DIAMOND PICK UPS.

Louisville has put in a bid for Third Baseman Coughlin, of Wakes-Barre. First Baseman George Decker, signed by the Washington management during the recent Washington series at Louis-ville, will report in Washington on Sat-

Arlie Latham's first game as a league umpire was very much of a success, and if Ariie can only continue as he started out he will be a welcome addition to the league staff. Latham is something of a sprinter, and will be able to go down to the bases with the runners, and thus be in a position to see each play before passing judgment on it.

Atherton is playing remarkable ball when all the circumstances are considered. The big fellow is troubled with a bone felon and cannot get a firm grasp on the bat, yet he hammered out a beauty double yesterday and besides fielded sensationally. "Ath" would have been excused yesterday had there been a good man handy to replace him.-Washington

The mysterious Manager Irwin, who has been contorting about the minor league circuit in search of phenoms, failed to turn up with the Senators yes-Lancaster July 6.—Lancaster this af-ernoon had Wilkes-Barre beat up to the disth honing, when Wilhelm suddenly weakened and several hits and a couple holing the Wilkes-Barre management with a view to enticing the left-handed pitcher, Patten, and Third Baseman Coughlin from the Coaltown team. The Wilkes-Barre people are still holding out for a fancy price for this pair of stars.—

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

By Carrington & Cusack.

New York, July 6.—The market opened at about last night's close and during the first hour there was considerable realizing in the railroad stocks by some of the most conspicu-ous buyers of the last few days. ous buyers of the last few days.

The industrials showed more animation and was higher on general buying throughout the list, a good many shortscovering on the advance.

Sugar was particularly strong on the weakness in raw sugars and the main-tenance of the prices of the refined, which insured a larger profit to the trust, and which also served to indi-cate that an agreement exists with independent refineries.

London was quite a free buyer of its specialties, and there was some commission buying which was offset, however, to a considerable extent by realizing sales by the traders.

Atchison preferred and the coal stocks were the chief features of strength in the railroad lists. Brooklyn Rapid Transit opened strong, but subsequently sold off.

The announcement that J. P. Morgan & Co. had undertaken the refunding of the Mexican national debt, had a pretty good effect on the street, it being our first international transac tion of this kind, and indicating the strength of our position among the na-tions of the world from a banking point of view.

Continental Tobacco and American that both are in for a sharp up turn. The market after 1 o'clock became dull, but was fairly strong throughout the day. The early seiling by the traders and some short selling was used to depress prices and to check the advance.

In these weak spots the market still looks a purchase to us.

The close was somewhat irregular, but with a strong undertone.
