EAGLE'S BOLD FIGHT WITH RATTLESNAKE

THRILLING ENCOUNTER DE-SCRIBED BY WHITNEY.

Like a Shooting Star the King of Birds Descends on the Loathsome Reptile, Gathers It in Its Talons and, After Shaking It Thoroughly, Lets It Drop - Other Truthful Chroniclings.

special Correspondence of The Tribune. Susquehanna, Aug. 1 .-- Tom Cannon, a Scranton sewing machine agent, a few days since, while riding along the highway near Summerville, saw a lively fight between an eagle and a rattlesnake. Cannon heard the shrill scream of an eagle, and, as he looked, it came down like a shooting star and lighted on a rattlesnake five feet long.

The eagle, with its breast thrown back, ran up to the snake and gave it a blow over the head with its wings that completely stunned it, just as it was in the act of striking him at full force. Quick as thought, the eagle then caught the snake in its talons, arose about twenty feet in the air, gave it a furious shaking and let it fall to the earth. When it lay coiled in a warlike attitude rattling and hiss-

The eagle made a second attack in the manner as before, but the snake watched its chance this time, and, when the eagle was close enough, thrust its head between his head and wing, and, with a desperate effort, wound itself around the eagle's body, and it looked for a moment as though the powerful bird must die. But, with a violent flap of his wings, he broke the deadly embrace, caught the snake, gave it a couple of perks, and threw it down again.

Twice again the eagle carried the snake in the air and dashed it to the ground, each time giving it a furious shaking. For a time then he rested, wheeling slowly around the snake, and then, making a dash, carried it for a fourth time in the air, and, when he dashed it down again, it was dead. Then he gave it a final shake, seized it in his talons, and, with a steady flight, bore it to a rock on the hillside and tore it to pieces.

A LITTLE TWISTED.

A Susquehanna minister preached on the subject, "The Railroad to Hell." A good old lady of the borough always keeps posted on the subjects of sermone, As she was preparing for church, she was asked the subject for the evening's discourse. She promptly replied: "To Hell With Railroads."

SAID TO BE A FORECAST.

People in the inner circle in county politics claim that W. T. Maxey, esq., of Forest City, will, in the coming Republican county nomination convention, receive the nomination for sheriff. The list of candidates for the office is said to have narrowed down to eight, with several outlying townships still to be heard from. And, sad to think, seven of them will be compelled to his to the mountains and gnaw a file-and
