THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY, AUGUST 10, 1899.

THE SONS WILL CAMP.

The Sons of Veterans, of this city, Installation of Officers and Social will go into camp at Tuscararo, a mile and one-half above Lanesboro, on the 16th inst. Ralph Snyder and Edward Kelly, a committee appointed by the camp to secure a location, report that there is a very beautiful little island at their disposal. The party will consist of about forty-five and will be encamped during the Grand Army of the Republic reunion at Lanesboro.

NEARLY A THOUSAND STRONG.

Nearly 1,000 excursionists from Jersey City, Paterson and other points on the Eris road invaded this city yesterday afternoon by way of the Honesdale branch. They remained two hours and viewed with curious eyes the many strange sights afforded by an anthracite city. The Trinity guild again took advantage of the occasion and reaped a harvest on coffee and sandwiches.

The reduction of salaries in the public schools means an inevitable cheapening of the schools. The greatest competition for schools always mean that, if merit alone govern the choice, the teachers selected will be the best. When the salaries offered are not sufficiently attractive to cause competition, the competency of the teachers becomes less. "However, the directors have delicate situation confronting them. Work is poor and pays are small. It is hard for people to pay their taxes. In the face of all this comes a reduction on the state appropriation. The men who pay the taxes will approve of the board's action. The teachers who suffer, can only admit that there s some right in the board's claim. The Tompkinsville and Ogden seboo
