AN EXPENSIVE WRECK. Thousands of Dollars Worth of Rolling Stock Destroyed.

Sixty-five out of eighty cars of a double-header train of pig iron, brick and other heavy material, were either totally demolished or badly wrecked in a smash-up at Towner station, this side of White Haven, on the Jersey Central road, Saturday morning at daylight. The train started in the middle, losing the mountain and, after running this way for several miles, the rear section dashed into the front at runaway speed, and fairly ploughed through it. The cars and their contents were transmuted into an immense heap of debris that covered both tracks and blocked traffic for half a day. The loss to rolling stock and freight will not fall far short of $100,000. Fortunately none of the trainmen were hurt.

CHARGED WITH FORGERY. Joseph R. McLaughlin Placed Under Arrest and Entered Jail.

Joseph R. McLaughlin was arrested on Saturday on a charge of forging the names of John Forbes and Richard Phelps of Shamokin, to a promissory note on the First National bank at that place. He was brought before Alderman Millar and gave bail in $500 for his appearance in court. He says that Phillips signed his name for the note, that he signed Forbes' name because he could not find him and thought it all right to sign his name, as Forbes had done so before. McLaughlin was formerly a resident of Shamokin.

HARVEST WILL BE LARGE. The Prediction of Weathermen Paine, Who Has Just Completed a Tour of the Country Districts.

Part of the duties of H. E. Paine, the local weather man is to make parolical reports on the crop prospects and harvest. He has just completed a run through the country districts to gather material for a crop report and he says he will report to Washington that Lackawanna county will this year harvest the best all around crop ever. While the state in general has been affected by a draught, this immediate region has been singularly blessed with quite sufficient rain for the nourishment of vegetation and in consequence everything in both field and garden is nicely flourishing, with the exception of hay, which, on account of the long winter rather than any lack of rain, is about twenty-five per cent. short of an ordinary crop. Corn was much better than "knee high by the holiday" and is becoming plentiful and strong. Oats are topping nicely and give promise of an unusually good yield. Potatoes are especially promising and if the stalks continue healthy there will be an abundance of them. Cabbage is likewise in excellent condition. Apples will be very scarce. Mr. Paine says there won't be any at all worth speaking of. The farmers explain this on the "off year" theory.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES.

Ellis, of Honesdale, occupied the pulpit of the North Main Avenue Baptist church at both services yesterday. Thomas do Grady, related his experiences at Richmond during the Baptist Young People's convention. At the Green Ridge Baptist Church yesterday the delegates to the Baptist Young People's union convention at Richmond presented their reports, which were very interesting. Rev. Joseph T. Smith, D. D., of Baltimore, filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church yesterday. The second service was held in the evening instead of the afternoon. Professor Rice E. Lloyd, of Pacific Theological seminary, Oakland, Cal., occupied the pulpit of the Tabernacle Congregational church last evening, preaching in an English sermon. Rev. W. J. MacArthur addressed the gospel meeting at the Railroad Young Men's Christian association, which yesterday afternoon, H. P. Ewyer, of Danmore, sang several baritone solos. In the absence of Rev. J. B. Sweet, of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church, the pulpit was occupied yesterday by Rev. S. F. Matthews, who conducted union services both morning and evening. Rev. Robert P. Y. Pierce, of the Roman Catholic church, occupied the pulpit yesterday and spoke in the morning on "The Unforgotten Christian" and in the evening on "The Angel of Contentment." The most noteworthy service was conducted yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Young Women's Christian association, corner of South Main avenue and Scranton street. A large number of women were present. Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., pastor of the Howard Place African Methodist Episcopal church, conducted a gospel meeting yesterday afternoon in Nay Aug park. A choir led by Mrs. Sadie J. Morgan rendered several selections. Rev. William Edgar, of the Providence Methodist Episcopal church, preached his fifth sermon last evening on "Conspicuous Women of the Bible," referring to the names who refuse to obey orders. The series have been delightfully interesting. The pulpit of the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church was occupied last evening by Rev. D. J. Jones, of the Tabernacle Congregational church, Dr. R. T. Jones, of the Susquehanna Presbyterian church, Philadelphia, will preach there next Sunday. The Young People's Christian society has been organized at the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church. Bruno Ivanowski, pastor of the Polish Catholic church at Pileburg, has resigned his charge, and will spend a year in Europe, on a leave of absence. He will be succeeded by Rev. Father Bukiewicz, of Nanticoke, who, in turn, will be succeeded by Rev. Father Norkiel, of Plymouth. The congregation of the Dunmore Presbyterian church had an unusual pleasure afforded them yesterday morning, Henry P. Dreyer, formerly of Danmore, who is rapidly winning fame as a vocalist, sang several beautiful solos and the church was highly pleased to hear the sermon. It was a scholarly, thoughtful effort which indicates that Mr. Nye is destined to win fame as a pulpit orator.

SERVED AS A NURSE WITH ARMY IN CUBA

MISS HANBERRY HAS RETURNED TO THIS CITY.

She Was Graduated from the Moses Taylor Hospital and When the War Broke Out She Offered Her Services to the Government, and After Serving at Different Points in the South Was Sent to Cuba. Her Experience with the Army Surgeons There. Miss Anna Hanberry, the first nurse graduated from the Moses Taylor hospital training school, has returned to this city after an absence of many months as an army nurse. Miss Hanberry was among the first to offer her services after the opening of the war. Her orders were for duty at Knoxville, Tenn., where she remained in active service until December last, in caring for the many who were sent thither from Chickamauga and the South. From hence she with four companions went to Savannah, where one of the number, a nurse from Newton, died from overwork and the deplorable conditions present. This incident was the cause of her departure and particularly to Miss Hanberry who dearly loved the brave little girl who had labored so faithfully in the hospitals.

NORTH SCRANTON NEWS.

Frank Stonder Bitten by a Monkey. Funeral of Mrs. E. E. Corwin. Other Pithy Paragraphs and Personalities.

Frank Stonder, of Chinchilla, met with a painful accident Saturday forenoon. One of his neighbors has a large African monkey and Mr. Stonder was holding it by a chain which was connected to the collar around the animal's neck, while its owner went to another part of the house. The monkey wished to follow its master but Mr. Stonder wouldn't liberate it. The best spring for him, unfortunately, was a cactus which was in his left leg. His injuries were dressed by Dr. Rothman.

DISTURBERS ARRESTED.

John Kelley, Joseph Quinn, John Bureloski and George Bureloski were arrested yesterday for being drunk and disorderly and insulting ladies. Patrolman W. W. Thomsen, who kept in mind that they should have a great desire and thought for their spiritual welfare. "No man's soul is satisfied until it has a clear title to eternal life. No man is ever satisfied with his own conscience. It is easy for us to take possession of our salvation when we think of ourselves as moral and upright and spend our time in seeing the defects of persons round about us. The soul of a man is never made to be satisfied with the things of this life. There is always an inner yearning for something above all, something this world cannot give. The most marvelous thing in the world is the infinite love of God for poor finite man. It is unthinkable. It is easy to hate, but God comes down and pierces the heart with love and says: 'One thing thou lackest. Follow Me.' Christ set forth all that was true and needful for every soul. No man through all the centuries ever dared to say that he had come to Christ seeking what the world could not give and had not obtained complete satisfaction. REFERRED TO INGERSOLL.

PITY PARAGRAPHS.

The funeral of Mrs. E. E. Corwin was held from her late home on Williams street yesterday afternoon. Rev. William Edgar, of the Providence Congregational church, West Market street, held an echo meeting of the convalescent, held in Detroit last week. The meeting will be under the directorship of Miss Margaret Williams and will be very interesting.

EXPECTED TO REMAIN.

Miss Hanberry had expected to remain in Clontarf, during the rainy season, but she has decided to stay in the barracks where it was anticipated the conditions would be more favorable, but the surgeon-major began drilling the hospital corps more assiduously and although protests were received from the ranks and the general sentiment existing among the under surgeons of the army prevailed in the department at Washington and the women were ordered to leave Clontarf and Santiago and be ready for duty elsewhere. A number were sent to San Francisco to enter the army and navy hospitals and care for the sick returning from Manila, but, greatly to her disappointment, Miss Hanberry was retained in the east and was detailed at Fort Hamilton, where she has been for several weeks since her return from Cuba and has done much service. At present she is in Scranton, where she has a desire to establish the "Hour Nursing" system which has been so successful in New York. It is for the purpose of giving people unable to afford the heavy expense of a trained nurse by the week the privilege of having one come into their home daily, or as often as is necessary at a reasonable rate. For instance, two visits of an hour each will be made daily for $10 a week, or the price may be regulated by the week. A number of prominent physicians and surgeons of the city are disposed to lend their recommendation to the plan.

A Happy Mother's Gratitude

LETTER TO MR. FISHERM NO. 24, 753

"DEAR MR. FISHERM—I have many, many thanks to give you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. After first confinement I was sick for nine years with prolapsus of the womb, had pain in left side, in small of back, a great deal of headache, palpitation of heart and leucorrhoea. I felt so weak and tired that I could not do my work. I became pregnant again and took your Compound all through, and now have a sweet baby girl. I never before had such an easy time during labor, and I feel it was due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now able to do my work and feel better than I have for years. I cannot thank you enough."—Miss Ed. ELLINGER, DEVINE, TEX.

Wonderfully Strengthened.

"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, Blood Purifier and Liver Pills and feel wonderfully strengthened. Before using your remedies I was in a terrible state; felt like fainting every little while. I thought I was surely dying. But now, thanks to your remedies, those feelings are all gone."—Mrs. ELLIE SCHNEIDER, 1244 HELEN AVE., DETROIT MICH.

HOW MANY OF THEM?

"How many rich young men of today have thoughts of eternal life? How many of them are coming to Him with the question, 'What lack I yet?' The percentage is unfortunately very small. The rich young men and all the young men of this country should consider this young man as a lesson in mind that they should have a great desire and thought for their spiritual welfare. "No man's soul is satisfied until it has a clear title to eternal life. No man is ever satisfied with his own conscience. It is easy for us to take possession of our salvation when we think of ourselves as moral and upright and spend our time in seeing the defects of persons round about us. CONTAINED IN THE DISCOURSE OF REV. J. B. WORRALL, D. D.

He Occupied the Pulpit of the Green Ridge Presbyterian Church Last Night in the Place of the Pastor, Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D.—He Took for His Text the Words of the Young Man Recorded by Matthew, "What Lack I Yet" and the Lord's Reply. Rev. J. B. Worrall, D. D., of Pullman, Ill., preached an eloquent and thoughtful sermon last evening in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, where he is filling the place of the pastor, Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., who is away on his summer vacation. He took for his text the question asked Christ by a young man recorded in Matthew, 19 chapter 21, "What Lack I Yet?" and the reply of our Lord, "One thing thou lackest; go thy way, sell whatever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come take up thy cross and follow me." Mr. Worrall spoke in part as follows: "This young man came to the Saviour and asked what he should do to obtain eternal life. What a beautiful character he must have been, young, full of buoyancy and hope. He was a young man of wealth. Wealth is always delightful and the possessor of it always enjoys many advantages. But this young man had greater and brighter thoughts of something beyond mere material wealth.

CORNER STONE WAS LAID.

Many Scrantonnians Attended Ceremony at Pleasant Mount.

Dr. Rev. Bishop Hoban yesterday laid the corner stone of St. James Catholic church at Pleasant Mount, at which Rev. J. J. Henley is pastor. Rev. J. J. Loughran, of the cathedral, accompanied the bishop and assisted in the ceremony. A special train was run from this city over the Ontario and West-on road to accommodate the friends of Rev. Father Henley, who wished to attend. Many took advantage of it and had a very pleasant day. The Pleasant Mount people met them at the station with carriage and also provided dinner for them in the basement of the church when the services were concluded. The return trip was made in the evening reaching here at 7 o'clock. Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy—O. M. congregations in the present day is that they don't like the preacher to talk on subjects that appeal to their consciences. No man can follow Christ who is not willing to forsake all and follow Him. "If rich, how are you spending your wealth? Are you trying to keep on the top of the social wave? How few understand the awful dangers of wealth. Too many dash in boldly with the simple desire of accumulating vast riches. "Follow me." These were two tremendous words when uttered by Christ. He left the glory of heaven and came down on earth to battle for men. Let us follow him in the true sense of the word and be ready to give up all possessions of this earth if necessary."
