Does Coffee Agree with You?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocery. Follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and healthful table beverage for old and young. 15c and 25c.

Insist that your grocer gives you GRAIN-O and accept no imitations.

HAPPENINGS IN NORTH SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF MISS MAXWELL AND JOHN MCGUIRE.

Ceremony was Performed in Holy Rosary Church by Rev. J. J. O'Toole—Several New Members Initiated in Providence Conclave of Heptasophis—Miss Mary Gilbert Tendered a Surprise Party—A Hartley Evening at the Providence Presbyterian Church.

A very charming wedding occurred yesterday afternoon at the Holy Rosary church, where Miss Mary Maxwell, daughter of Mr. Hubert Maxwell, of Mary street, and Mr. John McGuire were united in holy wedlock.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. O'Toole. The bride was attended by Miss Dora Neary and the best man was Mr. John Hurl. The bride and bridesmaid were attired in dainty costumes and made a very charming appearance.

The bride is one of North Scranton's most esteemed and highly respected young ladies. The groom is well known and very popular and has a host of good-wishing friends.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party took a short drive, after which they returned to the home of the bride and partook of a wedding supper which was enjoyed by their many friends. Mr. and Mrs. McGuire will reside on Mary street.

HEPTASOPHIS' MEETING.

Last evening the Providence Conclave of Heptasophis held an important meeting at the auditorium. Two candidates were initiated, after which the cigars were passed around and a pleasant social session followed.

A delegation of several members were present from Paterson, N. J., also also members from Scranton Conclave and Reading Brook Conclave. Addresses were made by Brothers McAndrew, John Hurl, and John Hurl.

The delegation from Paterson are here to make arrangements for an excursion from Paterson to Scranton when their annual outing will be held in September. A resolution of thanks was tendered the Paterson delegates and the welcome of the city extended to the Silk City Conclave if they should decide to come in September.

The visiting members were the following: Archer H. A. Eshman, Thomas McAndrew, H. L. Quackenbush, E. J. McDonald, H. E. Payne, D. P. George, E. Weeks, Jr., E. Miller and C. G. Boland.

MISS GILBERT SURPRISED.

Miss Mary Gilbert was pleasantly surprised at her home on Oak street Tuesday evening. She was completely taken by surprise, but proved herself a charming hostess that the guests departed for their homes delighted with the pleasant and hospitable manner in which they had been treated.

Those present were: Misses Mary Gilbert, Mary Evans, Mary Lukons, Mary Rich, Cassie Rich, Lillian Ott, Emily Gilbert, Maggie Johnson, Mary Pace, Mary Evans, Rachel Simmons, Hannah Wolf, Lizzie Wallace, Mary Shugg, Annie Price, Annie Richards, Mary Regan, Sarah Gilbert, Jennie Jenkins, Susie Reynolds, Messrs. David Price, Evan Rich, Samuel Gilbert, Alvin and William Reynolds, James Richards, Henry Anderson, William Simmons, George Elliot, David Harris, David Morgan, Robert Burns, John Dougherty, William Holmes, John Bexon, Benjamin Silkman and Henry Lynch.

A HARTLEY EVENING.

Next Tuesday evening will be an evening with Charlie Hartley, the entertainer, in the social rooms of the Providence Presbyterian church. Variety, impersonations and a variety of magic acts of the voice and of the hand will be the make-up of an evening of pleasant surprises. The most wonderful and entertaining program of an hour and a half by this gifted and witty entertainer.

By way of pleasing variation, several choice musical selections will be interspersed in the programme. The "Hartley" evening will conclude with a summer evening social, which will include ice cream and chatting. The entire affair is arranged and offered to the public by the ladies of the Aid society of the Providence congregation. Admission to the rooms on that evening will be by ticket, many of which have already been spoken for.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Tomorrow the Welsh Baptist church, Wayne avenue, will hold their annual outing at Nay Aug park. This event has always been an enjoyable occasion and tomorrow's outing is looked forward to as a great day of pleasure. The different Sunday school classes have prepared several hymns and patriotic songs, which they will sing during the day. The street cars, which have been especially engaged for the congregation, will leave the square at 8:30 o'clock and will return from the park at 3 o'clock.

Saunder Morgans, of Oak street, was painfully injured yesterday in the Cayuga mines. He is employed as a driver, and while spragging a swift-moving trip of cars was squeezed between the cars and rib. He is removed to his home, where he received medical attendance. It is feared he has sustained internal injuries.

The funeral of Edward Robinson, who died yesterday morning at the Lackawanna hospital, will be held this morning from the home of his cousin, John McNulty, 327 Ferdinand street. Interment will be made in Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Thursday evening, July 29, the Court Street Methodist Episcopal church will hold a delightful musical and literary entertainment.

Local Union No. 808, United Mine Workers of America, will conduct their first annual excursion to Lake Ariel, August 16.

GREEN RIDGE. Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cole will leave today for a two weeks' sojourn at Lake Winola. There was a large attendance at the picnic of the Baptist church at Nay Aug park, Tuesday. T. C. Bache, of Nanticoke, spent Monday with W. R. Jones, of Deacon street. Mrs. F. H. Dunn, of the Boulevard, has returned from a two weeks' visit to Long Island. The ladies of the Ashbury church will serve supper in the lecture room of the church on Thursday evening from 6 to 8 o'clock. Ice cream and cake will also be for sale. Tooth brushes, all sizes and prices. The finest in the city at Manners' pharmacy, 520 Green Ridge street. While George Dunn was spending one of his trotters on the old driving race course Tuesday, one of the wheels bucked down, throwing Mr. Dunn out and badly bruising him. The horse ran away and collided with the fence, badly cutting his fore legs. Messrs. Louis, William, Charles and Otto Conrad and families, and Professor and Mrs. Hemberger and Dr. and Mrs. Wehlauf are in Hopkinton, attending a family reunion of the Conrad family. Rev. W. G. Simpson gave a "peanut hunt" at the parsonage Tuesday evening for several of the Sunday school classes. Miss Hill, of Virginia, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Betts, of Washington avenue. Miss Gregg, of Capouse avenue, is entertaining her father and mother from the west. The Young Men's union of the Presbyterian church have presented the Green Ridge library with a very handsome electric clock. The clock is of the regulator style and is finished in polished quartered oak. The clock will occupy a position on the south wall and will face the entrance, making it easily seen from the reception hall. Green Ridge castle, Knights of the Mystic Chain, held a very pleasing and well-attended entertainment in More's hall on Monday evening. Some of the prominent musicians of the city were engaged and with the other amusements offered made the evening pass pleasantly. A large ship was chanced off as a door prize and was won by a son of Patrolman Rodam, of Providence. George Noack, son of Constable Noack, was admitted to the Scranton Private hospital Tuesday evening to undergo an operation for gonorrhoea.
