DAY'S DOINGS OF DUNMORE BOROUGH

SERMON OF REV. VAN CLEFT AT FUNERAL OF FRED DREYER.

Urged That We Number Our Days and Use Them for the Highest Good—An Eloquent Eulogy on the Character of the Dead Man—Samuel Smith Gives a Reception in Honor of Miss Daisy Dawson. Other Notes of Interest.

A brief notice of the funeral services in the Methodist Episcopal church of the late Frederick Dreyer, appeared in Wednesday's Tribune, but because of the universal esteem in which Mr. Dreyer was held, and the great influence for good his thirty years' residence in Dunmore has been to all who knew him, the following tribute to his memory by Rev. A. J. Van Cleft, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, will be read with deep interest by the many who could not be present at the last sad rites over their departed friend. After very impressive remarks in German by Rev. Heinman, of the Petersburg Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Dreyer was a faithful member, Mr. Van Cleft said:

death I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me."
 And Paul, the hero of the New Testament, who said "I live in Christ," was pre-eminently useful in life and he came to the end of his earthly career with holy triumph. He said at the closing up of life, "I have fought a good fight. I have finished my course, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness." And again: "If our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."
 As I stand by this coffin I am thankful that we have God's blessed word which has brought life and immortality to light. Our brother is not dead, but sleeping. We have the assurance of an immortality, of a resurrection morning and of a happy reunion by and by.
 Brother Dreyer has been known in this community as a most devoted and earnest Christian. For many years his life have been thoroughly consecrated to the service of his Divine Master, and he has been highly respected by all who have known him. Every one speaks of him as one of our most honored and useful citizens.
 His strictly moral and upright character is universally admired, and he will be greatly missed by all. His church has been deprived of one of its most steadfast and faithful members. But it is in the home, where love seemed to reign supreme, that the loss will be most deeply felt. He leaves behind him the legacy of a noble life. But he still lives. We have two immortalities. One we will carry into the other world; the other we will leave behind us to influence mankind. The influence of such a life as Frederick Dreyer's will long be felt for good in this community.

MISS DAWSON ENTERTAINED.

Samuel Smith, of Webster avenue, gave a reception Thursday evening in honor of his little guest, Miss Daisy Dawson, of Buffalo, N. Y., who is recognized as an exceptionally clever dancer. The affair proved to be a most enjoyable one. The leading features of the evening were the dancing by Miss Dawson, selections on the violin by Prof. Walkinshaw and vocal selections by Robert W. Rankin.
 The highland fling and sailors' hornpipe, danced by Miss Dawson, were received with applause. The her supper, however, she was presented with a gold ring by Mr. James Flynn in behalf of admiring friends. She was taken completely by surprise and was unable to respond, which was done by Mrs. Smith in a few well chosen words.
 Prof. Walkinshaw rendered "The Last Rose of Summer," "Auld Robin Gray" and "The Flowers of the Forest" in a praiseworthy manner. Miss Wakefield, James Flynn, Mr. Crawford also entertained. Refreshments were served, after dancing was indulged in for the remainder of the evening. Among those present were Mrs. Bottice, Miss Shepard, Miss Wakefield, Arthur Linnett, William Hill, James Drummond, R. W. Rankin, Thomas Brock.

It is Incontrovertible!
 The Editor of the "Christian Million," under the heading of General Notes, on August 20, 1898, wrote—"A good article will stand upon its own merits and may rely upon it that nothing will continue long which does not, in a more or less degree, benefit the human race. The statements which are published concerning it."
 Mr. Hall Calne,
 Author of "The Dreamer," "The Man-eman," "The Christian," when speaking on "Criticism," recently said—
 "When a thing that is advertised greatly is good it goes and goes on; when it is bad, it only goes for a while; the public finds it out."
BEECHAM'S PILLS
 has sold over and over again—
 "It is a fallacy to imagine that anything will sell just because it is advertised. How many nostrums have been started with glare and studied out in gloom? The fact is, a man is not easily gulled a second time; and every distinguished purchaser does for more than one satisfied dose good. Assuredly the sale of more than 6,000,000 boxes of BEECHAM'S PILLS per annum, after a public trial of half-a-century, is conclusive testimony of their popularity, superiority and proverbial worth."
 Beecham's Pills have the many years been the popular family medicine wherever they are sold, and they now stand without a rival. In boxes of 10 and 25 each, at all drug stores.
