WHITNEY'S WEEKLY BUDGET OF NEWS

REMARKABLE STORY OF MISS HARRIDAN'S LOST RING.

The Family Reunion Season—Closing Chapter of the Brandt Tragedy. Sad Case of Robert Emmet Hall. Susquehanna County News in Brief—A Faithful Dog.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.

Susquehanna, Aug. 9.—Thirteen years ago Miss Beatrice Harridan and a party of other Philadelphia young ladies spent the summer at Oquaga lake. One day, while bathing, Miss Harridan placed her diamond engagement ring in a log to prevent the water from injuring the setting.

When the party had completed their diversion the ring was missing. There was consternation in the delegation, and Miss Harridan refused to be comforted. She offered a large reward for the return of the ring, but it was never found.

Last week another party of Philadelphians and some young women from Chester visited Oquaga lake and went fishing at the place where Miss Harridan lost her ring. In crossing a meadow the party found a big snapping turtle and they carried it in triumph to the farm house where they stopped. Arriving there it was proposed that the turtle be served up in soup.

In dissecting the creature Miss Harridan's long lost engagement ring was found in its stomach. Miss Harridan has been married several years, but the ring was forwarded by the proprietor of the farm house to her present Germantown address.

SOME FAMILY REUNIONS.

The Page-Mead reunion will be held in Uniondale Aug. 25.

The descendants of James Dunn, sr., will hold their second annual reunion at Dunn Lake, Aug. 12.

The seventh annual reunion of the Hines family will be held at Hines' Corners, Wayne county, today.

The annual Tiffany-Tingley gathering will be held in the old orchard at the Freeman Tingley farm, in Harford, Aug. 15.

The reunion of the descendants of Constantine Perry will be held at the home of E. O. Perry, in Jackson, on Aug. 24.

THE BRANDT TRAGEDY.

The funeral of the three Yager children, who were murdered by their father, at Brandt, on Thursday last, took place from St. John's Catholic church, in this place, on Saturday afternoon. The remains were interred in Laurel Hill cemetery.

Charles Yager, who murdered his three children and attempted suicide, is still alive, and stands a good fighting chance for recovery. Asked if he was sorry that he committed the terrible deed, he nodded "Yes."

Many people in the little village say that Yager loved his children, and they believe he murdered them in view of his abject poverty and miserable surroundings, thinking they would be better off dead than alive.

IN SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY.

The Republican county nominating convention will be held in Montrose on Thursday.

Democratic candidates for county offices are materializing with slow and measured tread.

The Hallstead Fire company will go to Whitney's Point, on Thursday, to participate in the firemen's parade.

A. S. Waldie, esq., of Brooklyn, is a Republican candidate for county treasurer.

D. W. Wright, of Lenox, is a Republican candidate for sheriff.

The next meeting of the Susquehanna County Medical society will be held in New Milford, Oct. 3.

The Catholics of Montrose held a big picnic today in aid of the parochial residence fund. There will be an entertainment this evening.

The county teachers' institute will be commenced in Montrose Oct. 16.

The Hinckley family gathering will be held at the residence of C. M. Hinckley, in Dimock, on Saturday next.

A Susquehanna justice of the peace is a hustler for cupid. When he thinks a couple are about ready he sends them his card. The justice is quite poetical, and the beginning of one of his "made to order" charges is:

"Wilt thou have this woman for thy pard—
For better or for worse?
To have, to hail, to fondly guard,
'Till carried off in a hearse?"

EN ROUTE TO THE POOR HOUSE.

Robert Emmet Hall ("Mett McKune") erstwhile of Great Bend, a well known newspaper writer with something more than local fame, who has been an inmate of the state hospital in Binghamton, last week applied, in Elmira, for the appointment of a commission in lunacy to examine his sanity. He says he is suffering from paresis. He will probably be sent to the Chemung county poor house.

Robert is a former local preacher in the Methodist church, a school teacher of experience, and a writer of unusual ability.

LITTLE LOCALETTES.

L. S. Sutcliff, of the Oakland side, while at Hickory Grove on Sunday, was very seriously injured by a vicious horse, in a barn.

Tim Hurley left last night for New York city, where he is to fight Harry Fisher, of Brooklyn, before the Broadway Athletic club, Aug. 18.

Arthur Taylor, of Lanesboro, on Monday made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors.

The "Village Improvement Society" is evidently a winter organization.

The funeral of the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Gleason occurred on Monday, with interment in Hallstead.

An out-of-town couple have agreed to be publicly married on Main street, Sept. 6, the first day of the street fair.

The Erie Avenue restaurant firm of McMahon & Lannon has been dissolved. Mr. Lannon retiring.

Susquehanna and Lanesboro have been connected by a stone sidewalk.

Susquehanna is entertaining a number of Tribune fresh air children from New York.

The Republican caucuses in Susquehanna county were held last night.

A FAITHFUL DOG.

A few days since Mrs. Arthur Beagle and Elmer Major's little daughter went after berries near their home near Road's Creek. The little girl's dog went with them. When they arrived in the berry lot, the dog began to act in a strange manner, whining and pushing against the girl, as if to keep her from going on, but she, notwithstanding his actions, continued to advance.

Then the dog deliberately laid down and blocked the path in front of her, and, in so doing, laid upon a large rattlesnake, which fastened its fangs in his body. The woman killed the snake and carried the dog home. The faithful animal died in a few hours.

IN A LINE OR SO.

The veterans of seven counties will hold their annual reunion in Riverside Park, Lanesboro, on Wednesday next, Aug. 16.

The veterans' organization of Susquehanna county will hold its annual reunion in Riverside Park, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Aug. 17, 18 and 19.

Editor Birchard, of the Transcript, has returned from Tunkhannock, where he attended the funeral of his brother, the late William Birchard.

A six-foot rattlesnake was killed on Monday near Red Rock. The rattlesnake crop this year is large enough to supply the demand.

Keystone Hook and Ladder company enjoyed a steamer excursion last evening. Erie Hose company will follow suit on Thursday evening.

There will be a smooth time in the Republican county convention on Thursday next. The managers have greased the machinery, and the slate will slide through with neatness and dispatch. Whitney.

TUNKHANNOCK.

In the matter of the injunction obtained by the Lehigh Valley Railroad company against the Laceyville Bridge company and the Horseheads Bridge company, in which the preliminary hearing was held on Thursday and Friday last, Judge Dunham on Tuesday handed down an opinion in which he dissolved the preliminary injunction, and places the burden of erecting an overhead crossing, if such a crossing is to be erected, on the Railroad company. Work on the bridge, which was interrupted by the injunction, was resumed on Wednesday morning.

Charles E. Terry, of Wilkes-Barre, was in Tunkhannock on Wednesday.

Henry Harding, esq., was in Wyalusing on legal business yesterday.

A meeting of the local committee of the Firemen's association was held on Monday evening and business relating to the coming convention was transacted. It was decided to have 2,000 seats, consisting partly of opera chairs, brought here for the convenience of people attending the band concerts and ball games. The seats are owned by a Binghamton party and brought here at the expense of the local committee. The advertising and decorating committees were furnished with funds for their work, and the banquet committee reported arrangements completed to hold the banquet at the Keeler house, with arrangements for seventy-five guests.

Triton Hose company gave an ice cream festival at the hose house on Wednesday evening, the proceeds going to the purchase of uniforms for the company.

The Electric Light company are engaged this week in putting meters on the different lines in town. This move of the company is causing considerable dissatisfaction among the business men, and some of them are refusing to take the light on that basis and have gone back to the use of kerosene oil.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Aug. 9.—There was not much in the stock market today. The market sold off at the opening on realising and on the heavy tone imparted by sympathy with London. The market, however, was inclined to move upwards before the end of the first hour under the lead of Sugar and in sympathy with an additional rise in the Minneapolis and St. Louis stocks. Consolidated Gas was strong and American Tobacco forged upwards again, its gain reaching nearly three points and holding well near the top. Sugar weakened before the day was over, but there were enough individual stocks showing strength to maintain a pretty firm tone, notwithstanding the intense dullness for the rest of the day. Some of the gains were Duluth, South Shore and Atlantic preferred, 2½; American Linseed Oil preferred, 2¾; the United States Leather stocks, 1¼ each; Oregon Navigation, 4¼; Pacific Coast, 2, and Reading and Chicago and Eastern Illinois, 1½ each. General Electric and Colorado Fuel a point each. Atchison preferred advanced strongly in the late dealings. The call money rate was easier today under the influence of offerings from out of town sources. Total sales, 334,110 shares.

Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf firsts dropped 4 per cent. today in sympathy with the reduction of 2% in the stock. The bond market otherwise was dull. Total sales par value, $1,023,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on bid quotations.

Chicago Grain and Produce.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—This was a day of covering by shorts in wheat and the result was an advance of ½a⅝c. in September and almost as much on the distant figures. Strong cables, disappointing threshing returns and expectations of a bullish government report were factors. Coarse grains were also strong, corn and oats each advancing about ⅝c. Provisions lost an early advance and closed 2½a10c. lower. Cash quotations were as follows: Flour—Quiet; No. 3 spring wheat, 67¾a68c.; No. 2 red, 70½c.; No. 2 corn, 32a32¼c.; No. 2 oats, 21¼a22c.; No. 2 white, 24½c.; No. 3 do., 23c.; No. 2 rye, 52¾c.; No. 2 barley, 33a40c.; No. 1 flax, 99c.; prime timothy seed, 2.65a2.47½; mess pork, $7.50a8.25; lard, $5.07½a5.20; short ribs, $4.80a5.15; dry salted shoulders, 5½a5¾c.; short clear, $5.25a5.45; whiskey, $1.26; sugars, unchanged.

AMATEUR BASE BALL NOTES.

The Taylor Reds challenge the Old Forge team for a game on the Old Forge grounds for Saturday afternoon, August 12. Answer immediately, E. G. Watkins, manager.

The Sliders challenge either of the following teams for a game of base ball on August 12 on the Sliders' grounds: Park Hill Stars, Sluggers, Arrivels.

The Jonas Long's Sons' base ball club desire to correct the report of their game with the Delaware and Hudson operators which appeared in the base ball column of the Times last evening. The party who caused the untruthful score—10 to 12—for the Delaware and Hudson club to be inserted was certainly laboring under a delusion, for when the umpire called the game on account of darkness the score stood 10 to 7 in favor of the Jonas Long's Sons.

The Sliders challenge the West Side Reserves and North End Arrivals for Saturday, August 12, at 2.30 o'clock on Sliders' grounds. Please answer in Friday's Tribune. We will give a return game the following Saturday. W. Thomas, manager.

The St. Thomas college base ball club, the champions of Lackawanna county, will play the Holford base ball team, of Peckville, one of the strongest aggregations of ball players of that part of the valley, Saturday, August 12, on the Mott Haven grounds, Peckville. They will also have McAvoy and Allen, champion cake walkers, in their latest conception, "My Honolulu Lady," and also Palmer and Gardner, acrobatic artists. Game will be called at 3.30 o'clock sharp. The line up of the St. Thomas team will be as follows: Cooney, c.; Duffy and Griffin, p.; McHugh, ss.; Hastings, 1b.; Weir (captain), 2b.; Byron, 3b.; Philbin, lf.; Ryan, cf.; O'Horo, rf. All members of the St. Thomas team are requested to meet at the college at 1.30 o'clock sharp.
