TIPPED THE KING.

How Leopold Played a Joke on Two American Women.

From the New York Journal,

King Leopold of Belgium gave his annual garden party recently at the Castle of Lacken, the beautiful grounds of which are famous all over the world. The recurrence of the date recalls an amusing event which took place a few days before the fete last year, in which King Leopold enjoyed himself immensely with the bonhomie which | Miller comprised the committee of armakes him so deservedly popular among his subjects.

The King of the Belgians was near the gate of Lacken Castle one afternoon when two well-dressed, handsome American ladies approached him and asked him whether he had time to show them the grounds. The king willingly acquiesced, and the fair Amerians who took him for his own head gardener, asked him innumerable ques tions, many of them indiscreet about

On their way through the grounds the party came face to face with the chamberlain ,the Count d'Oultrement to whom the king, politely removing his hat and addressing him with the utmost respect, said that he was "taking the liberty of showing the ladies

The count smilingly acquiesced, and the ladies were delighted. When their visit was over they rewarded his majesty with a ten-franc piece for his trouble, and he, with many bows, assured them that if an invitation to the oming party were procurable they should have it-

The invitation found its way to the presented (by the Count d'Oultremont) King Leopold was complete as they recognized the amiable gardener of a few days before. Their ten-franc piece was upon the king's watch chain, where it has remained ever since,

MICHAEL BURKE VERY SERI-OUSLY INJURED.

Heavy Beer Wagon Passed Over His Leg and He Sustained a Compound Fracture-Making Needed Repairs to the Cedar Avenue Pavement. Officers of Camp 430, P. O. S. of A., Installed Last Night-Personal Notes and Short Items of News.

Michael Burke, an employe of the Scranton Brewing company, yesterday afternoon met with an accident which may eventually result in the loss of one of his legs. Burke is engaged as a driver for the above concern and was about to deliver a barrel of ale to a customer on Birch street when the accident befell him. After alighting from the wagon to remove the barrel, Burke stepped off to let it fall to the ground slowly, and in so doing placed one foot in front of the rear wheel of the wagon. Suddenly the horses started off and the 🕍 wagon with its heavy load passed over the leg, breaking it a short distance above the ankle.

Several onlookers came to Burke's asdstance and removed him to a nearby hotel, where Dr. Webb attended him & and dressed the injured member. The Lackawanna hospital ambulance was called and the injured man was removed to that institution. The fracture is of a compound nature.

BEFORE ALDERMAN LENTES.

Mrs. Mary Murray, of 737 Hemlock street, was arraigned before Alderman Lentes last night on the charges of assault and battery and cruelty to animals. Lawrence Mendel, of 120 Irving avenue, preferred the charges against the woman. At the hearing there was not sufficient evidence adduced in the mind of the alderman to substantiate the first noted charge, and on that account the defendant was disharged. The charge of crucky to animals was concluded with by Mrs. Murray paying the costs of the prosecution. The hearing being finished, William Murray, husband of the accused weman, had a warrant issued for Mondel's arrest, he alleging that vile and profane language, in violation of the city ordinance, was given utterance to by Mendel. He was fined and had to pay he costs in the case.

Fred Halderle, of 625 Cedar avenue, and a warrant issued yesterday for the arrest of Lows Atkinson, of Raymond ourt, a junk dealer. It is alleged that the defendant stole from the barn of Halderle a certain lot of iron. The farm is situated on Bald Mount, and last winter the several buildings thereon were burned. The fron taken was from plows, shovels and other utensils used about the farm. Atkinson, when arraigned for a hearing, waived that right, and gave $300 for his appearance at court. Malcomb Johnson, who was arrested by Patrolman Sartor Sunday afternoon for being drunk and abusing the officer was fined $5 in police court yesterday morning by Alderman Lentes.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES.

The new horse lately purchased by the members of the Neptune Hose company, broke its leg yesterday morning and may have to be shot. Of late the team has been working for the Seran ton Traction company. Yesterday, while doing the usual work, an Italian in passing, frightened the team, which started off. While running they came in contact with an electric pole and the large, intelligent fire horse fell to the ground. Dr. Storm was sent for, and upon examination found the bon shattered. He said the chances for regaining the vac of the limb were favorable, but would require several weeks of good care.
