DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

HOME OF PATRICK LARKIN DE-STROYED BY FIRE.

It Started at 3 O'clock Yesterday Morning and the Building Was Burned to the Ground-Officer Patrick Kays, Who Was Shot Three Weeks Ago, Has Again Reported for Duty-Kissing Bug Is on Exhibition at Jones' Milk Depot. Personal Notes.

Fire which started in an unknown manner destroyed the home and contents of Patrick Larkin, of East Drinker street, Sport Hill, about 3 Spencer street, o'clock yesterrday morning.

The fire was first discovered by Preston Smith, engineer at the Dunmore Electric Light plant, situated a fet blocks away, who immediately sounded an alarm for fire for that district from the gong at the plant. This brought the every ready Independents upon the scene, but they were hindered in rendering good services on account of the poor water supply, and as a consequence the house, which was a two story frame dwelling, burned to the ground

The action of Permanent Man John Van Horn in getting his team ready and going to a fire without an alarm being sounded from an alarm box is receiving much favorable comment. He covered the distance, one mile and a haif, inside of five minutes. This is remarkable, as it was all uphill. Mr. Larkin's loss is partially covered by

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Bauer's and Lawrence's bands services have been secured to furnish music for the joint excursion of the Junior Order United American Mechanics at Lake Ariel, Aug. 18. This arrangement and thoughtfulness of the committee is receiving much favorable comment, as it is suitable to both young and old. It will enable those who destre to dance a chance to do so. while the older people will have pleastire in listening to a concert. Many other features are being prepared for the comfort of the public which will make the day a memorable one.

A "kissing bug" is on exhibition in the window of Jones' milk depot. The bug was caught in Green Ridge and was secured by Mr. Jones. All day yesterday large crowds were attracted to the spot to see the foreigner. It will be left in the window for several

ROMANCE AND COURTSHIP ENDS IN MARRIAGE.

Caroline Lorenz United to Herman Schmidt After a Brief Acquaintance-Professor Rees R. Lloyd, of Cakland, Cal., Formerly Worked in the Mines-Interesting Career of a Former Scrantonian-James Murtha Arrested-Deaths and Funerals Recorded-Other Matters.

Herman Schmidt, of New York, and Caroline Lorenz, of this city, were mited in marriage on Friday last. The ment of their wedding is only he final of a comance which has many nteresting features.

Miss Lorenz, who has for the past even years been employed as a cook at Philip Schnell's hotel on West Lackawanna avenue, is a beautiful girl, and Saturday evening, it being the occasion has had many admirers since she became attached to Mr. Schnell's house and music after which refreshments hold, but it remained for Mr. Schmidt to win her for his bride,

The romance becomes doubly interesting from the fact that Herman had never seen the fair Caroline until he came to this city last week. A corespondence had been carried on between the couple for several months, and when the groom arrived in the city, he procured a marriage license.

Who performed the ceremony could not be learned, but the fact that they are married is vouched for by Mr. Schnell himself. After the ceremony the bride returned to the hotel and the hour being late, the house locked, and no one around save the patrolman on that beat, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt resolved to spend their honeymoon ou the front steps of the hotel.

Now the patrolman was not aware that the couple had been married and also locked out, and threatened the groom with arrest, but when an explanation was made, the young people ere undisturbed, and held the fort street, is viisting at Paupack.
Mrs. Frank Depue, of New York until the doors were opened.

When Mr. and Mrs. Schnell were aprised of the circumstances connected with the case, all was forgiven and a reception was in order. The couple vere received with open arms and served with a wedding breakfast. After few days visit with friends in the ity, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt will leave or New York, where the gentleman holds a responsible position in a wellknown hostelry.

FROM MINES TO PULPIT.

Professor Rees R. Lloyd, who occu ied the pulpit of the Tabernacle Congregational church last evening, was miner in the Sloan shaft over twenty cars ago, but by diligent study and great perseverance, has risen to one of the foremost positions in the educational world. He is now the professor of New Testament Greek in the Pacific Cheological seminary, Oakland, Cal.

Mr. Lloyd is the son of Reese W. Lloyd, of 544 North Bromley avenue, and is now 44 years of age. years ago he left the mines and spent ve years at Marietta college, Ohio, rom there he went to the Chicago Pheological seminary, where he studed for three years. He then became pastor of a church at Streator, Ill., and during his two years' service there, ook a post-graduate course at the Chicago seminary. Four years of his

the Master in the city of Chicago. For nearly seven years Professor Lloyd has occupied his present position, and is also the pastor of the Mills Colege church in Oakland. His wife is the daughter of Mrs. Evan P. Davis, now of Washington, D. C., who resides in the capital city with her son, Fred L. Davis, a proofreader in the specification department of the government printing office, well known in this city. Mrs. John Edinger, of South Hyde ark avenue, is a sister-in-law of Prossor Lloyd. The gentleman is at resent the guest of his father, with hom he will remain for a few days. At the Tabernacle church, Rev. Lloyd preached a powerful sermon from John,

11, taking for his thought "The incarnation—a mystery, a revelation and a prophecy." At the after-meeting many old acquaintances were renewed and words of welcome spoken by several embers of the church

IMPORTANT LAND SALE.

The purchase of the Round woods and adjacent lands by W. W. Watson, esq., representing a number of gentle-men, is one of the greatest land deals ever made in this section and in importance to the West Side greater than any that has preceded it, because it indicates a new policy on the part of the Telaware, Lackawanna and Western company, relative to its thousands of acres of vacant lands, which will ow he put on the market. SOUTH SCRANTON NOTES. Rev. G. Gurnherdt Preached at the

Presbyterian Church Yesterday-Other News Items of Interest.

Rev. G. Gurnherdt, of Orange, N. J., coupled the pulpit at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church yesterday morning. His sermon was replete with eloquence and strong religious arguments. He took for his text "The gospel as a message enumerating the different points of service in which the gospel acts." In a comparison of Ingersoll's argument with those who have faith, the speaker noted the several defects in the argument of the agnostic. He also revealed the belief of the Spiritualists and the many faults of their argument. In closing he referred to the gospet as accepted by all and argued that those who refuse to accept t are not living according to the dic tates of their conscience. Rev. Mr. Gurnherdt will preach at the Fresbyterian church in Petersburg next Sunday evening. He will be the guest of Rev. Mr. Nordt antil Aug. 2, uen he will return to his home.
