EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

REV. DE GRUCHY'S OPINION OF RICHMOND CONVENTION.

Greatest Assembly in the History of the Baptist Young People's Union. Freeman Potter, Joseph Fischer and Mrs. Mary Daley Pass Away. Funeral of John Connolly and Carroll's Child-Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery in the Toils Again-Other Notes and Personals.

Rev. Thomas de Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Eaptist church, has returned from the Paptist Young People's union convention at Richmond, Va., and speaks in glowing terms of the treatment accorded the delegates in the South during the five days of the convention.

The weather was exceedingly warm during the sessions, but the enthusiasm of the delegates was unlimited, and it was undoubtedly the most successful assembly in the annals of the organization.

The principal address was made by Rev. Dr. Henson, of Chicago, Ill., on 'Discipleship," and Rev. Woelfkin, of Brooklyn, N. Y., also spoke on the subject of "Disciples and Christ." The convention was attended by 8,000 delegates, representing societies from every state in the union and also from Nova Scotia and Canada.

The convention was held in the Exposition building, which is the largest assembly hall in Richmond. The delegates were royally entertained, and one of the features of the meetings was the singing by a choir of 700 voices, all residents of Richmond.

The excursions and side trips arranged by the entertainment committee were thoroughly enjoyed, particularly 2 the cuting at Dutch Gap, which is a famous historical point. About 300 delegates were present from Pennsylvania 🛣 and fifty of that number were from this vicinity,

"The three principal attractions of Richmond to my mind," said Rev. de Gruchy, "were the Jefferson hotel, the state house and the women. The hotel is one of the finest in the world, and I know what I am talking about, as I have visited many of them in this suntry and in Europe during my travels; the state house is a magnificent building and is not surpassed by any in the United States. It was erected at a cost of $2,000,000.

"But the women," said the gental lergyman, "are the most beautiful I have ever seen, and that is no disparagement to our own West Scranton seautles. They are the typical southern belies we read about in novels and are beautiful beyond expression."

Next Sunday evening Rev. de Gruhy will give an extemporaneous talk to his congregation on his trip through the south, which included Washington. Baltimore and other points of interest.
