SCRANTON, PA., TUESDAY MORNING, JULY 11, 1899.

TWO CENTS.

INNINGS OF THE JUNIORS

Closing Sessions of Christian Endeavor Convention.

GATHERING AT DETROIT

Interesting Programme Rendered. Address by Rev. Dr. Tomkins. Communications from Endeavor Societies Within the Walls of Several States Pricious—Practical Methods of Prison Work—Telegrams of Congratulation Sent and Received—Other Features of Interest.

Detroit, July 10.—This afternoon the Juniors had their innings, both in the audience and on the platform. The junior rally was carried out in the tent Endeavor, the Detroit children who took the leading parts being missed on the platform to the number of a thousand and upwards. The hour was filled with children and their teachers and leaders. The program started with singing of "The Banner of the Cross" with right heartiness. Other songs followed, the children on the stage alternating with those on the floor and then together. The visitors were appropriately welcomed by Miss Elizabeth Austin, superintendent of the Detroit Juniors union.

GRAIN CROP REPORT.

Month Statement Issued by the Department of Agriculture—Condition of Wheat. Washington, July 10.—Following is the monthly grain report issued today by the department of agriculture:

Preliminary returns to the statisticians of the department of agriculture, being 62.5 on July 1, 1898, 91.2 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 82.7 at the corresponding date in 1896, the mean of the July averages for the last ten years.

The average condition of spring wheat is 87.5 as compared with 91.4 one month ago, 92.4 on July 1, 1898, 91.2 at the corresponding date in 1897, and 82.7 at the corresponding date in 1896, the mean of the July averages for the last ten years.

Railroads Absorbed. Philadelphia, Pa., July 10.—The absorption of the Altoona and Philadelphia and the Westmoreland railroads by the Philadelphia and Eastern railroads was announced here today. Work is to be started at once on the unfinished portions of the absorbed roads and a new line will thus be opened from Philadelphia to Altoona and Johnstown.

Smith to Be Hanged Today. Harrisburg, July 10.—Albert Smith, colored, will be hanged here tomorrow for poisoning his wife. Smith is prepared to die, and he has expressed a desire that there be no religious services at the scaffold. His paramour, Annie Winstanley, who poisoned her husband, is serving twenty years in the penitentiary.

Transport Crook Arrives. New York, July 10.—The United States transport Crook arrived today from Havana. She has on board 39 teamsters, 142 discharged soldiers, civilian employes and others; also 800 mules. The transport is held at quarantine until tomorrow.

STEAMER PORTIA WRECKED IN A FOG

PASSENGERS AND CREW LANDED ON AN ISLAND.

Halifax, N. S., July 10.—The steamer Portia, from New York for Halifax, was wrecked during a dense fog early this evening on Plin's island, off Sambro, a point about fifteen miles to the eastward of Halifax. The passengers and crew, 115 all told, landed on a small island in the ship's boats and are all comfortably housed there. No loss of life is reported. As soon as the people had all been safely landed, Captain Farrell started for the mainland with a boat's crew and reached Sambro late tonight, whence he sent the news of the disaster to Halifax by telephone.

YELLOW FEVER IN CUBA.

More Deaths Reported Among the United States Troops. Washington, July 10.—Gen. Brooke reports the following deaths: Havana, July 8. Death report: Santiago, Private John Lawrence M. Fifth infantry, died 7th; Private Patrick Manning, M. Fifth infantry, died 8th, both yellow fever. Guantanamo, Private George Platt, H. Fifth infantry, died 7th, yellow fever. Santiago, Private Joseph Lawrence, civilian employe, quartermaster's department, yellow fever, 8th. Brooke.

VOLUNTEER REGIMENTS.

Secretary Alger Anxious to Have Them Recruited from Veterans. Washington, July 10.—Secretary Alger is very anxious to have the new regiments recruited, as far as possible, from men who served in the state volunteer regiments during the Spanish war. He has received word from a number of officers, especially those who were on duty mustering out the volunteers in different states, that if there was an opportunity afforded probably ninety per cent. of the new regiments would be composed of these men.

COLLISION ON THE CENTRAL.

Signal Operator Fell Asleep and Two Trains Met on the Same Track. Dolts Peary, N. Y., July 10.—Five freight cars and a caboose were thrown into the Hudson river by a collision which occurred at 2 o'clock this morning on the New York Central, between this car and Hastings. No one was killed or injured.

TURPENTINE EXPLOSION.

Abraham Finklestein Probably Fatally Burned. New York, July 10.—Abraham Finklestein was probably fatally burned today through the explosion of turpentine in his painter's supply and wall paper shop in this city and wife and son were burned to death. A can of turpentine that Finklestein was using near a gas stove exploded and backattered him with flames.

HEAT AFFECTED HIS MIND.

Determined Attempt at Suicide by a Passenger on a Train. Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—A man named A. Kramer, of Dayton, O., jumped from a Southern Pacific train near Durban, and, taking a penknife from his pocket, cut at his throat. The train was stopped and the man was put on board and brought to this city. His only injury is loss of blood.

Section Hands Strike.

Chicago, July 10.—Section hands employed by the Chicago Junction railway today struck for a raise of wages from $1.5 to $1.9 per day. The men, numbering about 200, refused to work pending consideration of their demand and considerable difficulty was experienced in moving cars at the stock yards.

Five Artillerymen Killed. Pretoria, July 10.—Five artillerymen were killed today by the explosion of a powder magazine in Magatoland.

TEACHERS AT LOS ANGELES.

The City Abjures with Bunting. Eastern Delegations Arrive.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 10.—The city was ablaze with bunting today and eighteen electric arc lights, which span the special streets illuminated the scene tonight in honor of the National Educational association. The last of the eastern delegations arrived this afternoon. Later the Indiana, Kentucky and Nebraska delegates arrived and everything is in readiness for the opening session of the National Educational association convention tomorrow.

NO ARBITRATION ON HAZLETON RIOTS.

STATE DEPARTMENT REJECTS PROPOSALS. The Austrian Government Has Run The Gamut of Diplomatic Negotiations and Will Probably Now Drop the Subject—Disappointment at Vienna.

Washington, July 10.—The officials here confirm the advice from Vienna that a plan of arbitration, proposed as a means of settling claims growing out of the Hazleton, Pa., riots, had been rejected by the United States. This probably disposes of the matter, according to the view held here, as it has run the entire gamut of diplomatic negotiation and all of the plans of settlement, including the last one of arbitration, have been considered.

MATTHEWS DEFEATS SEILOFF.

The Brooklyn Man Uses His Hands Relentlessly. New York, July 10.—Matty Matthews, of Brooklyn, defeated Otto Seiloff, of Chicago, in the ninth round of a vicious fight at the Coney Island Sporting club tonight. Matthews was by far the heavier, and used both hands relentlessly on his opponent's anatomy. Early in the fight Matthews came spurting from the Chicago boxer's range and his head was red around the ribs and over the kidneys from the frequent visitations of Matty's gloves. Seiloff was not blushing, he fought back much more cleverly than Matthews looked for and rubbed it into the Brooklynites with seemingly unending energy.

ANN ELIZABETH A TARTAR.

The Painesville Kidnapper Fights Like a Tiger. Chicago, July 10.—Mrs. Ann Elizabeth Ingersoll, of Painesville, Ohio, who kidnapped little Gerald Laphin, was taken to the United States penitentiary today. She fought like a tiger and it required three men to take her from her cell to the cell in the jail yard. Handcuffs were placed upon the woman, but she twisted one hand free, struck Jailer Whitman in the face and tore her clothes half off.

TRIED TO WRECK A TRAIN.

Three Boys, of Gilberton, Arrested on Serious Charge. Pottsville, Pa., July 10.—An attempt was made tonight to wreck a Philadelphia and Reading passenger train near Pottsville. The train was loaded with passengers from the place.

FATAL EXPLOSION.
