THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY, JULY 31, 1899.

THE CONSPICUOUS THEY REFERRED TO The Sign in Such was the great comets of 1858 and WOMEN OF BIBLE time I have thought of writing to you Perry Bros' Window COLONEL INGERSOLL 1869. Their end is dissipation, destructo let you know of the great benefit I tion, a fading away from sight-lost have received forever. So there appears at times SIXTH SERMON OF THE SERIES from the use of LESSON DRAWN FROM LIFE OF Mrs. Johnson men who convulse the world with their Lydia E. Pink-WAS HEARD LAST NIGHT. 12791/2 Pieces of Old Fiddles theories and who seem to be bent o THE GREAT AGNOSTIC. Saved from ham's Vegetathe destruction of all former modes o ble Compound. Made This Fine Violin, Insanity by thought, and especially is this true in the realm of infidelity. Take for ex-Soon after the It Was Delivered by Rev. William In the Penn Avenue Baptist Church Mrs. Pinkham ample such men as Julian, Voltaire birth of my first Edgar in the Providence Methodist Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce Took for Hume, Paine and Ingersoll. All have come to naught. But while the Comchild, I com-Excites considerable curiosity. Episcopal Church - His Subject menced to have spells with my spine. His Topic "The Passing of an Ints fade, the Stars of God shine on, as Many heated arguments take place Every month I grew worse and at last Was "A Woman Who Was Deterfidel or the Skeptic's God and he Bible shines, with undimmed lusover that one-half piece. Figure became so bad that I found I was re, shedding their light and eternal mined to Know the Truth"-Les-Mine"-Rev. E. A. Boyl Spoke on gradually losing my mind. it out yourself, and while you're dessings as the promised of God." "The doctors treated me for female sons He Drew from Contemplation "Why I Am Not an Infidel"-Refiguring if you have a fine old vio-CHANCES OF INGERSOLL. troubles, but I got no better. One of Her Character and Their Every marks of Rev. S. F. Mathew and Speaking of the character of Ingerlin, guitar, mandolin or any other doctor told me that I would be insane. Rev. Mathews said that he was Day Application. Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D. I was advised by a friend to give Lydia instrument that needs repairing, all that could be desired as a father E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a husband, brother and friend. As bear in mind that we do that kind trial, and before I had taken all of the Rev. William Edgar, pastor of th man, in relation to morals, he was worthy of commendation, and as a The Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, pasin the best manner possible. No first bottle my neighbors noticed the rovidence Methodist Episcopal church tor of the Penn avenue Baptist church, preached an intensely interesting serlast evening delivered the sixth seritizen he was irreproachable. As an change in me. cheap work done. mon of a series on "Conspicuous Wo-"I have now taken five bottles and mon last evening, taking as his topic numanitarian, in the sense of a bene-"The Passing of an Infidel or the Skeptic's God and Mine." This was factor, he served the best interests of cannot find words sufficient to praise it. men of the Bible." It was an instructhumanity. But what made him i ive and helpful discourse. I advise every woman who is suffering Hats, Perry Brothers On previous Sunday evenings Mr. the last sermon preached by Mr. Pierce blessing at home, was the very oppofrom any female weakness to give it a prior to his annual vacation so that a vey large gathering was present. He Edgar has preached on the following site to the outside world. fair trial. I thank you for your good subjects: "A Heathen Woman's Wise Choice," "A Wicked Woman," "A "He had a right to his opinions; medicine."-MRS. GERTRUDE M. JOHNleaves on Friday of this week for Ocean Grove where he will spend the right to make money out of them and BON, JONESBORO, TEXAS. 205 Wyoming Ave. Patriotic Woman," "A Benevolent Wobargain for the most that his talents man" and "A Woman Who Disobeyed Orders." The speaker announced that the sermon of last evening would be could give, and the world had a right next four weeks. Mrs. Perkins' Letter. Two texts were chosen: "He that is to measure, weigh and examine him "I had female trouble of all kinds, not with me is against me and he that and pass its, verdict on him," continued AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHY had three doctors, but only grew worse. the speaker, "The world has passed gathereth not with me scattereth the last of the series. His subject was began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's abroad. The fool said in his heart "There is no God"" Mr. Pierce spoke its verdict, and that verdict was and "A Woman Who Was Determined to Depends largely upon the Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills The text chosen is the same that Belshassar won. In-Know the Truth." supplies. The right kind gersoll had many admirable talents, and used the Sapative Wash, and canwas I King, x 1, In part as follows; "The term fool is not used in the and he was gifted, not of himself, but In beginning the sermion the speaker

He

KEMP'S, Wyoming Avenue DR. H. B. WARE,

Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Cfilce Hours -9 a.m. to 12.30 p.m; 2 to 4. Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice

ANNIVERSARY TONIGHT-There will be an aniversary service at the Rescu mission tonight

PICKED UP YESTERDAY .- James Walsh was arrested yesterday afternoon Constable Mitchell for being drunk and begging.

DONATIONS FOR HOME .- The mana. gers of the Home for the Friendless gratefully acknowledge cash donations. Mrs. Charles Chandler, $5; Mrs. A. M. Schroeder, $6.

LARGE WINDOW BROKEN .- A large plate glass window was broken late Fri-day night in the building of C. P. Matthews at 31 Lackawanna avenue, is no clue as to who did the deed. There

BAND CONCERT TONIGHT.-Bauer's band will give an open air concert this evening at 7.30 o'clock in front of Jack Skelly's "Bon Ton" cafe on Penn ave-A very attractive programme has been prepared.

AT THE CLEARING HOUSE.-Follow. ing were the exchanges at the Scranton Clearing house last week: Monday, $226,-Tuesday, $225,819.34; Wednerday, 007; Thursday, $171,386.41; Friday, 100:44:

apparently. The world is in danger, then a fading away into nothingnes

Scriptures as an expression of derision, higher power, and yet he prostituted those talents by becoming a blasrather has a meaning denoting tenerness and pity for a life misguided. The present age is the most intense phemer against the very one that made him and so richly endowed him. ra in the world's history. Good and made money out of it, clearing $50,000 evil are arrayed in contest as they have from one lecture alone.

never been before. The surging tides "And yet he reviled the ministry fo of opposition have lashed for centuries taking a simple living out of the gosand are still lashing against the church pel of God, whose mission was to heal of God, but she stands as firm as Gibup the broken-hearted, preach deliverance to the captive, and restore sight ralter.

"Infidelity is primarily a disbelief to the blind. Ingersoll's mission was in the existence of a God, but infidels just the opposite. He was smart, his have ado, ted a smoother term, agnosadmirers say, and while that is adticism, which means, I do not know. mitted in the general acceptation of the There are many phases of this doctrine term, he was too smart a man to beand there is no question but that it is lieve what he sought to make money rampant in the world today. There out of. are those who claim they have hones INGERSOLL KNEW.

convictions that Christ is a myth, but "He knew as well as any man in who have made merchandise of their America that there was a God: he was claims by means of the printed page no more of an agnostic than I am. If he didn't believe in Christianity, all and the lecture platform.

vell and good; it was not his fault, for he was not a scholar. "I would seek the most devoted fol-"A simple academic or collegiate ower of infidelity. I would not critiducation does not make the scholar, tize the man but the principal. The It takes education of the higher kind, xpounder of infidelity may charm students of which there are but a few, great audiences, he may be a dignified omparatively speaking, and these are and polished gentleman, he may be a the ones that, having gained, accept the Bible as the highest and best in any a kind father and a faithful friend, but the same polished gentleman may cholarship. These were such men as Judge Marshall, Daniel Webster, be misguided in his judgment, he may Agasiz, Gladstone, Joseph Cook and be unwise in his discussion. "Infidels have formulated many thers of like learning and wisdom Ingersoil was only the jester and the wit of infidel literature, and can be ompared to the political and social arienturists of today. There is not a single argument or fact that he gave birth to that was in our dealings with our fellowmen it is sweet to love the home and the not uttered by some one else before family, but what are these beautiful him-some other infidel. He only used theories but the reflection of a true and the stale arguments of his class, but noble Christian life. Morality's repainted them up and reclothed them, and gave them forth in dazzling rhetwards, as far as morality alone is concerned, stop at the grave. There oric to amuse the crowd. His influen no moral principle that cannot be though, was wide and deep, and dreadful when we measure it by its results. The infidel attacks the faith of oth-It underlies the past of this generation, ers and destroys their hope. He plays and it is dying now and will be dead in thirty years. IT ADMITTED NOTHING.

and womanhood-words, sweetly

"Was this man Ingersell wholly at fault" The blame can be shared by his father, a ministerial free thinker.

who can be likened unto the old adage

'the father ate sour grapes and the Heredity, therefore, is a warning to a in the heart of every infidel there is a shrinking from his own teaching 'But the homes that have felt its In the calm, ouiet hours he turns away ffects none but God can number. His from black despair and utter hopeless utidelity in its presentation was pro-

ILETTER TO MAS. FINRHAM NO. 03.2841 "DEAR MES. PINEHAM-For some not praise your remedies enough."-MRS. EFFIE PERRINS, PEARL, LA.

of civilization, and stay the causes of the world's wretchedness.

Arabia?

it any cost

and.

did

ownerenturies!

trite heart.

King.

Men can find Him in Scranton.

tely more than we give.

RELIGIOUS NEWS NOTES.

the old world.

great. No price was too high.

quently did with the king of Israel

the asked him puzzling and hard ques tions. The king was able to answe hem all to her complete satisfaction.

HALF WAS NOT TOLD.

After this Solomon showed her the

"Mr. Ingersoll also believed that life never idle; it is always working, As it works in the healthy child, and he or she puts on new forms of beauty until maturity is reached. There Red gen! life and strength and zeal to acomplish all we undertake; and each work will increase in its beauty and perfection as it comes to its compleion. We would do well in the lan guage of Mr. Ingersoll: "To love justice, to long for the right, to love mercy, to assist the weak, to forge wrongs and remember benefits; to love the truth, etc."

"The Hon. William Connell, who: anguage is here opportune. said Our experience needs to be vast as posable, and our thought, by constant reference to that, needs to be keel within the bounds of truth." Thus we teep within the bounds of truth when speaking of Mr. Ingersoll as having een, in many particulars, a beautiful ersonality.

WHY HE IS NOT AN INFIDEL.

Rev. E. A. Boyl's Discourse in Plymouth Congregational Church.

Rev. E. A. Boyl, the pastor of the Nymouth Congregational church, gave als views at last evening's service on the subject, "Why I am Not an Infliel." His sermon was based on the recent death of Robert Ingersoff, and during the course of his remarks the speaker said that while the death of the famous man was to be respected. the days of curses have gone out and the days of blessings come in. It takes the power of good away from e masses and gives nothing in reurn. Infidelity is unscientific, because ve know God and we av+ conscious of His existence. Without consciousness ve have no ground to work out anything. Cod is a mystery, and a mystery must in partly revealed and partly hidden. Spiritual life is certain, and to leave this out is unphilosophical. sights of the city and vicinity. Man would be nothing but an animal howed her the magnificent palaces will be closed, the pastor being away on a much needed vacation. The subject, "A Study of the Human Heart" was ably discussed by Rev. W. J. Ford, at the Green Ridge Baptist church Ford's topic at the evening service.

"Counting Our Days" was the subject of the sermon preached by Rev. George E. Guild yesterday morning at the Provi-dence Presbyterian church. A special

Davidow Bros

227 Lackawanna Ava.

Closing Out

The Buell Company has placed their Photographic Supplies for sale wanna avenue, in which we have a large selection to give away as samples. Everybody that has a Kokak is welcome to call and will $157,159,67 1.899.07; Saturday, $120,156.10; total, $1, 078.010.42.

FORMER SCRANTONIAN INJURED. Arthur Martin, formerly of this city, Was informed at Kansus City recently. He was engaged in placing a large boller for the Belt Zine Mining company, for which firm employed. The injuries will not prove faint GIRL HAS DISAPPEARED -Jennie Stone, of 195 Summit avenue. North Scranton, left her home Friday afternoon and her not been seer since. Her sud-den disappearance has caused much comment in that community. She is but to years of age.

BEFORE ALDERMAN KASSON. Maria Attonia Corno and Edward Pos-ten, were arraigned before Alderman Kasson Saturday on the charges of as Geneill and battery preferred by Celia Geneill and John Raynor, respectively. The defendants were held in $29 bail

CREATING A DISTURBANCE. - A young man who refused to give his name, but who appeared to be a Swede, was ar, restod last night by Sergeant R. G. Jones and Patrolinan Goerlitz for creating a deal of tolerance in the church. There are those who have no use for those sisted arrest and was only landed in the who are not in the particular regiment station house after a struggle

TIMELY INSURANCE FIGURES.

Nearly a Billion Dollars in Life Insurance in Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, July 30. - The annual report of the insurance department for the year ended Dec. 31, 1998, shows that the companies of Pennsylvania issued, during the period covered by the report, 65,059 policies insuring $17,260,013 upon the lives of residents of this Companies of other states isstate. sued 459,717 policies in Pennsylvania, insuring $141,177,458. The total losses paid by all life companies in this state during 1898 was $9,940,577,46, of which home companies paid $1,205,263.14.

The insurance in force at the end of 1898 upon lives of residents of Pennsylvania, including industrial policies of small amounts, aggregated 1,768,001 policles, insuring $765,700,565.

path in life more easy." TWO ELECTROCUTIONS TODAY.

Tullerson and McDonough Go to the Electrical Chair at Sing Sing. New York, July 30 .- Louis Tullerson and Michael McDonald will go to the electrical chair at Sing Sing tomorrow morning.

Both men rested quietly today and were visited by Father Creedon, of Sing Sing, and by two Sisters of Mercy. The men appear to have made up their minds to face the execution with fortitude and there does not appear to be any danger that either will break down.

Tullerson, who is a colored man, was convicted of killing his common law wife in New York by choking her to McDonald shot and killed death. Etephen Titus in New York on May 4, Murderer Has but One Leg. Greensburg, Pa., July 30.-George Mc-Cune was murdered at Grays, Westmore-land county, this atternoon. He was shot in the head by a man named Saddler. From the sun, r The assusin escaped. As he has but heat and light, one leg he will be at a disadvantage in quil and serene. actting away from the officers.

'Have pity for the loved ones who sit y his ashes, sad at heart. He has robbed even the dearest treasures of his life, robbed them of the comfort of hope. What is the result of his life passing like a flaming meteor before the world" There is not one home made happier, there is no one from whom the burdens that bear heavily upon them have been lifted. Tonight would say 'O, my God, let me not North live a life like that. Let me live to put hope in some heart, let me live to help some one in sorrow endure their suf ferings as I wipe the tears away. Let me live so that when I die I may have lived for a better purpose, not that I

MISGUIDED JUDGMENT.

distinguished lawyer, a gifted orator beautiful theories. I like the personal creed one had adopted. It is beauti-ful to love the chaste, it is beautiful to be kind and patriotic and honest as carelessly with other men's souls

as a child does with a toy. Down deep found in Christianity.

may have lived, but that the Christ in me may have fived for others."

THE CHURCH NOT PERFECT. "There may be much in the church that is imperfect. There is perhaps ng.

dl. It has pleased God to end this life in His own way, and to make his own much that fosters disbelief. There is a death and home experience its own great deal of singing what we don't mmentation on the folly of ignoring mean. There are men often standing in the pulpit whose lives are impure God. It was the most pathetic seen: and story in the whole round of earth's and wicked. There is also a great deal of tolerance in the church. There tragedy. His life ended in an instant: all that he was to those in manhood. fatherhood and friend became a grushing weight. For in that home there of God's army that they belong to. Let us all be true and patriotic and was no God, no hope: many flowers let us have more tolerance. Let the but no praver. There was a seeking for comething question be, 'are you seeking to make one better? If the answer comes at the funeral that only the Christian 'yes,' let us stand shoulder to shoulder can express. No shered hymns like "Nearer My God to These." There was in an effort to help uplift the world. one wreath that came from a wand-r "While there are many things in the church that may not be right there are ing, eccentric preacher with the in-far more that are holy, noble, pure and acription 'trust in God.' What a satuplifting. There is nothing so uplift-tooken words.

ing as the church of the living Christ, "God has given in His ewn almighty What does infidelity give in place way the antidate to the poison known as "Ingersolism." It is in the death the church? Nothing, What does and burial of the man himself. give us in place of the Bible? Nothwas in direct contrast with the pass-Infidelity's great mission seems be to tear down. In England, where ing away of every believer in God, the skepticism prevails one man out of every eleven is either a criminal, lun-Bible and Christ the world over.?

> AT NAY AUG PARK. Remarks of Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D.,

ism is a military boast and virtue is on Ingersoli. Rev. H. A. Grant, B. D., delivered manity and holds forth to us the outan address yesterday at 3 p. m. at stretched hand of benevotence. Let us Nay Aug park on the late Robert G. Ingersoll. In part he said: take that hand and we will find our "To consider the great agnostic in

The following is a list of the clergythe abstract, that is, apart from his nen who will preach at the Penn ave nue Baptist church for the coming four Sundays in their respective or-der: Rev. S. B. Meeser, Worcester, Mass.; Rev. Dr. Harris, president of Bucknell university; Rev. G. M. Ev-ans, Long Island City; Rev. Dr. Brougher, Paterson, N. J. 134-5-36

A COMET AND ITS LESSON.

drunkard or pauper. In France.

where infidelity has run riot, patriot-dead. Christianity comes to us clothed in the white garments of true hu-

Rev. S. F. Mathews' Sermon in the First Baptist Church. the erv of human sorrow.

Rev. S. F. Mathews, pastor of the First Haptist church, took for his theme heart of pauperism by a kind word. at the morning service yesterday "The Death of a Comet and its Les-He changes a brothel into a beautiful son," referring to the passing of Ro-bert Ingersoll. His text was based on home by rescuing the fallen. Happy Proverbs xiv:12, "There is away that cemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." He coming dissolution. ikened ingersoll to a comet and said, "In the generally accepted order of things the heavens give us no fear. it is a scone of beauty and beneficence.

derous wheels of social vice that are crushing both the bodies and souls of From the sun, moon and stars we get men at every revolution, not only to heat and light, all of which is tranuil and serene. "A comet approaches, a terrible sight congines of death from the highways .

ind, but it admitted nothing. Its exthe spiritun! Infidelity is unnatural, because pression was his culogy over his own mn is at his best when he is abso rother's coffin, over Mrs. Marshall' lutely self-forgetful. If every in ื d child at Washington, a hopeless death. would be so he would recognize God. a hopeless grave, a hopeless future Where was the secret of his power' It has one hope, however, it is the gospet of suicide. The infidel bases his In the very gifts that God gave him cason on something he does not know (the God that he blasphemed) in his and reasons on to insanity or suilide. oratory, in its beauty, sweetness, rich-The doctrine of infidelity is far behind ness, delicacy, wit and geniality. And the times; there are no net) ideas adthose who listened were seduced by vanced, and it is better to be a poor words, as millions have been seduced Christian than the best infidel. from virtue, integrity, honor, manhood

There is nothing but degradation before infidelity and there is everything elevating and honorable in Christianity.

· · · · COMMITTEE TO GREET TENTH.

children's teeth were set on edge." It Is Now on Its Way to the Pacific Slope.

> Chicago, July 30 .- A committee of prominent Pennsylvania politidians. officials, newspaper and railroad men traveling in a special coach passed rough Chicago tonight en route for the Pacific coast to welcome home the ments on the Kingship of Jesus Christ, Tenth Pennsylvania volunteers which expected to arrive in San Francisco the speaker asked: "What have men heard about this King of Kings" We rom Manila August 5 to 6. The comgive a few of his answers: mittee carries a fund of $50,000 raised They have heard not only that He citizens of western Pennsylvania has phenomenal wisdom, but He can with which to bring the Tenth home and prepare a welcome for the return-Import supernatural wisdom to others. They have heard of His unlimited ng solifiers. Resides the citizens' fund of $50,000.

 Pennsylvania ratirond subscribed true and endearing riches" to all who 25,000. The particular feature of this trust in him. rip of welcome and excort ties in the plans already perfected for paying off the members of the regiment while on their way home and at # same that providing them with the mustering ut parars By special arrangement with the way department there will be a pay car at-tached to each of the military trains ruly sorry for past offenses.

that pulis out of San Francisco and in ach pay car will be the paymaster and vernment officials who will give the differs and men their pay and dis-Over $200,000 will be harge papers. distributed in this manney.

MEN AND BLOODHOUNDS.

They Are on the Trail of Nellie Berger's Abductor.

agnosticism we will reach the con-Rochester, Ind., July 30 .- Three hunclusion that he was a beautiful person dred men with bloodhounds have surrounded 400 acres of timber eight miles ality of the home, the brotherhood of man, philanthrophy, love of country from this place in an effort to catch a and pure politics. Robert G. Ingersoll man who got Nellie Berger to leave believed that the world is dying for love. Hearts are aching for forgiveher home with him several days ago is a personal work. Each one must on pretense of employing her on a Wounds are pleading for sym-

A young woman supposed to be Miss at a time. This queen presented Solopathy. Wicked men are longing for kind words. The heathens are crying Berger and a man were seen by some for help. Charity begs us to love berrypickers in the timber. omething and to open our hearts to

Our Minister to Corea.

"How beautiful is the grace of char-Horace N. Allen, United States minister ity. He lays a tribute on the cold to Korea, who arrived in this country a few days ago, went to Korea as a medial missionary in 1884, and was appointed physician to the United States legation physician to the tented States egation by General Foste. A few days after his arrival a number of prominent Koreans were wounded during a political disturb-ance in Scoul. Through the skill of Dr. the man whose sympathy is aglow

> Rev. J. B. Sweet, of Simpson Methodisthe number, Min Yong Ik, a neph the king. Prestige was thus gained for Western medical science, and for the work of missions, and the king took Dr. Allen into his confidence and made him court physician.

Try the "Joy Maker" Cigar, 5c. .. had crected for his queens. He showprogramme of music and a brief address by Mr. Guild marked the evening service ed her the costly and magnificent temple creeted for the worship of Jehovah. At the West Scranton branch of the Young Woman's Christian association Her mind was satisfied. She confessed esterday afternoon, Miss Mattie Munsen it was a true report which I heard in mine own country"-only "the half was student at Moody's Chicago Training chool, conducted a gospel meeting, which not told me." was attended by a large gathering o She presented the king with presents women. of fabulous worth. She pronounced a At St. Mark's Latheran church, Wes blessing on Solomon and his servants. At al. Borney and a morning, the pastor, Bernton, y-storday morning, the pastor, Rev. A. L. Ramer, Ph. D. preached an able sermon, his subject being "Stow-ards of Divine Treasures," His evening subject was "The Foundation of the Be-Then she returned to her distant home. The speaker discussed the question: "Did she become a Prosolyte-a believer in Jehovah." In answering this, ft ever's Faith." was said, there is not sufficient evi-

H

The parishioners of the Dunmore Meth-odist Episcopal church held largely aldence to justify the statement that she tended and interesting services yesterday Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, the pastor, preached In applying the subject it was declared that men and women have heard at the morning service on "Jesus th Bread of Life." "The Barren Fig True astonishing reports of another kingwas the topic for his evening dione greater than Solomon. He has Services at the Grace Evangelica greater glory. He has more power, He Lutheran church yesterday were off clated over by Rev. Luther H. Waring has more extensive Dominion. This other King is Jesus Christ. When He the pastor. His morning discourse was on "Discouragements, and Encourage-ments to the Christian Life." Rev. Mr was asked, "Art Thou then a King?" he replied, "To this end was I born." Waring at the evening song service gave an address on "Some of Our Best Know) Mon sometimes forget that Jesus is a King. After speaking for a few mo-

Hymns and Their Story." Rev. David Willis, D. D. a Presby terlan minister, of Oswego, N. Y. proached at the morning and evening s preached at the morning and evening ser-vices at the Elm Park church yesterday. He is an impressive speaker and was listened to with rant attention. Alfred Wooler, at the latter service sang "The Holy City," by request, Rev. Mr. Wil-lis is the guest of G. Frank Raynolds at his Quincy avenue residence. Rev. James Hughes preached last even-ies in the Predvetcring obmed. Adams venith. But not only so. He promises

ing in the Prodyterian chapel. Adams avenue. Mr. Hughes took for his thenic "The Holy Trinity." and said that it was MAKE THEM NEW CREATURES. very desirable every now and again bring some of the fundamental principi They have heard He can transform the moral of all who surrender themelves to Him. He can make them nd some of the profounder question of the Christian religion before the con-gregation. Persons always fed on milk

They have heard He will forgive all specially when diluted with water, ar the nave offended Him if they are likely to remain weak and babyish ve expect to have robust, religious live

They have heard that after He forn our churches we must give the peop trong, nurishing food. Mental grit a rives. He adopts men into a Royal fampiritual standa are not the product of the alphabet of Christiaulty. The re-iglour status of the people is a revela-ion of the kind of food they live on. flave they heard the truth? Can he King of Kings do all this? If He can He is certainly greater than olomon. Then followed an exhorta-THE WHARF OF DREAMS. tion to put the King to the test. Bo as wise and as persistent as the Que trange wares are handled on the of Sheba. You need not go on a long wharves of sleep; and difficult journey. God is a spirit Shadows of shadows pass, and many a light

Flashes a signal fire across the night; Barges depart whose volceless steersme You need not bring costly offerings of gold and precious stones. The sackeep rifices of God are a broken and a con-Their way without a star upon the deep

Come cries of incommunicable news, in conclusion the preacher said: It test the King for himself. There is no other way. He satisfies but one mind Budgets of dream dust, merchandise of SORE. Wreckage of hope and packs of ancient mon with costly presents, but he gave to her much more in return. We bring WF011g. Nepenthes gathered from a secret or little offerings to the King of strand. Kings, and He bestows upon us infin-

Pardels of heartache, burdens of old sins Luggage sent down from dim precestral Let me urge all my hearers to test the Divine power of this wonderful

And bales of faniasy from No Man's Land. -Edwin Matisham. ----

Beecham's Pills cure sick headache.

Rev. E. A. Boyl, of Plymouth Congre Smoke the Hotel Jermyn Cigar, 16c ational church, prenched bast evening of Why I Am Not an infidel."

A Card.

Explaced at simpson Methodist Episcopal church, occupied his pulpit yes-terday after a ten days' vacation. Rev. W. J. Guest, of Fleetville, supplied the pulpit of the North Main Avenue Bap, tist church yesterday at both services. Rev. G. L. Airich, pastor of the Grace Reformed Episcopal church, preached on

Fans

For this Season

New and Second-Hand Fans Cheap.

Chas. B. Scott

119 Franklin Avenue.

SUMMER RESORTS.

PENNSYLVANIA.

Elmwood Hall Elmhurst, Pa. Formerly Hotel Elmhurst.)

Open All the Year.

This hotel has been remodeled and refitte1 broughout and will open its doors June 14. for rates, etc., call on or address

DR. W. H. H. BULL ELMHURST, PA.

THE WINOLA,

An Ideal Health Resort, Beautis fully Situated with Full Lake View.

Absolutely free from malaria and mesquitace; hoating, fishing, dancing, tennis, orchestra, etc.; pure Lithia water spring; plenty of old shade, pine grove of large rees surround hotel, excellent table; ates reasonable; capacity of hou Bustrated booklet and references on apolication

C. E. FREAR, LAKE WINOLA, PA

SPRING GROVE HOUSE,

Lake Carey, Wyoming County, Pa.

Beautifully located; good fishing; boat-ing and bathing. Table unexcelled. D., L. & W. R. R. Bloomshurg division, train leaving Scranton at 12.55 p. m., makes di-rect connections via Lehgh Valley to Lake. JOHN H. JONES, Prop.

FERN HALL,

Crystal Lake -Refined Family Resort Stage leaves Carbondule for Fern Hall at 3.30 p.m. stags leaves Fern Hall for Ca-bondale at 8.30 a.m. Telephone Connec-tion: "Fern Hall," pay station.

C. E. & M. C. JOHNSON, Managers. Postoffice Address, Dundaff, Pa.

NEW JERSEY.

with the celestial fire, and from whose lips flow flames to warm and gladden the world in its chill and three of Allen several of them recovered, among "Happy the man who seizes opportunities of laying his hand on the pon-