School Board Fails to Re-elect the Principal of High School. A subject much discussed in local circles yesterday was the failure of the ! school board to re-elect Professor H. J. Hockenberry principal of the high echool. The professor has served this school district about fifteen years and has always been highly esteemed by a majority of his pupils. Many are at a loss to understand the board's action. There has been a great upheaval in school affars recently and the retire ment of Superintendent Forbes and the professor has been the outcome.

Professor Hockenberry is a man of opinions and he wouldn't stifle an opinion for the best job in Christendom. This characteristic is indirectly responsible for his failure to be re-elected, as it has frequently led him to antagenize
