

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

NECESSITY OF A PLAYGROUND SHOWN BY EXPERIENCE.

Lieutenant Williams interviewed on the subject and some practical suggestions made—Street Fakir cut short in his dealings—Grant Keller slightly injured—Reporter storms' narrow escape—Death of Mrs. George W. Evans—Other matters of local note.

"In looking around for public breathing places," said Lieutenant Williams to the Tribune man last evening, "the board of health should not overlook the plot of ground on Washburn street, near the air shaft, which at present is utilized as a base ball ground."

"There is scarcely a day passes," he said, "but that from two to six games of ball are played there and it practically demonstrates the necessity for a public playground for the rising generations. Complaints are received almost daily about boys playing ball in the streets and breaking windows and doing other damage, but during the two years that the young men have been permitted to use the air shaft grounds not one complaint has been heard."

"I am heartily in favor of the Round Woods for a public park," continued the lieutenant, "but I think a public playground is as great a necessity as the woods. While the latter would undoubtedly benefit hundreds of people in the lower section, the former would alleviate the sufferings of thousands in the congested districts of the Fourth and Fifth wards."

"If the Washburn street plot was purchased by the city the grounds could be fitted up for athletic purposes and benches supplied for the tired mothers and children to rest in the cool of the evening in the open air."

FAKIR CLOSED UP. Lieutenant Williams is nothing if not original. Last evening a fakir established himself at the corner of Jackson street and main avenue and prepared himself to sell out a lot of cheap pocket knives to the unsuspecting public.

Now Mr. Williams believes in protecting the merchants who pay rent and taxes for the privilege of doing business on Main avenue and considered Mr. Fakir an impostor and quietly moved him down on Scranton street alongside the Mears building.

Meantime he looked up the statute pertaining to such cases and satisfied himself that the fellow's one day license must be a dead letter. Conclude.

GEORGE W. JENKINS, For S. Main Avenue

quently he proceeded to make another investigation and found the paper was fourteen days old. Without much ceremony he put the fellow's light out and told him he couldn't "deliver the goods" in West Scranton, so the unsuspecting public was saved from the wiles of the disgraced street merchant.

CONDUCTOR SLIGHTLY INJURED.

The Scranton Railway company are having the pave relaid between the tracks at the west end of the Lackawanna avenue bridge, and the bricks used in the work are piled up alongside the track. The cars can pass without any trouble, but when passengers are standing on the steps of an open car, they come in close proximity with the bricks.

This happened on Wednesday evening, shortly after the storm, when the 6:05 Luzerne car was passing that way. The car was crowded and many passengers were standing on the steps. When the point in question was reached, John Evans, a moulder, employed at the Scranton stove works, who was standing on the step, struck his dinner pail against the bricks, and it was knocked from his hand.

Conductor Grant Keller was collecting the fares on the car near where Evans was standing and in some unexplainable manner caught his leg between Evans and the bricks, while the car was in motion. He extricated himself, however, and although he did not complain, evidently hurt himself. The car was brought to a standstill and Evans recovered his dinner pail, but the conductor only recovered his equilibrium. A portion of his trousers were left behind and leg bruised.

Yesterday, when Keller reported for duty he complained of his injury and Dispatcher Hurdon relieved him for the day. He will be around all right in a few days, and his friends will rejoice, as Mr. Keller is one of the most popular men on the line.

STORMS' NARROW ESCAPE.

Clare M. Storms, West Side correspondent of the Times, printed a story in his department yesterday about Philip McAlone, of Helise & Warnke's, taking possession of an organ-grinder's instrument in front of St. David's hall, and grinding out several musical numbers.

McAlone did not take kindly to the joke and while Storms was standing in front of the store last evening, the former made a dash at the latter, which was cleverly ducked, and before a mix-up occurred the young men were separated. Thoughts of an assault and battery case are still lingering in the reporter's mind, but up to the hour of going to press none of the West Scranton aldermen were awakened from their peaceful slumbers.

IN HONOR OF A FRIEND.

Miss Edna Evans, of South Main avenue, entertained a party of young people at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Evans, on Wednesday evening, in honor of her guest, Miss Essie Griffiths, of Aiden, Pa. The ladies were entertained at a 5 o'clock tea, and the gentlemen were the guests in the evening. Miss Evans was assisted by her cousin, Miss Laura Hughes. Those present were: Misses Laura Hughes, Catherine Price, Mary Harris, Sarah Hughes, Jennie Price, Margaret Jones, Jennie Thomas, Stella Evans, Mabel Thomas, Mary Evans, Bessie Evans, and Gertrude Morris, of Taylor; Messrs. Maurice Miller, Will P.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

Miss Margaret Van Camp, of South Sumner avenue, is visiting relatives in Montrose. Mrs. James Jeremiah, and daughter, Mrs. George T. Jones, are spending a few days at Atlantic City. Robert Bradley, of Jenkins' drug store, has returned from his vacation spent at Lake Winola. Miss Edna Williams, of South Main avenue, is summering at Lake Winola. The Misses Maude Sanders of West Elm street and Jane Jones of Locust street, are sojourning at Harvey's Lake. Mrs. Mary Davis and daughters, Lillie and Bessie, of West Pittston, spent yesterday afternoon with relatives on North Bromley avenue. Tudor Williams, of South Main avenue, has returned from New York city, where he was the guest of Arthur Hull, formerly of this city. Miss May M. Evans, of South Rebecca avenue, and Miss Bertha Powell, of North Garfield avenue, are sojourning at Harvey's Lake. Miss Margaret Powell, of Bromley avenue, is visiting friends in Boston, Mass. Joseph Anderson, of South Main avenue, left yesterday for Philadelphia, where he will visit during the next two weeks. Palmer L. Williams, of South Main avenue, has returned from a week's stay at Atlantic City. Mrs. David T. Jones, of Storms avenue, Bellevue, is the guest of relatives in Plymouth. Mrs. E. F. Davis, of South Elmire avenue, has returned home from a two months' stay at Lake Winola. Miss Lizzie Davies, of Washburn street, who has been a guest at Lake West cottage, Winola, has returned home.

The Best Remedy for Flux. Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me." For sale by all druggists. Matthews Bros., wholesale and retail agents.

PARK PLACE.

Rev. G. C. Lyman and family, of Park Place, have returned home, after a week's vacation at Lynx. Mr. Lyman preached in Tankhannock last Sunday. Mr. William Giesner and daughter, Ida, of Monsey avenue, spent Sunday at LaPlume and Lake Winola. Mr. J. E. Pritchard spent Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Albert Giesner, at LaPlume. Mr. Harry Francis, of Monsey avenue, spent Sunday at Lake Winola. Miss Hattie Post has returned home, after a few weeks' stay with her sister at Wilkes-Barre. Mrs. J. E. Kommer, of Prescott avenue, spent Tuesday with Mrs. J. S. Pritchard. The Citizens band, of Providence, furnished music for the Maxville Keg fund excursion at Lake Ariel, Wednesday. Mr. James Francis and wife, of Monsey avenue, are on a pleasure trip at Asbury Park.

DOES COFFEE AGREE WITH YOU?

If not, drink Grain-O—made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain-O I did not like it but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and gives strength. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it and you will have a delicious and beautiful beverage for old and young. 15c and 25c.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

TWO POLISH FAMILIES BEFORE ALDERMAN RUDDY.

Mrs. Kosciolk Held in $300 Bail on Charge of Being a Common Scold. She in Turn Has Her Prosecutors, Mr. and Mrs. Kosciolk Arrested. Charles Dickman, the Victim of a Peculiar Accident—Funeral of Mrs. Mary McGinnis to Be Held Today. St. Aloysius Society Meets.

Before Alderman Ruddy last night Mrs. Ludonasso Kosciolk, of 528 Locust street, was arraigned on the charge of being a common scold. Her next door neighbor, Mrs. Amelia Stamits, preferred the charge. A lengthy list of witnesses were sworn to substantiate the allegations of the prosecutrix. The alderman held the defendant in $300 bail for her appearance at court.

The conclusion of the hearing Mrs. Kosciolk's attorneys took the rest of Mrs. Stamits, charging her with being guilty of the same offense. Andrew Stamits, husband of the woman, will have to answer the charge of threatening to kill, also preferred by Mrs. Kosciolk. The hearing will take place this morning at 11 o'clock.

DIDN'T KNOW IT WAS LOADED.

Charles Dickman, of Willow street, a young man employed at Felton's gunsmith shop in the central city, sustained a peculiar accident yesterday. While engaged in repairing a gun, he was assigned to work by Dickman. While thus engaged a cartridge that was in the breach of the gun exploded. The young man received the full charge, his left hand being severely injured and burned. He was attended to by a central city physician and later taken to his home. The accident will keep Dickman from work for several weeks to come.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary McGinnis will take place from her late home on Beech street tomorrow morning. Services will be held at St. Peter's cathedral. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery. St. Aloysius Total Abstinence and Benevolent society held an interesting meeting at the pharmacy hall last night. Many of the members were present for the approaching excursion of the society to Harvey's lake were arranged. There is every indication that the affair will be a big success. DUNMORE DOINGS.

Tripp Avenue Christian Church Elects Officers—Rowdies Create a Disturbance Nightly. The members of the congregation of the Tripp Avenue Christian church held an important meeting in the church auditorium last evening. The report of the treasurer was read. This showed the financial condition to be in splendid shape. Other minor business was transacted and the election of the following officers for the ensuing year took place: Elder, Amos Washer, deacons, Joseph Gillette, J. Jolter, three years; L. L. Major, two years, and Edward Kraus, one year; deaconesses, Mrs. N. J. Robertson, Mrs. A. A. Krotzer and Mrs. Powell; trustees, Amos Washer, F. G. Swartz, three years; Mrs. N. J. Robertson, Edward Kraus, two years; J. C. Gillette, one year.

PITHY PARAGRAPHS.

A gang of rowdies make the meetings being held in the gospel tent each evening at the corner of Webster avenue and Brook street very unpleasant. This crowd collects at the gateway on the side the tent every night and do all in their power to make it uncomfortable for those taking part in the services. The ropes of the tent have been cut, also, and large stones have been thrown upon the top, which causes a great deal of annoyance. A special officer has been on the grounds the past few evenings, but has been unable to cope with the crowd. Another officer should be placed on duty there. This evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Correll, of Butler street, will be the scene of enjoyment, when Colonial council, No. 25, Daughters of America, will conduct a social. A programme different from previous occasions have been prepared for the evening's amusement and entertainment. Just what it is has not been told, as they intend making it a surprise. The members of the Presbyterian choir have been granted a three weeks absence from practice on Saturday evenings during this month, owing to the warm weather. They will meet, however, on Saturday evening, Aug. 26, for rehearsal. The choir has reached a high standing during the past six months, which is due chiefly to the manner in which the members have attended rehearsal, making special efforts to be always present. Officer Jacob Pletcher, of Harper street, who dislocated his left shoulder a week ago last evening by being caught in the foot railing of an electric car when stepping off, is still suffering greatly from the accident. Officer Pletcher is a large man and besides receiving the dislocation of the shoulder also received a serious nervous shock and between the two he will be off duty for some time. All members of Dunmore Lodge, No. 816, Independent Order of Odd Fellowship, are requested to meet in their rooms today at 1 o'clock p. m. sharp to attend the funeral of their deceased brother, Jacob Sarr, in a body. James McAllister, the 3-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister, of Sport Hill, died yesterday morning after a three weeks illness of cholera infantum. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock and interment will be made in St. Mary's cemetery. Miss Stella Sawyer, of Apple avenue, is the guest of Maplewood friends this week. Mr. and Mrs. William Kestell, of Peckville, spent the day with Mrs. Richie, of Chestnut street.
