

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON AN ATTACK MADE UPON THE LAUNDRY OF FONG SING.

His Place Raided by Three Young Men, But the Almond-Eyed Proprietor Proved Their Equal—One Arrested Yesterday and Held in Jail—Arrangements Made for the Maennerchor Excursion—Mrs. Kate Stein Injured—Other Accidents and Personal.

About 11 o'clock Wednesday morning three young men, who apparently had not recovered from the exhilarating effects of the Fourth, made a determined attempt to do great harm to one Fong Sing, a Chinese laundryman, whose place is in the Rosar building on Birch street, near Pittston avenue.

The trio, upon entering the laundry, started forthwith to clean out the place. Packages of linen were taken from the rack and thrown on the floor. An attempt was made to ransack the money drawer, but it was locked.

The protests of Sing were unavailing and he decided to use a more forcible argument. Seizing an axe, he raised it high, made a hasty retreat, with Sing in pursuit. One fellow took a stone and hurled it through a large window valued at $80. Other stones followed in quick succession.

At this juncture of the proceedings, Mrs. Rosar and her son came on the scene. Young Rosar and the Chinaman started after the desperate trio and the race lasted for several blocks. Being overtaken, one fellow blocked a gun and informed Rosar he would leave him minus his head if he came any further. They then made good their escape.

Lieutenant Zeng was notified Wednesday evening of the affair and he put his men on the case. John Cavannaugh, of Hickory street, who was suspected of being one of the gang, was arrested at his home yesterday morning by Patrolman Schmidt. He was taken before Alderman Lentos, who had issued the warrant for his arrest.

Fong Sing and young Rosar recognized him as one of the men. The defendant offered to prove an alibi, stating he was in bed at the hour the attack was made.

Lieutenant Zeng asked that Cavannaugh be held for court, saying he had several witnesses who are positive they saw the young man in the vicinity of Birch street about 11 o'clock of the day in question. He was held in $500 bail. The other two may be rounded up today.

MAENNERCHOR EXCURSION. The hustling and efficient committee of management of the annual excursion of the Junger Maennerchor, which will be run to Lake Ariel on Monday next, held a largely attended and interesting meeting at Hotel Best last night. The various details incident to the complete success of the affair were given the closing touches, and everything is now in readiness awaiting the day.

Every indication points that the outing will be a huge success in every sense. The popularity of the organization has been fully attested by the immense sale of tickets. Lawrence band has been engaged for the occasion. A concert will be given at the lake from 12 to 1 o'clock. Sam Puhren's large phonograph and one hundred records will be on the grounds as one of the features of the programme. The Maennerchor will sing several selections during the day.

A tug-of-war contest between the married and unmarried men of the society is scheduled for the afternoon. Jaunty white yachting caps have been adopted and will be worn by the members. On Saturday night a parade will be given through the principal streets of the central city and this side.

The committee of arrangements is composed of City Treasurer E. J. Robinson, chairman; William Maus, secretary; Albert Goehring, treasurer; James P. Best, Fred Horstman, Jacob Schunk, Otto Robinson, Peter Zang, Jr., William Berghauer, Charles G. Lowert, Gustave Reppert, John Schunk, William Zeisler, J. F. Heisroig and Michael Roth.

PERSONAL NOTES. The funeral of William Gavin, familiarly known as "Waxie," a shoemaker of the Twentieth ward, was much altered over his absence of several days. He has not been seen about his shop this week. A search will be instituted for him today.

Mrs. John Hughes and family, of Elm street, have moved to Wilkes-Barre. Patrick Ruane has returned to Omaha, Neb. He came here to attend the funeral of his brother, the late James Ruane.

RECKONING UP GAINS AND HEWING OUT LOSSES

Storekeeping isn't all profit and when inventory time comes along you've got to calculate both ways. That's exactly what we're doing now, and as we go through the stock we find so many little lots, Remnants and Oddments of all kinds that are really not worth placing on the stock sheets in detail

THAT WE CHEERFULLY SACRIFICE THEM FOR A FRACTION OF THEIR REAL VALUE

And let the fortunate buyers carry them away. This week is the choice bargain time of all the year, and there is not a single department in the store, not even a counter or table that has not its tempting morsels to offer. Wise buyers have proved the truth of these statements long ago. Those who have not learned to profit by inventory bargain week, may take the hint today.
