POOR BOARD STILL REFUSES.

Messrs. Daley and Carter, appointed to the Carbondale poor board by court, pursuant to a recent act, were again on hand last evening and were again refused membership in the body Ex-Mayor O'Neill stated briefly for the board its reasons for refusing to seat the court's appointees, board will publish a letter stating that its only wish is to keep on safe ground that counsel has advised it that the act is unconstitutional; that the proposed changes are of great moment to the taxpayers; that the state board of charities has recommended a new poor house, for which bonds will have to be issued, which might be invalidated by reorganizing at this time. The letter says that the only way to settle the matter is in the courts. Messra Daley and Carter did not say what course they will pursue.

About one month ago my child, which is fifteen months old, had an attack of diarrhoea accompanied by the sympathy and love of a large circle vomiting. I gave it such remedies as are usually given in such cases, but as nothing gave relief, we sent for a physician and it was under his care for a week. At this time the child had been sick for about ten days and was having about twenty-five operations of the bowels every twelve hours, and we were convinced that unless it soon obtained relief it would not live. Chamberiain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended, and I deelded to try it.
