EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

MARRIAGE OF W. R. DAWES AND MISS MARY ELSINGER.

Ceremony Performed at St. David's Episcopal Church by Rev. Mc-Henry-Marriage of Francis Bannister and Miss Edith Markwick. Allis Chapter of the Epworth League Organized-Religious Mestings at Several Churches-Other Notes and Personals.

The ceremony uniting in marriage William R. Dawes, of West Point, Neb., and Miss Mary Elsinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Elsinger, of North Main avenue, was performed at $:30 o'clock last evening at St. David's Episcopal church by the rector, Rev. McHenry, The church was specially decorated for the occasion and contained an assembly of the representative families of West Scranton. When Miss Grace Acker, the organist accompanied by violinists Lillian Kenward and May Fisher, began the wedding march, the bridal party ascended the stairs in the rear of the church, and proceeded up the centre aisle to the altar, where they were met by the clergyman, the groom and his asso clate, Alexander Sharkey, of Pittston.

First came two little children, who opened the altar gates, followed by the ushers, Benjamin F. Maxoy, Soi, Mc-Keeby, William Bunn and Alexander Eryden, of Pittston. The bridesmaids were next, Misses Ana Koneekny and Jessie Oram, dressed in white and carrying large bouquets of carnations. They were followed by the maid of honor, Miss Ethel Dawes, sister of the groom, who was also dressed in white, and following her came the bride, leaning on the arm of her tather, attired in white satin, with bridal vail, and carrying a white satin-covered prayer book

The entire party formed in front of the altar, where Rev. McHenry pronounced the introductory coremony and recited the Lord's prayer. The gates were afterwards opened and the bride and groom advanced to the altar pedestal, and kneeling, were pronounced man and wife. During the impressive ceremony, the musicians played "Sweet

In the recessional the newly married couple preceded the maid of honor and groomsman, and they were followed by the bridesmaids and ushers Bunn and McKeeby, while Messars, Maxey and Fryden brought up the rear. The entire party, together with the relatives and invited guests, were driven to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elsinger, where a reception and suppor followed,

Mr. and Mrs. Dawes will remain in this city a few days and later will leave for West Point, where Mr. Dawes holds
