The alderman fined the prisoner $10 and in default of payment committed her to the county jail for thirty days.

LIVERY OUTFIT STOLEN.—A liveryman, a young man, stole to Bellevue, Pa., an Adams avenue Monday morning, and escaped a horse and carriage for the day, stating he was going to drive to Waynesboro. That is the last seen of the man and the outfit. The police department was notified of the matter yesterday and will assist Mr. Belle in recovering his property.

A PART-COLORED AFFAIR.—Two young men, one colored and one white, were arrested early yesterday morning by Patrolmen Karius and Pauster. They were engaged in a quarrel on the corner of Penn avenue and Linden street. The white fellow called the colored man a name and the latter drew a knife and was about to use it when the officers interfered.

FERRER PIED THE TYPE.
Made the Scrantonian Office Look as if a Whirlwind Struck It.

H. F. Ferrer, ex-chief of the fire department, created havoc in the Scrantonian office yesterday morning.

Sunday that paper abused Ferrer in a way that was not at all pleasing to him. He went around yesterday morning to demand an explanation, and as neither Editor Little nor Associate Editor O'Toole were present, he proceeded to give vent to his wrath by overturning ten cases of type, leaving their contents strewn upon the floor. Having done this, he left the office.

PROTESTS ENTERED AGAINST BIRD MAN

BOARD OF HEALTH APPEALED TO BY PROMINENT MEN.
They Say the Noise Made by Dealer
Fox's Birds and Dogs Makes Sleep in the Vicinity of His Spruce Street Store an Impossibility.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of health was held last evening in their rooms in the city hall. The full board was present and while many matters were discussed, the principal subject considered was whether or not Fox, the birdman, should be allowed to continue in business. A delegation of prominent citizens, including Dr. D. B. Hand, Fred Godfrey and C. P. Jadin, were present to make protest against the store of Mr. Fox.

Health officer Allen started the ball rolling when he read his monthly report. In it he said that numerous complaints have come to him regarding the place in the past few months; he had made a number of visits to the store and found it clean in every way. He said that the complaints, being principally against the noise produced by the animals offered for sale, in his opinion he had no authority in the matter.

He quoted the manual by which he is guided and read the definition of a nuisance: "Anything which is dangerous to human life or health, anything that renders water unwholesome, or anything regarding the proper ventilation of buildings."

In conclusion he said that "the voices of giant roosters who begin their noisy yells at 12 p. m. and keep them up until after sunrise are far from soothing, but what can be expected of a bird with a baritone voice, compelled to practice chromatic scales. Neither do the howlings of bull dogs, Spanish hounds or beagles strike a responsive chord in the hearts of forced insomniacs."

TESTIMONY OFFERED.
The first person who testified was the housekeeper of the Rudolph, who stated that the guests of that hotel were constantly complaining of being kept awake by canine yells and rooster's cries. Proprietor Godfrey, of the Jermyn, testified in like manner. A lady living in the block next the store said that the proprietor was in the habit of taking the dogs out for exercise about 12 o'clock and that this also means a great deal of noise.

Mr. Jadin said that the tenants in the house opposite, which he is agent for, had complained to him of the noise. Several of the tenants themselves also testified in a similar strain. He said whose roosters on Penn avenue extends to the rear of the store, referred to a "little fence, thirty feet high" which he has built to keep off the odor all right but that it acts as a sounding board for the various noises. He asserted that every sleeping room in his house is provided with abundant supplies of cotton batting to be placed in the ears before retiring. He said that he has been unable to sleep all night as he should since Mr. Fox has occupied the place, since Mr. Fox has called it a "bird store" and that it should be called a "dog store," and declared the English language could not describe the terrors of the place.

The board finally decided to refer the matter to the health and sanitary officers with instructions to confer with the city collector and act under his direction.

The report of Dr. Allen called attention also to the numerous complaints received against the city water being supplied by the Providence Water company. The health and sanitary officers were directed to call the attention of the superintendent of the company to the matter. It was also decided to forward the samples of water taken from the various reservoirs to the state board of health for analysis.

FOOD INSPECTOR'S REPORT.
The report of Food Inspector Widmayer was next presented. It was as follows: Store and market inspections, 697; milk tests, factometer, 229; milk tests, Babcock, 57; average per cent, total solids, 12.23; average per cent, butter fat, 26.8. Food destroyed: Fish, 490 pounds; clams, 1,500 pounds; mushrooms, 6.97; tomatoes, 49 baskets; cucumbers, 16 baskets; pineapples, 390; cabbage, 45 barrels; milk, 22 quarts; bananas, one car.

Mr. Widmayer stated that the milk tests showed the average per cent of total solids to be less than the standard. He said that this was due to poor pasturage. He also reported that several milkmen were adding "acqua pura" to the milk and that they had been warned not to repeat the offense under penalty of exposure and fine.

The car of bananas destroyed, it seems, were destroyed in transit by a wreck and ripened. Seventy-five cars of the same shipment were destroyed last week in New York.

The report of Plumbing Inspector O'Malley was next read and approved. It showed the following: Water tests, 17; smoke tests, 13; old building inspected, 3; re-inspections, 6; visits to buildings being constructed, 5; two sets of plans approved.

The secretary's report for the month of July was next presented. The following are the figures: Actual city mortality, 137; deaths from accidents, 10; mortality from preceding years, 1895, 133; 1896, 164; 1897, 138; cases of contagious diseases, 35; deaths from contagious diseases, 7; births, 72 males, 37 females; marriages, 15.

A motion was made and carried engaging the extra man at the crematory for a period ending Sept. 8. The committee appointed to investigate the weighty question as to who shall remove the ashes from the crematory and to whom themselves the "Ash committee" reported progress. The usual bills were ordered paid, after which the board adjourned.

KANONSKI BADLY MAIMED.
He Was Foolish Enough to Play with Giant Powder.

Andrew Kanonski, of Ridge street, Archbald, was received at the Lackawanna hospital at eight o'clock yesterday morning. His right hand was shot away at the wrist and his chest and face were a mass of gashes and contusions.

He said that he had been sitting in the yard in front of his home with several of his friends on Tuesday evening. There was some giant powder in the house and one of them proposed that a stick be exploded. Kanonski says a stick was secured and that he held it in his hand while fighting it. The fuse was too short and before he could drop the powder it exploded, tearing off his hand and otherwise injuring him.

At the hospital it was found necessary to cut away quite a portion of the arm, and the wrist. His condition is not considered serious.

CHILD STARVING TO DEATH.
Three-Year-Old Margaret Allen Does Not Take Nourishment.

Margaret Allen, aged three years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Allen, of Spring Brook, is gradually starving to death. The child has not taken any nourishment since Memorial day, and her body has wasted to almost a shadow, her limbs are no larger than broom handles and her body is little less than a skeleton.

The mother is sick in bed and the eldest daughter of the family died on Saturday last. The family are sorely afflicted, and the case of the little girl is attracting widespread attention.

OPINION IN THE LALLY EQUITY CASE

HANDED DOWN YESTERDAY BY JUDGE H. M. EDWARDS.

Preliminary Injunction Is Allowed Restraining Lally from Interfering with His Daughter in Administering the Affairs of Her Mother's Estate—James Doran Is Again Admitted to Bail—Appeals Filed from the Summary Conviction Before the Mayor.

Judge H. M. Edwards yesterday handed down an opinion in the equity case of Mary Lally, executrix, against her father, John Lally. Both are residents of this city. The judge grants an injunction restraining the defendant from interfering with the plaintiff in administering the affairs of her mother's estate. The opinion is as follows:

"Bridget Lally died testate in 1892. By her last will and testament she devised her real estate to her executrix, who is her daughter, in trust for the benefit of John Lally, the defendant and husband of the deceased, during his lifetime, and, after his death, to the children.

"It is claimed on the part of the plaintiff that immediately after her mother's death, in accordance with the provisions of the will, she assumed the management of the estate, collecting the rents, paying the annual charges upon it and supporting her father, John Lally, and that she performed these obligations for several years without objection from the defendant until a few months ago, when he claimed the control of the property as tenant by curtesy.

"The defendant denies the allegation of the plaintiff and claims that he has always had the management and possession of the real estate in his own right.

"Only three witnesses were sworn in this case, the plaintiff and her sister on one side and the defendant for himself. The evidence requires but little discussion. It appears clearly that since the death of her mother the plaintiff has been in the sole possession and control of the property. The father has acquiesced in this arrangement for about seven years. He is now estopped from asserting any right that he might have had as against his wife's will.

"Considering some circumstances disclosed by the evidence concerning which it is not necessary to particularize I am satisfied that the continuance of the arrangement provided by the will is more beneficial to the defendant than if his present contention shall prevail.

"The rule for a preliminary injunction is directed to issue as prayed for in the plaintiff's bill, to be continued until the further order of the court, plaintiff to give bond in the sum of $200."

Post Will Not Be Withdrawn.
Editor of the Tribune:
Sir: In a report last Monday evening in Grace church, as published in your valuable paper, you stated that the "Volunteers" may be withdrawn from this city.

As the impression seems to have gone abroad that we are on the point of leaving here, would you kindly tell the citizens of Scranton through your columns, that Col. Keopel decided before leaving not to remove us but to send us reinforcements and we firmly believe that a good work will yet be accomplished here with God's help.

General and Mrs. Booth, who, by the way, expect to visit Scranton this fall, are very much averse to closing this post, as they have hundreds of friends here whom they believe will rally to our assistance when they are acquainted with our needs.

Allow me also to say that we have a number of kind friends here who help us by monthly, quarterly and yearly contributions to our work, and we herewith wish to express our hearty thanks for the same. Since our arrival here, we have had a number of things to contend with. On account of the prolonged strike of the building trades people who would have helped us financially, have been unable to do so, but have assured us of their assistance later on.

The changes made by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western have also affected us, living lowered our finances severely.

Seventeenth Ward Voters.
The following voters from the Seventeenth ward of this city were examined yesterday in the Langstaff election contest:

C. C. Johnson, Benjamin F. Evans, E. S. Thompson, C. D. Shumway, E. J. Hendrickson, August Kramer, J. W. Karber, John Karber, Max Smith, C. F. Jones, P. L. Sylvester, W. E. Musser, Morris Moore, David W. Evans.

John Sorto Is Charged with a Brutal Assault.
Morris Ginsberg, of 329 Raymond court, appeared before Alderman Kason on Monday last and swore out a warrant for the arrest of John Sorto, of Oak street, charging him with assault and battery and larceny.

The assault is said to have been committed on July 21. Ginsberg says that Sorto brutally beat him and injured him to such an extent that he was obliged to remain in bed for a week. He also says that Sorto took a watch from him containing goods to the value of $15.

Sorto was located in Lackawanna township yesterday morning. He was arrested and taken before Justice of the Peace O'Neil, of that place, who committed him to the county jail in default of $200 bail on each charge.
