The thirteenth quarterly convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence societies of the second district, Scranton Diocese...

The credentials committee, consisting of J. McLaughlin and Patrick Walsh, reported the following delegates present:

- St. Aloysius Cadets—John J. Brady, Thomas Malla, Malachy Coyne, T. Brown and Thomas Heenan. St. Aloysius Society—Henry Fitzpatrick, Peter Walsh, John Hanick, Thomas Island and John Heenan.

TO CONSULT BISHOP.

M. J. O'Toole, of the ritual committee, reported that the ritual was presented at the convention recently held at Havleigh, but was voted down.

PERSONAL NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Zeigler, who have been spending their wedding tour in New York state, returned home Saturday.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Mary O'Neill, aged 62 years, died suddenly at her home on Pacific street at 9 o'clock Saturday morning.

Mrs. Edwin Frable, wife of Select Councilman Frable, of the Nineteenth ward, died at her home Saturday morning at 12:30 o'clock after an illness of many months.

Mrs. Llewellyn Jones of West Scranton, formerly of Wilkes-Barre, died Friday night, she was survived by three sons and one daughter, namely: Morgan C. Jones, of Wilkes-Barre; Howell F. Jones, of Washington; Llewellyn L. Jones, of West Scranton, with whom she resided at the time of death, and Mrs. John L. Evans, of Throop.

Mrs. Mary J. Rowe, of Syracuse, N. Y., died suddenly Saturday afternoon, from the bursting of a blood vessel while visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Island, of No. 16 Prospect avenue. She was 58 years of age. The remains were taken to Syracuse yesterday morning.

Miss Milla Grimshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Grimshaw, formerly of this city and Randolph and now of Newark, N. J., died Sunday, June 25, at the age of 20 years.

Mrs. Durkin, widow of the late Thomas Durkin, died yesterday morning at her home on Luzerne street. She is survived by a daughter and three sons.

A DISTANT COUSIN.

At the wedding anniversary of a railway magnate one of the guests, noticing a somewhat lonely-looking man rather shabbily attired man in one corner of the parlor, walked over and sat down near him.

"I was introduced to you," he said, "but I did not catch your name."

"My name," replied the other, "is Swadlowford."

"Oh! Then you are a relative of our host."

"Yes," rejoined the "poor relation," with a grin, "but his cousin, five hundred thousand dollars removed"—Philadelphia Record.
