THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Aug. 24.—The demand for securities mostly expended itself in the early trading today and the weight of realizing sales became more burdensome and at the last made the general tendency downwards, although the marking up of a few stocks at the close to top prices made it irregular. Northern Pacific and the Union Pacific stocks rose to top prices in the final dealings. There were quite a number of rather obscure stocks which held good gains throughout, but the earlier rise in many cases was almost wiped out. The market started off well under the influence of the cheerful tone of foreign markets. An early drive against Tennessee Coal, which carried it down four points caused a momentary halt, especially in the specialties. Yesterday's strong upward movement in tobacco was resumed carrying that stock to 131½, and causing sympathetic gains of between 1 to 2 points in other leading specialties. There was a large demand for Union Pacific, Northern Pacific and Baltimore and Ohio which lifted those stocks about a point each. There was good buying of St. Paul, which advanced that stock an extreme ¾ but the other prominent Grangers did not respond. When it became known after noon that the directors of the Continental Tobacco company had failed to declare a dividend as many speculators had hoped they would, there was a drop in the tobacco stocks which reached 2¾ in American tobacco. Sugar, Brooklyn Transit and Manhattan responded in sympathy and a number of railroads lost a point. The market drifted rather uncertainly for the rest of the day except for some strength in individual stocks. The reduction of the dividend rate in Consolidated Gas, although it had been fully expected, had a bad effect on the market. The stock itself fluctuated feverishly over three points and closed at a fractional loss. Total sales 650,700.

The bond market was quite active and a number of speculative issues showed advances. Total sales par value $3,226,000. U. S. old 4s, registered declined ½ and the 5s, ½ in the bid price.
