

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF IRA J. PRICE AND MISS LEAH HOWELL.

Ceremony Performed at the Residence of Rev. S. F. Mathews. Funeral of Thomas Gerrity—A Slight Fire in Dickelnic's Hotel. Arthur Gibbs, of South Main Avenue, Run Down by a Bicycle Rider. Smaller Items of General Interest. Personal Paragraphs.

Miss Leah Howell, of Elkdale, Susquehanna county, and Ira J. Price, a popular West Scranton young man, were married at 1:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by Rev. S. F. Mathews, of the First Baptist church, at the parsonage on North Hyde Park avenue. The couple were unattended and only the immediate relatives and friends were present.

The bride was attired in a becoming traveling gown. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Price left for New York, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will reside with Mr. Price's parents on North Hyde Park avenue. The groom is employed in a silk mill at Paterson. He is a member and leading spirit of the Electric City Wheelmen.

LAST NIGHT'S FIRE.

The alarm from Box 22, corner of Luzerne and Tenth streets, last evening, was occasioned by the fly-netting around the gas fixture becoming ignited in the hotel conducted by William Dickelnic at the corner of South Main and Luzerne street.

The Columbus, Franklins and Eagles responded, but their services were not required, as the blaze was extinguished without the application of water or chemicals.

YOUNG MAN INJURED.

Arthur, the young son of Dr. and Mrs. L. H. Gibbs, of South Main avenue, was run down by a bicycle scorcher near his home yesterday afternoon and painfully injured. He was carried into the house and medical aid summoned, when it was learned that his nose was broken.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS GERRITY.

A high mass of requiem was sung in the Church of the Holy Cross Bellevue, yesterday morning over the remains of the late Thomas Gerrity, who was killed in the Dodge mine on Saturday. Rev. W. P. O'Donnell officiated and interment was made in the Cathedral cemetery.

INTERESTING MEETING -- THE SCHOOL BOARD HELD.

Smead, Wells Heating and Ventilating Company Given a Peremptory Order to Put the Heating Apparatus of No. 4 School in Proper Condition—Teachers Will Be Elected at the Next Meeting of the Board. Lawn Social at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Bogart.

The meeting of the school board, which was to have been held this evening, was held last evening in No. 1 school building. The minutes of the previous regular, special and adjourned meetings were read. On motion of Mr. McPeck, the tax levied for the balance of '99 and 1900 was fixed at 16 mills, to be levied as follows: Ten and one-half mills for tuition; two and one-half mills for building and repairs.

The old complaint of improper ventilation at No. 4 building was brought before the board. The matter received special attention and the members came to the following conclusion: For the secretary to notify the Smead, Wells Heating and Ventilating company to either come here and place their plant in a satisfactory working condition, as they agreed to in the contract, or remove the same from the school building.

Superintendent Bovard's report was read and placed on file. It showed that 2,255 pupils were enrolled during the past month, with 2,955 attending daily, or an average of 1816 and a percentage of 99. He gave the eighth grade examinations to a class of seventy-three pupils. Forty-five passed and are ready for the high school work.

At the teachers' examinations, twenty-six were in the class, out of which twenty-four passed. Bills to the amount of $7 were ordered paid. The board adjourned to meet Tuesday, July 11, when teachers will be elected.

LAWN SOCIAL. A lawn social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bogart, on Elm street, Friday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid society of the Dudley Street Baptist church.

A musical programme, which will include many out-of-town people well known in musical circles, is being prepared. The menu will consist of ice cream, cake and lemonade.

THE MEN FINED. Pasquale Cirina and Giannanilo Dillo, who created the disturbance on Duck street, Sunday evening, were arraigned before Burgess Powell and fined $23 apiece. When searched at the station house, three razors and a revolver, the weapons used during the melee, were found upon their person, and Burgess Powell fined them for carrying concealed weapons.

Officers Bulger, Russell and Williams made the arrests.

SHORT PARAGRAPHS. At the last regular meeting of the Junior Epworth league of the Methodist Episcopal church, held in the church parlors Friday afternoon last, it was decided to suspend meetings until September. The past year's reports were read, which showed a decided increase in the work undertaken by the young people, also an increase in membership.

"Muzzle your dogs!" is the cry now. The officers have received their intimation to pick up any canine without the necessary muzzle. The first arrest was made yesterday. The chase was exciting, but the officer proved to be an expert at the business and landed his place. The dogs will be confined in a place provided or them in the "pound" on South Hooker street.

The postoffice hours today will be as follows: 7 a. m. to 8:30 a. m.; 10:45 a. m. to 11:45 a. m.; 1:45 p. m. to 2:45 p. m.
