RESIGNATION A SURPRISE

While It Had Been Expected to Come at the Close of the Year, Nobody Looked for It at This Time-Neither the President Nor the Retiring Secretary Will Talk-Official Correspondence to Be Published Later-Vice President Hobart Credited with Having Been the Diplomatic Agent in the Case-Meanwhile the Country Can Heave a Sigh of Relief.

Washington, July 19 .- Secretary, Alger today tendered to the president his resignation of the war portfolio. The resignation will become effective August I, though it was tendered "at the pleasure of the president. Clossip has begun aircady as to his successor, but It is entirely speculative, for notwithstanding the reports that Mr. Alger would not long continue at the head of the war department his actual resignation came suddenly and unexpectedly. That it would come by the end of the year was generally believed, but so little was expected at this time that some of the cabinet officers, when the news first became public, were inclined to regard the announcement as premature. Formal acceptance of the resignatien had not been made by the prestdent up to a late hour tonight, but will be in a letter to be written within the next day or two. No official statement as to the cause of the resignation was procurable either from the president or from Secretary Alger, neither of whom would talk on the subject. Nor was the letter of resignation obtainable at this time. For the present nothing will be made known officially concerning the severance of the official relations between the president and his war minister, but Inter on the official correspondence closing the latter's career as chief of the war department doubtless will be given to the press.

Generally Foreseen.

The belief had prevailed in Washington for some time that Secretary Alger would resign from the cabinet, but the date generally set for it was tohad submitted his annual report, in which he intended to sum up what had been accomplished during his brief but eventful direction of the war department. Its tender then had been regarded as almost a foregone conclusion in view of Mr. Alger's announcement about a month ago that he had concluded to enter into competition for the vacancy in the United States senate to be caused by the expiration of the term of Senator McMillan, a strong supporter of the administration, and that the had enlisted in his active support Governor Pingree, to whom had been attributed free criticisms of the policy that was supposed to be cherished by the president towards the Filipinos.

There have been many explanations and denials of the facts in that case but in the end the Impression was conveyed that the result of the Michigan visit of the secretary had been to change the relations between the president and himself to such a degree as to make a restoration of their former | Denni Verdi, service in Cuba. status impossible and to render the connection of the two as part of the same official family undesirable, one time since then there was ground for the belief that a rupture might be avoided, but this belief ceased to be had when the news spread that Vice-President Hobart and Secretary Alger were in conference at Normanhurst.

The Decision Reached.

It was largely at least as a result of this conference that Secretary Alger decided to leave the cabinet at this are on the trial of the other two train time. At this conference there were present besides Secretary Alger, his military aide and close personal and political friend and adviser, Major Hopkins, and perhaps some other persons or person who also felt a deep interest in the future of the secretary, There has been no disclosure of what paseed by the seaside, but it is significant that the return of the secretary to Washington was followed by prompt action. He arrived in Washington last night, too late to make official calls, Almost before the executive departments were opened for business this men of the Second Oregon regiment morning he called at the white house and visiting the president in his office announced that he had concluded to resign his office. What passed on that point between himself and the president is only a matter of surmise, for neither have anything to say on this point. Some outine business pertaining to the war department was disposed of between president and the secretary and when Mr. Alger went over to his office and spent some time with his chiefs looking over matters brought before him. This attended to, Secretary Alger wrote out his formal telter of resignation and personally carried it over to the white house. His call on this oceasion was brief, and when he returned to the war department he closed the door of his office to most of the muny callers who were in waiting and had a long confernce with Adjutant Corbin.

Refused to Talk.

To the newspaper men who sought to secure some expression from him the secretary was courteous but firm. Subsequently General Corbin and Victor Mason, the secretary's private secre tary, made the announcement that Secretary Alger had submitted his resignation to the president, to take effect at the pleasure of the president.

secretary was equally uncommunicative and positively declined to assign any reason for the action he had taken Mr. Melkeljohn, the assistant recretary of war, is at present supposed to be in Wisconsin. He has been notified as to what has happened and to return to Washington to resume charge of the war department until such time as the president shall appoint a permanent

The closest inquiry fails to elicit any information as to the intentions of the president respecting the appointment f a successor to Mr. Alger as secretary of war. Names are mentioned, but they are only those which have already cen suggested with more or less plaus Ibility in the press without securing either confirmation or denial from any vell-informed persons.

The members of the cabinet were dis-inclined to talk about the succession, hough one did remark that the president had made no mention of a name to him, and he believed that no decison had yet been reached. He also con veyed the impression that no appointnent would be made immediately, but that Mr. Meikeljohn would be allowed to direct affairs for some time to come

POINT IN BALLOT LAW.

Voter Entitled to Vote for Candidates for All Offices.

Phladelphia, July 19 .-- In the case of he election of assessors in Gearhart ownship, Northumberland county, the Supreme court, in an opinion by Chies Justice Sterrett, vesterday decided :

ballot-marking question.

The election board returned that M. Gurlich, Republican, and Theo. Robison, Democrat, candidates for the office of assessor, each received fifty votes. There being no election, the county commissioners appointed Gurlich assessor. The requisite number of electors presented a petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county setting out that eleven illegal votes had been counted for Gurlich which should have been rejected, 'because there was upon them a cross mark in the circle at the head of the Republican column and a cross mark in the square on the Democratic column opposite the name of a candidate for upervisor. The lower court sustained the allegation of illegality as to these The commerce commision has for its ballots and declared Robison to have been elected. Chief Justice Sterrett reverses this finding and affirms the correctness of the return of the election board. He points out that there were two supervisors to be elected, but that the Republican bolist contained the name of but one candidate for this office and that the voter, while voting the whole Republican ticket by marking a cross in the circle, still had the right to vote for another supervisor, because he was entitled to vote for candidates for all the offices that were to be filled:

They went over the whole matter, but did not finish discussing it and will have another confernce on it before long. The question of pay, Mr. Rossiter said, was not discussed. This was the main point of dissatisfaction, and the enginers feared that with the adoption of electricity they would be reduced to the rank and pay of motormen.

ANDERSON NAILS ONE FILIPINO LIE

NEVER PROMISED INDEPEND-ENCE TO AGUINALDO.

This in Response to the Assertion of One of Aguinaldo's Lieutenants That He Had Done So-General Harrison Gray Otis on the Manila Round Robin.

Fort Thomas, Ky., July 19 .- General Thomas M. Anderson, commander of the department of the lakes, was seen here today and asked for a statement oncerning the report in the Minneapolis Times from its Manila correspondent, in which the Filipino peace commissioner Zialcita was quoted as say ing that General Anderson at a dinner given in his honor at Cavite had said that the Americans had not come to the Philippines for the purpose of taking one foot of territory with the view of permanent possession, but for the purpose of giving the Filipinos their independence.

General Anderson very promptly and decidedly said he had never used any such language. When he ceached Manila he had no transportation, foragor fuel, and he applied to Aguinaido for those things. That drew him into correspondence with Aguinaldo from which the general soon saw that Aguinaldo's purpose was to but every ob-stacle in the way of furnishing the things needed by the United States army and at the same time to lead the United States, through General Anderon, into some sort of recognition of the Filipine government. In that correspondence the general says he made it plain to Aguinatdo that he was there in a purely military capacity, with no authority whatever to bind the United States by any act of recognition, that his intercourse Manila, July 19.-5:55 p. m.-The with Aguinaldo was purely military, Spanish commission charged with negos both being opposed by a common enemy. #### General H. G. Otis Talks. Chicago, July 19.-In an interview

General Harrison Grey Otis declared his inability to agree with the "round robin" issued by the newspaper corespondents in the Philippines. General Otis is returning to his home in Los Angeles. He said:

"General Otis should be heard from efore the 'round robin' is discussed as to its fairness. The commanding genral has not been unduly optimisticrather the opposite. I know of cases where he had opportunities of making highly favorable reports of his milltary operations, but modestly refrained from doing so. He and his officers do not look with favor on newspaper reports, which, with all intentions of being fair, are apt to be exaggerated. I im satisfied that the officifrom Manila in regard to our killed and wounded, as well as to deaths from disease, have been accurate. I have noticed nothing in the newspapers to Indicate that there was any desire to suppress information of that kind. General Otis has the situation well in hand, as he has reported. From an army of 30,000 men the insurgents have undoubtedly been reduced to a scattered 10,000, and Aguinaldo's capitol is on the back of a pony. What General Otis started out to do he has done. He holds Manila and all the strategic positions which he needed while the rebel force is held apart."

BUILDING AND LOAN DECISION.

Unbusiness-like Methods Must Be Stopped, Says Attorney General. Harrisburg, Pa., July 19.-Attorney leneral Elkin delivered an opinion to day to Banking Commissioner Powers of vital interest to building and loan associations, Colonel Powers recently asked the advice of the attorney general's department as to his duties in approving or disapproving what is known as the "expense fund method" adopted by certain associations. "If building and loan associations," Mr. Elkin says, "adopt unreasonable by-laws, or are transacting their business in a manner which offends sound business principles, so as to be prejudicial to the best interests of the share holders and the public generally, it is certainly not only your right but your duty as well to have the cvil corrected. Since many associations of this character have heretofore adopted and used. the expense fund method, you should exercise discretion about enforcing any new rule in reference to the same. Ample time should be given to the associations to make all necessary changes in their method of doing busiess, so that no hardship will fall upon any of them, all the while keeping in view the ultimate end of doing away with the system."

Second Avenue Strike. If the strikers in New York wanted to make pienty of work for the police, and at the same time get into a district where they could depend on popular sympathy, they made a wise selection in taking the Second avenue line for the principal fight of the strike.

Several times during the afternoon the police were called upon to quell riots in Second avenue, but none were of serious import. The real trouble did not begin until the thousands of working people who live along that great thoroughfare came home from work. The streets swarmed with Immense crowds and the police were almost powerless, and in many instances they, too, came in for injury from the strike sympathizers and many of them were struck with bricks and stones and otherwise maltreated. Cars were blocked in all sorts of ways, and windows ductors dragged off the cars. A favorite diversion for the mob was to drug up the heavy iron covers that cover the conduit manholes. These were turned on end and thrown into the holes, leaving about half of the cover projecting and making a most effective barrier. A great many persons were injured both by the police and by the crowd of strike sympathigers. At 10.20 tonight all operations on the Second avenue lines were sus-
