AMBASSADOR WHITE WRITES ABOUT PEACE CONFERENCE.

The World Now Has a Workable Point Gained-Work That Will Be | said: Judged by History.

Hamburg, Aug. 20 .- At the request of the correspondent here of the Associ- to Mrs. McKinley. ated Press, Andrew D. White, United States ambassador to Germany, who anti-imperialism will die of sheer puerwas president of the American Peace lity. The mass of the American people commission at The Hague, has written We are a nation of expansionists. the following in regard to the result of The Hague conference:

In my opinion great good was acof us dared expect or even hope when we came together.

As to disarmament, everybody really thinking upon the subject must see tration has diminished the likelihood of war, the argument for cutting down forces and armaments is greatly strengthened. The logical order then is, first, arbitration and, next, disarma-

As to the plan of arbitration, any compulsory system is at present utterly out of the question. There are so many international differences involv- but it will only be to their own dising questions of race, religion, securand even national existence, and the difficulty of drawing a line between these and questions which may propbe arbitrated is so insurmountable, that there is not a nation on the face of the earth willing to risk an obligatory system. Far better, then, than any compulsory arbitration, which probably, even if it had been adopted by the conference, not one of the powers would have finally ratified, is a thoroughly good system of voluntary arbitration, recourse to which public opinion will enforce more and more, and this I earnestly believe that the conference has presented to the world.

Some of the features in the plan adopted were due to the United States, some to Great Britain, some to Russia, some to various other powers; and, in my judgment, the plan thus adopted is far more valuable than any scheme presented by any one of the powers at the beginning. The present plan is the result of most careful thought by the foremost international lawyers, statesmen and diplomatists of Europe, to say nothing of other parts of the world. They gave their whole souls to it; their pride was involved in it, and it will, I believe, be found to work satisfactorily.

Point Gained.

The great point gained is that whereas formerly an arbitration court could only be provided after long correspondence between cabinets and negotiations between ministers and debates in parliamentary bodies, and hunting for proper judges and discussions as to procedure and a thousand other delays, just when time was most precious, the conference has given to the world an arbitration tribunal as an actual and permanent institution, with judges, procedure, officers of the court, place meeting and accessories all provid-prove exceedingly valuable in preventing nations from drifting into war. It has also provided a system of commissions of inquiry, by which the real questions and grievances at issue be ascertained and brought out can to be cooly considered, instead of the wild charges, counter charges, calumnles, sensational reports and rumors which have hitherto done so much to hurry people into war. We may fairly hope that as time goes on a report to the tribunal now created will become more and more usual and natural, and that the pressure of public opinion in all cases questions at issue can possibly be settled will be far more effective than any attempt at compulsory resort to a high international court, This is certainly a great gain, and, as has been very justly observed in a very remarkable and thoughtful recent article in the "Norddeutsch Allgemeine Zeltung," the conference deserves credit for not attempting to go further. To have done so would have provoked resistence and reaction, which would have left the possibilities of war more serious even than they have been hitherto.

CONFIDENCE IN M'KINLEY. Governor Stone, of Pennsylvania, Speaks of His Visit.

Harrisburg, Pa., Aug. 20 .-- Governor Stone, who made a flying trip to Plattsburg, N. Y., with a committee to invite the president of the United States and Mrs. McKinley to review the Philippine war veterans of the Tenth Pennsylvania regiment at Pitts-Plan of Arbitration-Chances of burg, upon their arrival at that city, was seen in his office today. "The president is in favor of a most vigorous prosecution of military measures to suppress the insurrection in the omplished-far more, in fact, than any Philippines. He is a statesman, and has all the great details of policy and administration well in hand. "Our time was necessarily limited, but it was long enough to demonstrate that a good system of arbitration must to us this fact, that the president is first, and that then, when arbi- fully up to the requirements of our extended domain and responsibilities.

"I think the present congress, when it assembles, will be the beginning of one of the most important, Instructive and interesting sessions in our history, and the past will look rather primitive compared with the future.
