of the beautiful roads for which Scranton should be so grateful to the Elmhurst Boulevard company and William W. Scranton. Thousands, it is safe to say, will go to the always popular Lake Ariel where Professor Glasgow is to make a balloon ascension and be fired from a cannon n mad-air and drop to earth in a parachute. Farview will also attract a large crowd as usual, although the trip has been robbed of some of its ights by the substitution of stean for gravity as the motive power across the mountain. There will also be an excursion to Mountain Park over the Jersey Central under the auspices of the local lodge of the Ancient Order of Britons.

TODAY'S EVENTS.

Caledonian games, at Athletic park this afternoon,
Excursion of St. Brenden council, Young Men's Institute, to Binghamton. Picnic of Holy Cross congregation at Laurel Hell park, afternoon and even-
