MEN OF THE HOUR.

E. G. Russell, the new general superintendent of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad company, is making a very favorable impression with Scrantonians. Without exception, those who have met him, either in a business or social way, remark his pronounced civility and thorough democratic bearing, and at the same time are strongly impressed with his business tact. To the newspapermen he is a revelation in the way of a big cor-poration official. He is always approachable and in an interview seems to fully realize that the reporter is not a fearful something that must be pleasantly put up with or diplomatically gotten rid of.

The second night he was in Scranton a Tribune man with a story that wanted verification sent his card to Mr. Russell's room at 10 o'clock. He had just turned into bed and was about to turn off the lights when the bell boy rapped but he nevertheless sent word to come up and submitted to an interview sitting up in bed. "Tut, tut," he said when the reporter made excuses for the intrusion. "That's an important matter and one that the public has a right to know about. I'm here to answer questions like that at any time of the night and don't you hesitate to come to see me, no matter what hour it may be when you have urgent business with me."

The employes' committee who have had several sessions with him regarding the new regulations are probably louder than any one else in commend ing his courtesy and consideration and as these committees represent every nook and corner of the Lackawanns system the impression he made cannot help but enkindle a kindly feeling all along the line between the men and one official who more than any else blnds them to the company's interests.

The Utica Herald of yesterday had this to say of A. C. Salisbury, who succeeds Garret Bogart as superintendent of the main line of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad:

"Mr. Salisbury has been in the railroad business nearly thirty years, and always on the road the superintendency of which he lays down today. For eighteen years he has held the position of assistant and superintendent of the Utica division, with headquarters in this city, and this long term is the best evidence that his services have been faithful and satisfactory. He is wellknown and popular with railroad men

"While his railroad duties have kept him well occupied, Mr. Salisbury has identified himself with the interests of Utica and in his departure this city will lose a representative citizen. Several years ago he was active in the formation of the Railroad Branch of the Young Men's Christian association, with headquarters on Whitesboro street, and he has done more to promote its interests than any other one man. Every railroad man knows him and feels that he has in him a friend Mr. Salisbury has been a prominent member and trustee of the Park Baplist church for years, and in its Suniay school he was teacher of the class which bears his name and which has a membership of about sixty, the largest men's class in the city. Mr. Salisbury s a member of the Masonic and Arcanum fraternities, the Arcanum and Fort Schuyler clubs. His life here has been a very useful one to the city and in his departure Utica sustains a great "To sever all these ties of interest is not an easy task for him, but in this as in everything he is faithful to the company he has served so long. No transfer can sever the friendships he has formed here, in fact the change only shows how strong those friendships were. Mr. Salisbury is in the prime of life and full of energy. He goes to his new field of labor with the congratulations and heartiest of good wishes of thousands of friends throughout this section of the state."

Charles E. Clarke, a contractor and builder, who resides at $22 North Washington avenue, was severly bitten by large mastiff on the street late last

At about 19:30 last evening, Mr. Clarke was walking along Washington venue in the direction of his home. When he reached the corner of Pine street, he saw a very large yellow mastiff standing on the corner. As he passed he snapped his finger at the animal and made some kind of a re-

The injured man hurried to the office of Dr. S. P. Longstreet where the wounds were cauterized and dressed. There were two very deep gashes in the cheek, one very near the eye. The facial artery was severed and it was quite an undertaking to stop the flow of blood. The doctor said that if the dog had bit im a few inches lower the carotid artery would undoubtedly have been severed and fatal results have ensued before assistance could be obtained. Mr. Clarke will make an earnest effort to locate the animal today and if he does so will have it shot,

WILL MEET AGAIN ONE MONTH HENCE

CONFERENCE HAS BEEN AD-JOURNED UNTIL AUG. 23.

Very Little Was Accomplished Because of Superintendent Russell's Unwillingness to Do Anything Definite Until He Becomes Better Acquainted with the Road-New Superintendent of the Scranton Division Comes Today-President Truesdale in the City.

The conference between General Superintendent Russell of the Delaware, Backawanna and Western company and the committee representing the conductors and trainmen was concluded yesterday at noon and the men left for their homes during the afternoon, to return again Aug. 23, and cceive the company's answer.

As on the previous day, nothing was done of a definite nature further than to agree on the mileage system of Mr. Russell did not care to deal with the regulations until he was better acquainted with the road and thought that a month would be quite sufficient to post himself well enough to deal with the matter. Accordingly the conference was adjourned until Aug. 23.

President Truesdale came here last night, but his visit was in no wise connected with the conference, as erroneously stated. The committee men were all home or bound well on their way there before the president arrived in the city. To a Tribune reporter who saw him at the Jermyn last night he said he is here simply to look after routine business. He came at this particular time because of the meeting of the Moses Taylor hospital directorate, which takes place today, Moses Taylor, jr., of New President Truesdale and Dr. N. Y Leet, head of the hospital staff, had a conference at the Jermyn during the early part of the evening. When it was concluded Mr. Truesdale met with a number of prominent Scranton business men who evidently had appointments with him.

At the hospital meeting today a sucessor to Mr. Hallstead as president of the directorate will likely be chosen. General Manager Russell is spoken of for the place, but nothing definite could be learned on the subject.

A. C. Salisbury, the new superin tendent of the Scranton division, will me here this morning and relieve Mr. Bogurt. The latter will, on the advice of his physician, remain quietly home for the summer, making short driving excursions to the country. He has intended to take a trip abroad, but his physician advises him against it until such time as he recuperates somewhat. He will likely go abroad next year to remain for me time.

Superintendent Bogart's last official rder, issued yesterday, directs trainmen to make a minute examination of the cars and engine of a train in case of an accident and report the same to the superintendent of transportation. They are also to notify the superintendent of machinery by wire at once and also the nearest car inspection. An old fashioned clam bake was also enjoyed, The afternoon train brought Mayor Moir and several others to the scene, and they entered into the spirit of the occasion with much pleasure. Chief Frank Robling gave his personal attention to the wants of the guests.

Charles Schadt, one of the managers of the popular resort, placed the steam-ers at the disposal of the party, and ill were conveyed to the club house of the Scranton Howing Association, where the day was spent among the pines and in the spacious building. Ample refreshments were provided, and pastimes of every nature were infulged in, while many of the guests and patrolmen took advantage of the excellent bathing facilities. The feature of the day, however, was Professor Glascow, the balloon ascensionist's descent into the water without prepara.

The party was also indebted to the Eric and Wyoming Valley Railroad company for courtesies extended, and Bauer's men added their share to the pleasure of the occasion. The return trip was made on the 6:45 train.

Committed But the Jail Officials Say They Have Not Seen Him.

Dr. Ernest L. Peete, of Spruce street, has been arrested for performing a criminal operation on a 19-year-old girl living at Brown Hollow. He was taken into custody by Detective Moran, of Carbondale, Tuesday and committed to the county jail by Justice of the Peace Atkinson, of Blakely, but according to the jail authorities, he has not as yet arrived there. He, however, was at he court house yesterday, seeking to released on bail. A brother physiian was present to become his bondsman, but could not qualify and the prisoner was taken away. Up to midnight he had not been received at the county jail the authorities there stated.

Whether Dr. Phillips will at this time prepare a public statement has not yet been decided. His friends point out that no charges were ever made against him before the full board of control nor was he asked to appear before that body to meet his accusers. The whole thing, his friends believe was done under cover, and was predetermined long before the so-called investigation took place. Dr. Phillips friends say that he could, under the bool law, in spite of the fact that the board has voted to reduce his salary, demand to be brought face to face with the persons who have made accusations against him, and they are confident of his ability to show behind very charge a perversion of truth and personal motive. Whether he insist on the exercise of this right is

INFORMATION OF DEATH OF PHILIP J. VETTER RECEIVED.

He Left This City in March, 1898, at the Head of a Party of Gold-Seekers-He Was with the Steamer Elk Party and all the Members of It Were Lost with the Exception of Mrs. Bens-Sketch of Mr. Vetter-He Was an Active Man, Prominent in Affairs of the City.

Word has been received in this city of the death of Philip J. Vetter, the well known druggist of this city, while on his way home from the Klondike. The report was sent out by Asso ciated Press from Scattle, Wash., and tells of the loss of twelve members of the party of which Mr. Vetter was a member.

The news of the sad affair was brought into St. Michael's by Mrs. Bens, the sole survivor and wife of one of the party, Captain W. H. Bens. Mrs. Vetter when seen by a Tribune man yesterday afternoon was inclined to believe the report, as she recognized the name of Mrs. Bens, of whom she said Mr. Vetter had frequently spoken in his letters, referring to the friendly relations existing between himself and Mr. and Mrs Bens. Mrs. Vetter is heart-broken at the sad

SEEKING TO VERIFY.

An attempt will be made at once to verify the rumors, and as a preliminary measure a man from Stroudsburg who knows the country thoroughly where the party is said to have perished has been telegraphed for the purpose of finding out if it was possible for the unfortunate accident to have occurred as stated.

Mr. Vetter assisted in the organization of a Klondike party soon after the discoveries of gold in that region. Several thousand dollars was spent in equipments and the company of goldeekers left the city on March 17, 1898.

Those who comprised the party were Philip J. Vetter, D. A. Cashin, William Frothingham, Michael Mannix, J. G. Sweet, Adam Kitloch and Henry W Zeidler, of Scranton; Francis E. Ehrgood, Dunmore: Samuel Ringsdorf, of Archbald; George H. Sutherland, of Pittston; Albert Gisner, of La Plume and William Ehrgood, of Moscow. Mrs. Vetter has since received sev

ral letters from her busband and in all of which he told of being in good health and spirits. The last letter was received July 1, a little over two weeks ago. In it Mr. Vetter said that he was on the steamer Elk in Kotsebue Sound. The letter was dated November 19, 1898. He spoke of starting for home in the spring and expressed the hope of soon cing his loved ones once more. He said that the party would come home by water and the point that cannot be understood is how they came overland

SKETCH OF MR. VETTER.

Philip J. Vetter was born in New York city in 1854. He removed with his parents to Melrose, Pa., in 1861, where received a common school education. He then studied pharmacy and came to Scranton in 1869. He went to New York again where he lived for a time but returned to this city and opened a drug store at 417 Penn avenue, in 1877 Two years later he bought the building at 415 Penn avenue. He has since ocupled that location r He married Miss Ella Nolan, in this city, and three children were born to them, all of whom survive. They are Philip J. Vetter, jr., a student in the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, and William and Catherine Vetter. He was a lieutenant colonel of the Patriarcha Militant department of Pennsylvania. I. O. O. F., and was a member of the Royal Arcanum, Union Lodge of Ma-sons and Knights of the Maccabes.

He was a man of indomitable will and great energy and he stood high in the ommunity and his death, if true, will cause regret to a large number of persons who were fortunate enough to rank among his friends. The following dispatch was received by The Tribune last night: Vancouver, B. C., July 19.-Captain nradi, of the steamer Garonne, reports uch suffering in Kotzebue. He heard nothing of the loss of Captain Bean and early of twelve. Thomas Lippy, of Scattle, brought $306,-

000 on the Garonne. Ex-Governor Mc-Graw, of Washington, has $100,000 and other passengers bring sums ranging from $5,000 to $60,000. The steamer-Port-land sailed from Healeys July 2 with $1,009,000 in dust.
