

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

WELL-KNOWN PEOPLE MARRIED IN BINGHAMTON, N. Y.

Alexander Hadden, of Dupue Street, is the groom and Miss Agnes Glencross the bride—they will spend their honeymoon in the South—Next week Mr. Hadden intends to return to the Klondike. Distinguished foreigners visiting Councilman William Jones.

Alexander Hadden, of Dupue street, and Miss Agnes Glencross, of Grove street, were quietly married in Binghamton, N. Y., yesterday. Several very intimate friends witnessed the ceremony and returned with the young people last evening. The bride was attired in a very pretty wedding suit and was unattended. Miss Glencross is well known throughout this valley and has many friends who wish her great happiness.

Mr. Hadden has just returned from the Klondike regions after a three years' stay. They are now enjoying a short wedding tour through the South.

Mrs. Hadden, accompanied by Mrs. Alex. Glencross and Mrs. William Coulter, will leave in a few days for an extended visit. Mr. Hadden, accompanied by William Coulter, of Dupue street, will leave Wednesday morning next for the Klondike regions, where Mr. Hadden has a paying claim which yielded $20,000 during his three years' stay.

AFTER THE PRIZES. Dunmore council, No. 1022, Junior Order United American Mechanics, of this place, will have a leading part in all games today at the joint excursion of that order at Lake Ariel. The council is composed of nearly four hundred members, many of whom are athletes, and to these has been left the lodge's honor of capturing the prize of every contest they enter.

The tug-of-war alone will be watched with great interest and has excited a great amount of comment during the past few weeks. Dunmore and Wilkes-Barre councils will clash during the day and the outcome cannot be ventured because of the rivalry between the lovers of the sport of base ball. Train will leave Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad depot at No. 6 at 8 o'clock, also one at 2:15 p. m.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church whose names began with Y or W conducted a successful supper in the church parlors last evening. The proceeds amounted to a neat sum, which will go towards the current expenses of the church.

St. Mary's council, Young Men's In-Paine's Celery Compound . . . 75c Pinkham's Compound . . . 70c Pierce's Golden Medical Dis. . . 75c Mellon's Food . . . 38c and 55c

GEORGE W. JENKINS, 101 S. Main Avenue

Separate Skirts for Early Autumn Wear in Nov- Plaids and Popular Quaker ays. Our first delivery for the season is now to hand and ready for inspection. A call from you will be much appreciated. Globe Warehouse

Wash Skirts and Wash Waists Still a pretty nice assortment to get rid of before the month closes, and more particularly in fine goods of unquestionable quality.

Half Price or Less for Choice

GLOBE WAREHOUSE

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF IVORITE GRAND OFFICERS.

Held Last Night in Co-operative Hall Under the Auspices of the Local Lodges—Young Men Arrested for Stealing Fruit—Marriage of Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott—Fire Interfered with a Party at the Residence of Peter Mullaney—A Missionary Meeting.

The reception tendered to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Ivorites last evening in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, was a grand success in every sense of the word. The reception was given under the auspices of five lodges identified with the order, namely: Thomas Jefferson lodge, North Scranton; Caradawn lodge, North Scranton; Temple of Love lodge, Taylor, and Robert Craig and Dewil Sant lodges, both of this city.

Benjamin Hughes, father of "Ivorite" in this country, was chairman of the evening. The order was first instituted in the year 1863. In that year three orders were organized, one at St. Clair, Pa., Carbondale and the Dewil Sant of this side.

At that time each lodge was independent. However, in 1888, through the unceasing efforts of Mr. Hughes, an affiliation was formed, he being elected president of the Grand lodge, which position he held continually until 1877. Only two of the officers of the Grand lodge elected in 1868 are living, Benjamin Hughes and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Washington. Mr. Hughes in his opening remarks spoke along the lines of the origin and growth of the order.

The programme as printed in Tuesday's Tribune was carried out with two exceptions, that of a song by G. R. Lewis and instrumental music by Roscoe Davies and party, both parties being absent.

Reese Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the active Ivorites of that city and an ex-grand president, made a short speech complimentary to the present grand officers.

The grand officers present were: Richard H. Williams, president; J. J. Evans, secretary, and Roger Evans, treasurer, all of this city. Each was called upon for a few remarks and responded accordingly. They were bent on making this year a successful one for the order throughout the country and wished for the hearty co-operation of all present.

Dewil Sant Glee club rendered several excellent selections and received an encore on every number. Dewil Sant acted as accompanist for the club. The evening's programme concluded with a selection by the club.

The assemblage then repaired to the rooms below, where refreshments were served under the direction of Robert, the caterer. While the guests were being waited upon, an urgent request was brought to bear upon Chairman Hughes to have Professor Prothero, who was present, sing. Mr. Prothero responded to the request of the gathering and, after delivering a short address in his native tongue, Welsh, the "Coming of Wales." It was received with thunderous applause. A smoker followed.

The committee having the affair in charge was comprised of members of the several lodges, namely, Dewil Sant lodge, chairman, R. E. Jones and W. S. Davis; Robert Morris lodge, Howell Harris, D. J. Davis, secretary, and Dr. Beddine; Temple of Love lodge, Jacob Jones, treasurer; Caradawn lodge, W. J. Davis; Caradawn lodge, D. Jeffries, J. S. Edwards and Evan Gabriel; Thomas Jefferson lodge, J. B. Davis, E. Smith and H. Evans.

CAUGHT STEALING TOMATOES. Thomas Ferguson, of Aswell court, William Williams, of North street, and Edward Ford, were arrested last evening at the instance of O. M. Kretzler, charged with stealing tomatoes.

KORSETTER CONDUCTS A LARGE FARM on South Main avenue, below the Dodge mine, and on late has been bothered to a great extent by boys breaking into his tomato patch, stealing his ripe fruit. Yesterday he decided to watch for the intruders and discovered the above mentioned boys in the act.

Last evening he went before Alderman Moses, of the Eleventh ward, and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Constable John Lance arrested the parties at their respective homes and took them before the alderman, where they were given a hearing.

At the hearing all pleaded guilty except Williams, who claimed he was not present at the time. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. His father furnished bail. Ferguson and Ford paid their fines.

KARAKAS-SPOTT WEDDING. Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the German Catholic church, on South Main avenue. Rev. Father Fricke officiated at the nuptial knot.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the couple were driven to the bride's home on North Main avenue, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Both enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF IVORITE GRAND OFFICERS.

Held Last Night in Co-operative Hall Under the Auspices of the Local Lodges—Young Men Arrested for Stealing Fruit—Marriage of Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott—Fire Interfered with a Party at the Residence of Peter Mullaney—A Missionary Meeting.

The reception tendered to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Ivorites last evening in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, was a grand success in every sense of the word. The reception was given under the auspices of five lodges identified with the order, namely: Thomas Jefferson lodge, North Scranton; Caradawn lodge, North Scranton; Temple of Love lodge, Taylor, and Robert Craig and Dewil Sant lodges, both of this city.

Benjamin Hughes, father of "Ivorite" in this country, was chairman of the evening. The order was first instituted in the year 1863. In that year three orders were organized, one at St. Clair, Pa., Carbondale and the Dewil Sant of this side.

At that time each lodge was independent. However, in 1888, through the unceasing efforts of Mr. Hughes, an affiliation was formed, he being elected president of the Grand lodge, which position he held continually until 1877. Only two of the officers of the Grand lodge elected in 1868 are living, Benjamin Hughes and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Washington. Mr. Hughes in his opening remarks spoke along the lines of the origin and growth of the order.

The programme as printed in Tuesday's Tribune was carried out with two exceptions, that of a song by G. R. Lewis and instrumental music by Roscoe Davies and party, both parties being absent.

Reese Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the active Ivorites of that city and an ex-grand president, made a short speech complimentary to the present grand officers.

The grand officers present were: Richard H. Williams, president; J. J. Evans, secretary, and Roger Evans, treasurer, all of this city. Each was called upon for a few remarks and responded accordingly. They were bent on making this year a successful one for the order throughout the country and wished for the hearty co-operation of all present.

Dewil Sant Glee club rendered several excellent selections and received an encore on every number. Dewil Sant acted as accompanist for the club. The evening's programme concluded with a selection by the club.

The assemblage then repaired to the rooms below, where refreshments were served under the direction of Robert, the caterer. While the guests were being waited upon, an urgent request was brought to bear upon Chairman Hughes to have Professor Prothero, who was present, sing. Mr. Prothero responded to the request of the gathering and, after delivering a short address in his native tongue, Welsh, the "Coming of Wales." It was received with thunderous applause. A smoker followed.

The committee having the affair in charge was comprised of members of the several lodges, namely, Dewil Sant lodge, chairman, R. E. Jones and W. S. Davis; Robert Morris lodge, Howell Harris, D. J. Davis, secretary, and Dr. Beddine; Temple of Love lodge, Jacob Jones, treasurer; Caradawn lodge, W. J. Davis; Caradawn lodge, D. Jeffries, J. S. Edwards and Evan Gabriel; Thomas Jefferson lodge, J. B. Davis, E. Smith and H. Evans.

CAUGHT STEALING TOMATOES. Thomas Ferguson, of Aswell court, William Williams, of North street, and Edward Ford, were arrested last evening at the instance of O. M. Kretzler, charged with stealing tomatoes.

KORSETTER CONDUCTS A LARGE FARM on South Main avenue, below the Dodge mine, and on late has been bothered to a great extent by boys breaking into his tomato patch, stealing his ripe fruit. Yesterday he decided to watch for the intruders and discovered the above mentioned boys in the act.

Last evening he went before Alderman Moses, of the Eleventh ward, and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Constable John Lance arrested the parties at their respective homes and took them before the alderman, where they were given a hearing.

At the hearing all pleaded guilty except Williams, who claimed he was not present at the time. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. His father furnished bail. Ferguson and Ford paid their fines.

KARAKAS-SPOTT WEDDING. Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the German Catholic church, on South Main avenue. Rev. Father Fricke officiated at the nuptial knot.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the couple were driven to the bride's home on North Main avenue, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Both enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF IVORITE GRAND OFFICERS.

Held Last Night in Co-operative Hall Under the Auspices of the Local Lodges—Young Men Arrested for Stealing Fruit—Marriage of Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott—Fire Interfered with a Party at the Residence of Peter Mullaney—A Missionary Meeting.

The reception tendered to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Ivorites last evening in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, was a grand success in every sense of the word. The reception was given under the auspices of five lodges identified with the order, namely: Thomas Jefferson lodge, North Scranton; Caradawn lodge, North Scranton; Temple of Love lodge, Taylor, and Robert Craig and Dewil Sant lodges, both of this city.

Benjamin Hughes, father of "Ivorite" in this country, was chairman of the evening. The order was first instituted in the year 1863. In that year three orders were organized, one at St. Clair, Pa., Carbondale and the Dewil Sant of this side.

At that time each lodge was independent. However, in 1888, through the unceasing efforts of Mr. Hughes, an affiliation was formed, he being elected president of the Grand lodge, which position he held continually until 1877. Only two of the officers of the Grand lodge elected in 1868 are living, Benjamin Hughes and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Washington. Mr. Hughes in his opening remarks spoke along the lines of the origin and growth of the order.

The programme as printed in Tuesday's Tribune was carried out with two exceptions, that of a song by G. R. Lewis and instrumental music by Roscoe Davies and party, both parties being absent.

Reese Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the active Ivorites of that city and an ex-grand president, made a short speech complimentary to the present grand officers.

The grand officers present were: Richard H. Williams, president; J. J. Evans, secretary, and Roger Evans, treasurer, all of this city. Each was called upon for a few remarks and responded accordingly. They were bent on making this year a successful one for the order throughout the country and wished for the hearty co-operation of all present.

Dewil Sant Glee club rendered several excellent selections and received an encore on every number. Dewil Sant acted as accompanist for the club. The evening's programme concluded with a selection by the club.

The assemblage then repaired to the rooms below, where refreshments were served under the direction of Robert, the caterer. While the guests were being waited upon, an urgent request was brought to bear upon Chairman Hughes to have Professor Prothero, who was present, sing. Mr. Prothero responded to the request of the gathering and, after delivering a short address in his native tongue, Welsh, the "Coming of Wales." It was received with thunderous applause. A smoker followed.

The committee having the affair in charge was comprised of members of the several lodges, namely, Dewil Sant lodge, chairman, R. E. Jones and W. S. Davis; Robert Morris lodge, Howell Harris, D. J. Davis, secretary, and Dr. Beddine; Temple of Love lodge, Jacob Jones, treasurer; Caradawn lodge, W. J. Davis; Caradawn lodge, D. Jeffries, J. S. Edwards and Evan Gabriel; Thomas Jefferson lodge, J. B. Davis, E. Smith and H. Evans.

CAUGHT STEALING TOMATOES. Thomas Ferguson, of Aswell court, William Williams, of North street, and Edward Ford, were arrested last evening at the instance of O. M. Kretzler, charged with stealing tomatoes.

KORSETTER CONDUCTS A LARGE FARM on South Main avenue, below the Dodge mine, and on late has been bothered to a great extent by boys breaking into his tomato patch, stealing his ripe fruit. Yesterday he decided to watch for the intruders and discovered the above mentioned boys in the act.

Last evening he went before Alderman Moses, of the Eleventh ward, and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Constable John Lance arrested the parties at their respective homes and took them before the alderman, where they were given a hearing.

At the hearing all pleaded guilty except Williams, who claimed he was not present at the time. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. His father furnished bail. Ferguson and Ford paid their fines.

KARAKAS-SPOTT WEDDING. Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the German Catholic church, on South Main avenue. Rev. Father Fricke officiated at the nuptial knot.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the couple were driven to the bride's home on North Main avenue, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Both enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF IVORITE GRAND OFFICERS.

Held Last Night in Co-operative Hall Under the Auspices of the Local Lodges—Young Men Arrested for Stealing Fruit—Marriage of Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott—Fire Interfered with a Party at the Residence of Peter Mullaney—A Missionary Meeting.

The reception tendered to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Ivorites last evening in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, was a grand success in every sense of the word. The reception was given under the auspices of five lodges identified with the order, namely: Thomas Jefferson lodge, North Scranton; Caradawn lodge, North Scranton; Temple of Love lodge, Taylor, and Robert Craig and Dewil Sant lodges, both of this city.

Benjamin Hughes, father of "Ivorite" in this country, was chairman of the evening. The order was first instituted in the year 1863. In that year three orders were organized, one at St. Clair, Pa., Carbondale and the Dewil Sant of this side.

At that time each lodge was independent. However, in 1888, through the unceasing efforts of Mr. Hughes, an affiliation was formed, he being elected president of the Grand lodge, which position he held continually until 1877. Only two of the officers of the Grand lodge elected in 1868 are living, Benjamin Hughes and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Washington. Mr. Hughes in his opening remarks spoke along the lines of the origin and growth of the order.

The programme as printed in Tuesday's Tribune was carried out with two exceptions, that of a song by G. R. Lewis and instrumental music by Roscoe Davies and party, both parties being absent.

Reese Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the active Ivorites of that city and an ex-grand president, made a short speech complimentary to the present grand officers.

The grand officers present were: Richard H. Williams, president; J. J. Evans, secretary, and Roger Evans, treasurer, all of this city. Each was called upon for a few remarks and responded accordingly. They were bent on making this year a successful one for the order throughout the country and wished for the hearty co-operation of all present.

Dewil Sant Glee club rendered several excellent selections and received an encore on every number. Dewil Sant acted as accompanist for the club. The evening's programme concluded with a selection by the club.

The assemblage then repaired to the rooms below, where refreshments were served under the direction of Robert, the caterer. While the guests were being waited upon, an urgent request was brought to bear upon Chairman Hughes to have Professor Prothero, who was present, sing. Mr. Prothero responded to the request of the gathering and, after delivering a short address in his native tongue, Welsh, the "Coming of Wales." It was received with thunderous applause. A smoker followed.

The committee having the affair in charge was comprised of members of the several lodges, namely, Dewil Sant lodge, chairman, R. E. Jones and W. S. Davis; Robert Morris lodge, Howell Harris, D. J. Davis, secretary, and Dr. Beddine; Temple of Love lodge, Jacob Jones, treasurer; Caradawn lodge, W. J. Davis; Caradawn lodge, D. Jeffries, J. S. Edwards and Evan Gabriel; Thomas Jefferson lodge, J. B. Davis, E. Smith and H. Evans.

CAUGHT STEALING TOMATOES. Thomas Ferguson, of Aswell court, William Williams, of North street, and Edward Ford, were arrested last evening at the instance of O. M. Kretzler, charged with stealing tomatoes.

KORSETTER CONDUCTS A LARGE FARM on South Main avenue, below the Dodge mine, and on late has been bothered to a great extent by boys breaking into his tomato patch, stealing his ripe fruit. Yesterday he decided to watch for the intruders and discovered the above mentioned boys in the act.

Last evening he went before Alderman Moses, of the Eleventh ward, and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Constable John Lance arrested the parties at their respective homes and took them before the alderman, where they were given a hearing.

At the hearing all pleaded guilty except Williams, who claimed he was not present at the time. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. His father furnished bail. Ferguson and Ford paid their fines.

KARAKAS-SPOTT WEDDING. Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the German Catholic church, on South Main avenue. Rev. Father Fricke officiated at the nuptial knot.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the couple were driven to the bride's home on North Main avenue, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Both enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF IVORITE GRAND OFFICERS.

Held Last Night in Co-operative Hall Under the Auspices of the Local Lodges—Young Men Arrested for Stealing Fruit—Marriage of Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott—Fire Interfered with a Party at the Residence of Peter Mullaney—A Missionary Meeting.

The reception tendered to the officers of the Grand Lodge of Ivorites last evening in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, was a grand success in every sense of the word. The reception was given under the auspices of five lodges identified with the order, namely: Thomas Jefferson lodge, North Scranton; Caradawn lodge, North Scranton; Temple of Love lodge, Taylor, and Robert Craig and Dewil Sant lodges, both of this city.

Benjamin Hughes, father of "Ivorite" in this country, was chairman of the evening. The order was first instituted in the year 1863. In that year three orders were organized, one at St. Clair, Pa., Carbondale and the Dewil Sant of this side.

At that time each lodge was independent. However, in 1888, through the unceasing efforts of Mr. Hughes, an affiliation was formed, he being elected president of the Grand lodge, which position he held continually until 1877. Only two of the officers of the Grand lodge elected in 1868 are living, Benjamin Hughes and Rev. Jonathan Edwards, of Washington. Mr. Hughes in his opening remarks spoke along the lines of the origin and growth of the order.

The programme as printed in Tuesday's Tribune was carried out with two exceptions, that of a song by G. R. Lewis and instrumental music by Roscoe Davies and party, both parties being absent.

Reese Morgan, of Wilkes-Barre, one of the active Ivorites of that city and an ex-grand president, made a short speech complimentary to the present grand officers.

The grand officers present were: Richard H. Williams, president; J. J. Evans, secretary, and Roger Evans, treasurer, all of this city. Each was called upon for a few remarks and responded accordingly. They were bent on making this year a successful one for the order throughout the country and wished for the hearty co-operation of all present.

Dewil Sant Glee club rendered several excellent selections and received an encore on every number. Dewil Sant acted as accompanist for the club. The evening's programme concluded with a selection by the club.

The assemblage then repaired to the rooms below, where refreshments were served under the direction of Robert, the caterer. While the guests were being waited upon, an urgent request was brought to bear upon Chairman Hughes to have Professor Prothero, who was present, sing. Mr. Prothero responded to the request of the gathering and, after delivering a short address in his native tongue, Welsh, the "Coming of Wales." It was received with thunderous applause. A smoker followed.

The committee having the affair in charge was comprised of members of the several lodges, namely, Dewil Sant lodge, chairman, R. E. Jones and W. S. Davis; Robert Morris lodge, Howell Harris, D. J. Davis, secretary, and Dr. Beddine; Temple of Love lodge, Jacob Jones, treasurer; Caradawn lodge, W. J. Davis; Caradawn lodge, D. Jeffries, J. S. Edwards and Evan Gabriel; Thomas Jefferson lodge, J. B. Davis, E. Smith and H. Evans.

CAUGHT STEALING TOMATOES. Thomas Ferguson, of Aswell court, William Williams, of North street, and Edward Ford, were arrested last evening at the instance of O. M. Kretzler, charged with stealing tomatoes.

KORSETTER CONDUCTS A LARGE FARM on South Main avenue, below the Dodge mine, and on late has been bothered to a great extent by boys breaking into his tomato patch, stealing his ripe fruit. Yesterday he decided to watch for the intruders and discovered the above mentioned boys in the act.

Last evening he went before Alderman Moses, of the Eleventh ward, and swore out a warrant for their arrest. Constable John Lance arrested the parties at their respective homes and took them before the alderman, where they were given a hearing.

At the hearing all pleaded guilty except Williams, who claimed he was not present at the time. He was held in $200 bail for his appearance at court. His father furnished bail. Ferguson and Ford paid their fines.

KARAKAS-SPOTT WEDDING. Miss Kathryn Karakas and Stephen Spott were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the German Catholic church, on South Main avenue. Rev. Father Fricke officiated at the nuptial knot.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the couple were driven to the bride's home on North Main avenue, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Spott will begin housekeeping in a newly furnished home on North Main avenue. Both enjoy the best wishes of a host of friends.

THE LEADER

Scranton Store, 124-126 Wyoming Avenue.

Friday's sale of domestics

The most astounding sacrifices of the year have taken place this month. Again today we will lead in bargain giving unapproached by any one.

- 6c indigo prints—standard goods
6c outing flannels—light colors
6c robe prints—new patterns.
6c standard apron gingham.
75c blankets at 37c—in white only, very large, medium weight, regular price 75c. Friday, 37c
25c dotted swisses at 10c—The balance of our stock of all grades at one price—formerly 15c, 10c and 25c. Friday, your choice. 10c

Don't miss this book sale

Lists of titles are being replenished daily. Thousands of books arriving all the time. Some very special bargains for today:

David Harum So popular now that the name, if not the book, is familiar in every household. Published at $1.50—sold elsewhere at $1.20. Here on Friday only. 78c

Famous Elsie Books The favorite book of girls of nearly every age. Published at $1.25—customary cut price 80c. Here on Friday. 49c

Cloth bound books—300 titles—In an elegant binding—stamped with several inks and gold—works by such authors as Barrie, Scott, Stevenson, The Duchess, Blackmore, Dickens, Bronte and many others. Published at 50c. 12c

Cloth bound books—250 titles—Full 12 mo. size, stamped in several inks and gold—titles by Kipling, Cooper, Verne, Barrie, Dickens, Lyall, Ebers, Hawthorne, Correll, Black, Caine and many others—published at 50c. 14c

Ajax Series—Friday. 59c

First fall importation of men's and women's hose

First instalment of six cases just received from Chemnitz. More than fifty varieties, comprising men's, women's and misses' hose of the best quality.

- In men's—All black and black with white feet—also several styles of fancy hose. All blacks are Louis Hermsdorf dye. Choice. 25c
In women's—Black and white feet and black all over. Louis Hermsdorf dye. Fine gauge. 19c
Also—Black with colored silk feet and colored silk stripes at the top, and several lots of fancy lisle open-work stockings of fine quality. Choice. 49c

Friday Special. 10c fast black seamless hose at 5c.

We offer on Friday one thousand pairs of women's fast black seamless hose of the ten cent quality—all sizes—dye guaranteed—special for one day only

Five cents a pair.

- Women's 15c Balbriggan Hose at 10c—Very fine quality and gauge—never sold anywhere for less than 15c a pair—here on Friday. 10c
Women's 10c Hose at 12 1/2c—Fine quality—white feet—never sold for less than 10c in any store in the United States—here on Friday. 12 1/2c

Two bargains in muslin gowns

Possibly the greatest offering in any city of the United States. These garments are high class, price the very lowest.

- 75c Lace trimmed gowns at 33c—This is a great bargain. Yoke of tucks—neck and sleeves trimmed with one inch tuchon lace—real value 75c. Sale price. 33c
75c embroidery trimmed gowns at 39c—Another bargain lot consisting of four or five different styles. Mother Hubbard or Empire Yoke. Handsomely trimmed with embroidery. Friday. 39c

NORTH SCRANTON NOTES.

He Spilled the Beer and a Lively Time Followed—Young Carding's Toes Amputated.

Much amusement was found in Alderman Fidler's office last night when John Griffiths had Patrick Murtough tried on the charge of assault and battery. Both parties are well known Knights of Labor, but Griffiths so far forgot himself as to do a full day's work last Wednesday.

In the evening he went to Regan's saloon to enjoy a glass of beer. When he met Murtough, they commenced to quarrel. The defendant hit Griffiths, discolored his eye and spilling his beer. During the trial he admitted that the latter injury was the worse and the cause of the arrest. The case was discharged, after the evidence was heard, but a reprimand was given both parties.

YESTERDAY'S FUNERALS.

The funeral of John W. Mullen was held yesterday morning from his late home on Thompson street. The deceased had been a resident of this section of the city for a long time and was possessed of a large number of friends, who thronged the Holy Rosary church, where the remains were taken. A high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. J. V. Moylan. The pall-bearers were John Ryan, John Thomas, Edward McGuire, Richard Kelly, Michael Tighe and John Kennedy. The Molders' union from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western shops attended in a body.

The funeral of James B. O'Boyle was also held yesterday morning. The body was viewed by a large number of the friends of the deceased and his parents before being removed to the Holy Rosary church, where Rev. J. J. O'Toole celebrated a requiem mass. Interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The pall-bearers were Frank Golden, William Casey, Martin Lavelle, Anthony Barrett, Patrick Flynn and Michael McLaughlin.

PERSONAL AND OTHERWISE.

Yesterday morning Dr. Sullivan, Donno and Cornell performed the operation on the foot of Anthony Cardig, when the toes and part of his right foot were removed. The patient was the son of Thomas Cardig, and had his foot lacerated while jumping on the train on the Marine switch last Wednesday afternoon.

The funeral of Charles, the six-year-old son of John Rumbly, of West Market street, will be held this afternoon at three o'clock. The child died last Wednesday night after an illness of less than a day, having been attacked with meningitis early that morning.

At half-past nine this morning the funeral of Mrs. Katherine Casey, of Foxenue street, will be held. Deceased died Tuesday afternoon at the Moses Taylor hospital, where she had been for some time.

Last night a large number attended the dance that was held in the ballroom by the Keystone Dramatic club. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Walsh yesterday morning.

Miss Kate Brennan, of New York, visited at the home of Thomas Healy, on Custick avenue, yesterday.

David O'Connell, of Wayne avenue, has recovered after a short illness.

Miss Grace Donny, of Duryea, is the guest of Mrs.