Tripp Farm a Record Breaker. The most successful sale of building lots in this city has been on the Tripp Farm plot. Not only has the sale of lots been a record breaker, but the rapidity with which beautiful homes have sprung up all over the plot, as well as taking the location, prices, etc., into consideration, there are no better values to be found in this city than Tripp Farm lots. North Main avenue cars run through the plot.

GRAND LODGE OF THE STATE

Rathbone Sisters Held Their Annual Meeting at Lancaster. The grand lodge of the Rathbone Sisters of Pennsylvania convened in annual session at Orange Hall, Lancaster, Pa., at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning, Aug. 16. Grand Chief Sister Mary E. True, of Erie, presided. The reports of committees were given, showing a prosperous condition of the order, and the grand degree was conferred on the representatives. Thursday morning the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Past grand chief, Mary E. True, of Erie, Pa.; grand chief, Martha C. Duffield, Erie, Pa.; grand senior, Lavina Habberfeld, Wheeling, W. Va.; grand junior, Mary C. Kohn, Williamsport, Pa.; grand manager, Cora Richards, Altoona, Pa.; G. M. of R. and C. K. K. Foreman, Williamsport, Pa.; G. M. of P., Kate E. Gould, Corry, Pa.; grand professor, Anna A. Ridgway, Scranton, Pa.; grand outer guard, S. J. E. Meade, Corry, Pa.; supreme representative, four years, Amanda Marks, Shamokin, Pa. They were installed by Past Supreme Representative Lizzie Kimble, Scranton, Pa., after which adjournment was made to meet at Harrisburg in 1900.

NEW MEN ON DUTY.

Patrolmen Saul and Dyer Obey a Notice to Quit, But Ignore a Demand for Badges and Clubs.

As The Tribune indicated, the mayor has ordered Patrolmen Saul and Dyer to quit and placed the new men, D. J. Davis and W. S. Hockenberry, on duty as specials. Yesterday morning Messrs. Saul and Dyer each received a notice with the following: Scranton, Pa., Aug. 18, 1899. Dear Sir: You are hereby notified that you have been this day removed from the police force, for cause, and that your services are no longer required. You are directed to turn over your star, club and any other city property in your possession to the chief of police without further delay. James Mott, Mayor.

They did not report for duty last night but as yet have not complied with the order to turn over their stars and clubs. One of them stated yesterday that they are not disposed to surrender their badges unless they are satisfied that the mayor can thus summarily remove them, without consulting councils. Both will demand to know the cause of their removal. The new appointees were sent out with the night squads in citizens clothes. Special Officer Davis was assigned to the Boone Hill beat and Special Hockenberry to Bellevue.

BOTH WILL TRY AGAIN.

New Telephone Companies Have Not Given Up in Despair. A. H. and H. R. Worthington, of Trenton, N. J., the chief promoters of the Telephone company, are at the Jersey and announce they will make another effort to secure a franchise in Scranton. They have installed a plant in Syracuse at an expense of $150,000 and already have 1,200 subscribers. The Bell company at that place has 1500 subscribers. The same rates offered Scranton, $24 and $36, are given Syracuse. Five miles of the line are underground. S. F. Weyland, manager of the Lackawanna telephone company, recently stated to a Tribune reporter that his company intends to come into the field again with a new bid for a franchise.

HE STOPPED THE FUNERAL.

Coroner Roberts Arrives in the Midst of the Services. Coroner Roberts arrived yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at Breck street to view the remains of Barrett Morrill, a laborer, who was killed in the William Connell mine on Thursday. When the coroner arrived the funeral services had started and the friends and relatives were taking a last look at the remains. The funeral was stopped. The coroner examined the body and decided to hold an inquest in the court house on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. After the coroner departed the funeral services proceeded.

IMPORTANT INNOVATION.

It Has Been Introduced by Postmaster Ripple. Postmaster Ripple has introduced an innovation at the post office that will be hailed with delight by out-of-town patrons. He has decided to allow the stamp clerks to receive registered letters and packages and give a receipt for them. This is a great convenience to out-of-town persons who are unable to reach the city until after the registered letter window closes at 6 p. m. The stamp window is open till 9 p. m.

DANCE AT THE FAVILLON.

Event at Lake Ariel Tonight That Will Attract Many Scrantonians. There will be a dance at the pavilion at Lake Ariel tonight for the hotel guests and cottagers. Bauer's orchestra will furnish the music. A number of persons from this city intend to go over this afternoon to participate in the dance.

OFFICIALS AND MEN ARE IN CONFERENCE

LACKAWANNA SUPERINTENDENTS MEET THE ENGINEERS.

Session Began at 10 O'Clock Yesterday Morning and Continued Throughout the Day—It Is Likely to Last for Several Days—Conductors, Trainmen and Firemen to Be Heard Next Week—Superintendent FitzGibbon and Superintendent Daly Participated in Conference.

The conferences between the Lackawanna officials and the railroad employees over the new schedule of rules began yesterday. The engineers were given the first hearing. Their committee, ten in number, headed by Ell Vail, the company's traveling engineer, waited on General Superintendent Russell at 10 o'clock in the morning and the conference was at once entered upon. Superintendent of Motive Power FitzGibbon and Superintendent of Transportation J. M. Daly were present during the whole conference. President Truesdale did not come to participate but returned to New York early in the morning. The session continued until 5 o'clock, with a recess for dinner, and according to Superintendent Russell is likely to continue for several days. When the engineers' case is disposed of the firemen, trainmen and conductors will be given a hearing. It is expected they will be called together about Wednesday. Neither the officials nor the committee would say anything concerning what transpired at the conference, it having been mutually agreed not to give out anything until the matter is finally settled. Superintendent Russell said that when the proper time comes the whole proceeding will be given to the public.

BLAZE IN AN ASSAY OFFICE.

Correspondence School of Mines Suffers Loss to the Extent of $500. The alarm of fire sounded from box 26, shortly after 6 o'clock last evening was due to a fire in the assay office of the Correspondence School of Mines, located at Centre street and Dix court, near the city hall. The blaze was first discovered by Permanent Thomas Campbell of the Phoenix chemical company, who resides in the building adjoining and across the street from the assay office. He rushed to his company's quarters, and brought the fire engine to the scene. After fighting the flames for a time and failing to get them under control, the alarm was sent in. With the assistance of the other central fire companies the fire was soon subdued. The cause of the fire was an overheated furnace in the assay office. It is always heated to 140 degrees, and the building being an old frame structure, the timbers were very susceptible. The damage done to the office and its contents will amount to $500. The building was not burned badly, but was soaked with water. It is a one story structure.

LEOBUKE DOUGHERTY HURT.

He Is a Surveyor on the Corps of A. B. Dunning. Theodore Dougherty, of A. B. Dunning's surveying corps, was badly injured in the Forest mine at Archbald yesterday afternoon. The corps was running lines in the main gangway, when a mine cart got ready to fire a blast. Everybody sought a place of safety and Mr. Dougherty got behind the door in the heading. A large piece of coal from the blast struck the door, demolishing it and striking Mr. Dougherty on the hip, breaking the bone and otherwise bruising him. When found by his companions he was unconscious. He was taken to the train and taken to this city and Dr. J. L. Rea summoned. At an examination last night the doctor said he would get along nicely.

CITY CAN'T BE BLAMED.

For an Error of Judgment on the Part of an Official.

The taking of testimony in the trespass suit of Patrick O'Connor against the city of Scranton was begun yesterday before Referee Robert J. Kernan in the city solicitor's office. W. W. Baylor and I. H. Burns appeared for the plaintiff and City Solicitor Vosburg for the defense. Damages in the sum of $5,000 are claimed for injury done the plaintiff's property on Seventh street in the Eighteenth ward by the overflow of a sewer basin. The cellar walls were badly damaged, the basement flooded and the house made unhealthy to live in. The city will offer the defense that the overflow was caused by reason of the sewer pipe being too small to carry off the water and that the city in consequence is not liable, as fault lies with an error of judgment on the part of the city engineers.

The decision upon which the defense rests was rendered by the supreme court in the Fairview Coal company case, in which the conditions were practically identical with those in the case at bar.

REUNION AT LAKE ARIEL.

Was Conducted by the Councils of the Jr. O. U. A. M. of the Three Counties.

At Lake Ariel yesterday nearly three thousand persons attended the first reunion of the councils of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics of Lackawanna, Luzerne and Wayne counties. It was the first effort of the kind on the part of the councils in question, but it was so successful that it will hereafter be an annual event. Yesterday's excursion was for the purpose of raising money to defray the expenses of the coming state convention in this city, and plans are already under way for the reunion of next year, which will be for the benefit of the Orphan's home of the order, which is located at Tiffin, O.

The excursionists began to arrive early in the day and every train that came to the lake up to 3:30 p. m. had a large party of excursionists on board. Trains were run direct from Wilkes-Barre, Pittston and Carbondale. Early in the afternoon an address was delivered at the pavilion by Colonel T. R. Martin, district attorney of Luzerne county. Colonel Martin spoke about the order and the good it is doing in many directions. Its foundation is the Bible, and he hoped that other orders will emulate its example in this respect.

State Councillor George B. Bowers, of Altoona, was expected to be present, but owing to illness in his family could not leave home. After Colonel Martin's address, Bauer's band gave a concert for an hour, which was greatly enjoyed. During the afternoon there were a number of athletic contests, which resulted as follows: Tag—W. W. Taylor, first; Dunmore council, No. 1022 won; opposed by Colonel T. D. Lewis council, No. 1015, of North Scranton. Prize, cap. Base Ball—Glen Columbia council, of Wilkes-Barre, defeated Dunmore council by a score of 12 to 8. Prize, crayon portrait of State Councillor Bowers. Pistol shoot—Tom Marsh killed 13 out of 17; Huntington 5 out of 7. Prize, charm and pin.

One Hundred-yard Race—Eugene Tropp, Scranton, first; prize, members' charm; Grant Wilcox, Wilkes-Barre, second; prize, members' pin. One Hundred-yard Race—Eugene Tropp, first; prize, set of books; Grant Wilcox, second; prize, cane; Wesley Simon, third; prize, cuff buttons. Half Mile Bicycle Race—Bruce Coulter, Dunmore, first; prize, bicycle lamp; Grant Wilcox, second; prize, pocket watch; William Thomas, Scranton, third; prize, bicycle trousers.

Two Hundred-yard Race—Elmer Bilse, first; prize, hammock; Grant Wilcox, second; prize, pipe. Lemon Race—Miss Ella Cracker, of Carbondale, first; prize, hammock; Miss Cynthia Williams, second; prize, cake. Running Broad Jump—Eugene Tropp, first; prize, outing shirt; Wesley Simons, second; prize, cane. Tropp jumped 17 feet 10 inches. Base Ball—Taylor Reds defeated Carbondale high school by a score of 8 to 0.

At 5:30 the excursionists began to leave and at 7 o'clock nearly all had left the lake. There were no accidents or unpleasant incidents to mar the enjoyment of the day. The excursion was in charge of the following committee: A. J. Shafer, chairman; C. H. Hall, secretary; H. J. Daniels, V. H. Crisman, Charles Mingle, Marvin Tutthill.

CONCERT AT MAY AUG PARK.

The following programme will be rendered by the Lawrence band at May Aug park this afternoon at 3 o'clock: March, "Cross and Crown".....J. S. Duss Grand American Fantasia, Theo. Bendix (Tone Pictures of the North and South.) Soldiers Life (Austrian Retreat).....Kreutzer Wedding of the Winds, Waltz, John T. Hall Overture, "Masala".....T. H. Rollinson Selection, "A Night in Granada".....Kreutzer A Warm Reception, March, Bert R. Anthony Medley March, "Scranton to Harrisburg".....AT. W. C. Ott (Played only by the Lawrence band.)

JUNK DEALER HELD IN BAIL.

Jacob Feld, a junk dealer from South Scranton, was held Alderman Miller yesterday afternoon on a charge preferred by Marion S. Kaun. He is the man who bought the lenses which was stolen from the School of the Lackawanna. By an act of the legislature passed this year, every junk dealer is required to keep a book in which is to be recorded all goods bought and from whom. Feld did not do this, hence his arrest. He was held in $500 bail by the alderman for his appearance in court.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied by return address. Bauer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.]

Mr. Irish Explains His Position.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: In your issue of Thursday was a notice to the effect that I had filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy and that I was endeavoring to avoid the costs incident to the proceedings. It is true that I have filed a petition in bankruptcy in connection with an assignment made in Fort Edward, N. Y., in February, 1888. I assigned $10,000 to cover an indebtedness of $8,000. The statement that I am trying to avoid the costs of the proceedings is incorrect. I expect to pay whatever is necessary and have no intention of taking advantage of any law that might enable me to do otherwise. Owen Irish, Scranton, Pa., Aug. 18, 1899.

THINKS THAT QUAY IS UNDECIDED

GOVERNOR'S EXECUTIVE CLERK TALKS ON THE CAMPAIGN.

Strong Forces That Are Backing Congressman Connell in His Fight to Secure a Lackawanna Representation on the Supreme Bench—The Fact That Brown Is Acceptable to the Insurgents Is Pointed Out to Be a Reason Why Quay Should Not Favor Him.

The following is portion of an interview with S. A. Bachrach, executive clerk to Governor Stone, published in the Allentown Daily Leader. It is interesting from the fact that it comes from one so close to the governor.

"The state leaders are undecided about the supreme court nomination with Quay appearing to lean toward Hay Brown of Lancaster, and the Durham, Connell and the rest, in favor of Archibald of Scranton or some other equally good man. There isn't any strong feeling against any such selection. It has resolved itself into a question of good politics, and there isn't any doubt that the final choice will be a wise one.

THINK HE WANTS BROWN.

"Several of the papers have made it appear as if Quay, for many reasons, political and some perhaps personal, thinks it best to nominate Brown. With Barnett's nomination almost an assured thing, Elkin, who is Barnett's close friend, gets what he wants. Durham is satisfied from a political standpoint with his friend Adams pretty sure of being landed. But, under this newspaper plan to nominate Brown, Connell, the most able and persistent lieutenant Quay has ever had in the northeastern part of the state, is left out in the cold. So what Connell has done. For the past four years he has spent his time and money in bringing one northeastern county after another into the Quay column. Therefore he asks and his friends asks with him, 'Can't Connell entice Archibald's nomination, so he can go back and say, 'See, it pays to be an organization man. When we want a good candidate nominated Quay is with us.

REGULARS AGAINST HIM.

"Another reason why the regulars are not in favor of Brown is because Magee and the insurgents are too well satisfied with him. This makes the regulars suspicious. They therefore ask of Quay, 'Why should the leaders even consider a man under suspicion, when it is equally easy to nominate a stalwart like Archibald?'

"There you have the situation as it really exists. But for the sake of argument, let us assume that Quay favors Brown. Then what will the organization gain? Lancaster county, as for location, is wrong for the supreme judgeship, with another candidate, Adams for superior court. In almost an adjoining county—Lehigh, the entire northeastern tier of counties without representation on the state ticket, and at present with no representative on the supreme bench."

ARE NOT REAL JOURNALISTS.

POOR BOARD MEETING.

A Number of Applications for Relief Were Heard.

The poor board met in regular session yesterday afternoon in the city hall and held one of the shortest meetings on record, only half an hour being required to furnish all business. Messrs. Paine, Murphy, Dickert, Fuller and Langstaff were present with President Brooks in the chair. Mrs. Evans, whose husband died in the Hillside home some few weeks ago, was allowed a storage passage to Wales, where she desires to go to end her days. The relief in the case of Julia Matchandis was ordered continued.

Mrs. Catherine Blake, a widow, nearly 70 years of age, and who has no children or friends at all to care for her, next appeared asking for a continuance of the $1 month which she has been receiving. Mrs. Blake is a good example of the people who are in real and actual want but who are possessed of a misguided horror of the poor farm. She says she will never go there as long as there is a drop of blood in her body.

The cases of Mrs. Catherine O'Brien, Carlotta Selaro, Mary Davis and Thomas Smith were referred to the board of the district with power to act. The usual number of bills were read and ordered paid, after which the board adjourned.
