MET INSTANT DEATH.

Edward Bate Killed at Silk Mill Yesterday.

Edward, the Q-year old son of Wil-Eain Sate, of Constery street, was instantly killed at Klotz Brothers' silk mill restorday afternoon by being caught in a balt in the cellar.

Coroner Hoberts held an inquest in Alderman Jones' office last evening and the testimony showed that the uafortunate young man was exhibiting his shill at vincing a belt on rapidly revolving pullays. He kicked the belt off and after failing twice to replace It, got in posicion on the third atternot, was cought and mangied to de. in instantly.

The var det of the jury is: "That the said Edward Fate came to his diath to being caught in some running beiting with which he was play-Ing, he having no right to interfere with said belting and that the said Edward Bate came to his death through his own negligence and carelezsness." (Signed), W. J. Hamilton, F. Boylan, W. D. Evans, A. L. tended by Dr. I. S. Graves. Wright, Pobert McHale, John Harte,

The questions of the jurors brought out the fact that the mill is a model of safety.
